Audio Culture Readings In Modern Music:

Audio Culture, Revised Edition Christoph Cox, Daniel Warner, 2017-07-27 The groundbreaking Audio Culture Readings in Modern Music Continuum September 2004 paperback original maps the aural and discursive terrain of vanguard music today Rather than offering a history of contemporary music Audio Culture traces the genealogy of current musical practices and theoretical concerns drawing lines of connection between recent musical production and earlier moments of sonic experimentation It aims to foreground the various rewirings of musical composition and performance that have taken place in the past few decades and to provide a critical and theoretical language for this new audio culture This new and expanded edition of the Audio Culture contains twenty five additional essays including four newly commissioned pieces Taken as a whole the book explores the interconnections among such forms as minimalism indeterminacy musique concr te free improvisation experimental music avant rock dub reggae ambient music hip hop and techno via writings by philosophers cultural theorists and composers Instead of focusing on some crossover between high art and popular culture Audio Culture takes all these musics as experimental practices on par with and linked to one another While cultural studies has tended to look at music primarily popular music from a sociological perspective the concern here is philosophical musical and historical Audio Culture includes writing by some of the most important musical thinkers of the past half century among them John Cage Brian Eno Ornette Coleman Pauline Oliveros Maryanne Amacher Glenn Gould Umberto Eco Jacques Attali Simon Reynolds Eliane Radigue David Toop John Zorn Karlheinz Stockhausen and many others Each essay has its own short introduction helping the reader to place the essay within musical historical and conceptual contexts and the volume concludes with a glossary a timeline and an extensive discography Audio Culture Christoph Cox, Daniel Warner, 2004-09-01 Contributions Brian Eno John Cage Jacques Attali Umberto Eco Christian Marclay Simon Reynolds Pierre Schaeffer Marshall McLuhan Derek Bailey Pauline Oliveros Tony Conrad David Toop etc Audio culture Christoph Cox, Daniel Warner, 2005 Liveness in Modern Music Paul Sanden, 2013 This study investigates the idea and practice of liveness in modern music The book argues that liveness itself emerges from dynamic tensions inherent in mediated musical contexts tensions between music as an acoustic human utterance and musical sound as something produced or altered by machines Loading the Silence: Australian Sound Art in the Post-Digital Age Linda Ioanna Kouvaras, 2016-05-13 The experimentalist phenomenon of noise as constituting art in much twentieth century music paradoxically reached its zenith in Cage's silent piece 4 33 But much post 1970s musical endeavour with an experimentalist telos collectively known as sound art has displayed a postmodern need to load modernism's degree zero After contextualizing experimentalism from its inception in the early twentieth century Dr Linda Kouvaras's Loading the Silence Australian Sound Art in the Post Digital Age explores the ways in which selected sound art works demonstrate creatively how sound is embedded within local national gendered and historical environments Taking Australian music as its primary but not sole focus the book not only covers discussions of technological advancement but also engages with aesthetic standpoints through numerous interviews theoretical developments analysis and cultural milieu for a contemporary Australian and wider postmodern context Developing new methodologies for synergies between musicology and cultural studies the book uncovers a new post postmodern aesthetic trajectory which Kouvaras locates as developing over the past two decades the altermodern Australian sound art is here put firmly on the map of international debates about contemporary music providing a standard reference and valuable resource for practitioners in the artform music critics scholars and educators Sound Recording Technology and American Literature Jessica Teague, 2021-05-20 This book investigates the sustained engagement between American literature and sound recording technologies during the twentieth century Samuel Beckett, Repetition and Modern Music John McGrath, 2017-11-13 Music abounds in twentieth century Irish literature Whether it be the thought tormented music of Joyce's The Dead the folk tunes and opera that resound throughout Ulysses or the four part threnody in Beckett's Watt it is clear that the influence of music on the written word in Ireland is deeply significant Samuel Beckett arguably went further than any other writer in the incorporation of musical ideas into his work Musical quotations inhabit his texts and structural devices such as the da capo are metaphorically employed Perhaps most striking is the erosion of explicit meaning in Beckett's later prose brought about through an extensive use of repetition influenced by his reading of Schopenhauer's philosophy of music Exploring this notion of semantic fluidity John McGrath discusses the ways in which Beckett utilised extreme repetition to create texts that operate and are received more like music Beckett's writing has attracted the attention of numerous contemporary composers and an investigation into how this Beckettian musicalized fiction has been retranslated into contemporary music forms the second half of the book Close analyses of the Beckett inspired music of experimental composer Morton Feldman and the structured improvisations of avantjazz guitarist Scott Fields illustrate the cross genre appeal of Beckett to musicians but also demonstrate how repetition operates in diverse ways Through the examination of the pivotal role of repetition in both music and literature of the twentieth century and beyond John McGrath's book is a significant contribution to the field of Word and Music Studies The Oxford Handbook of Sound and Image in Digital Media Carol Vernallis, Amy Herzog, John Richardson, 2015 This collection surveys the contemporary landscape of audiovisual media Contributors from image and sound studies explore the history and the future of moving image media across a range of formats including blockbuster films video games music videos social media experimental film documentaries video art pornography theater and electronic music Authorship Roles in Popular Music Ron Moy, 2015-06-19 Authorship Roles in Popular Music applies the critical concept of auteur theory to popular music via different aspects of production and creativity Through critical analysis of the music itself this book contextualizes key concepts of authorship relating to gender race technology originality uniqueness and genius and raises important questions about the cultural constructions of authenticity value class nationality and genre Using a range of case studies as examples it visits areas as diverse as studio production composition DJing collaboration performance and audience This book is an essential introduction to the critical issues and debates surrounding authorship in popular music It is an ideal resource for students researchers and scholars in popular musicology and cultural studies Innovation in Music Russ Hepworth-Sawyer,Jay Hodgson,Justin Paterson,Rob Toulson,2019-06-25 Innovation in Music Performance Production Technology and Business is an exciting collection comprising of cutting edge articles on a range of topics presented under the main themes of artistry technology production and industry Each chapter is written by a leader in the field and contains insights and discoveries not yet shared Innovation in Music covers new developments in standard practice of sound design engineering and acoustics It also reaches into areas of innovation both in technology and business practice even into cross discipline areas This book is the perfect companion for professionals and researchers alike with an interest in the Music industry Chapter 31 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license
