Ebony, 1977-05 EBONY is the flagship magazine of Johnson Publishing Founded in 1945 by John H Johnson it still maintains the highest global circulation of any African American focused magazine The National Alliance of Black Feminists Ileana Nachescu, 2025-06-24 Founded in 1975 the non partisan National Alliance of Black Feminists NABF played a critical role in the Black women s liberation movement and the fight for the Equal Rights Amendment The Chicago based organization s Black humanist feminism powered a singular dedication to building coalitions while influencing its historic set of comprehensive political economic and cultural demands Ileana Nachescu places the NABF s history as the bridge between Black women s social activism in the 1970s and the intellectual activism of the 1980s Her account details the NABF s work and how it reflected the group s strong humanist belief in the transformation of all human beings Nachescu also shows that the NABF s post Eighties erasure from movement histories is consistent with how many white feminists marginalized women of color and rejected their leadership From there Nachescu examines Black lesbians vibrant support of the NABF and shows how respectability politics pressured the group to support its lesbian membership in private but maintain a public silence on the issue A rare in depth look at an overlooked organization The National Alliance of Black Feminists tells an untold story of Black women s liberation in the Midwest Resources in Education, 1980 Talking Difference Mary Crawford, 1995-08-11 Talking Difference provides an excellent critical review of a good selection of the research in language and gender published over the last 20 years including a substantial amount from the area of psychology I found this an exhilarating book written with energy and wit Crawford maintains a consistently critical approach identifying contradictions and ambiguities in popular theories of gender difference and exposing conceptual and methodological weaknesses in language and gender research The volume is well structured and readable it will prove very valuable in undergraduate and beginning postgraduate courses in language and gender or in women s studies as well as offering much which should interest students of communication studies and social psychology Language in Society The alternative to the essentialist approach Crawford proposes is the social constructionist view Crawford s analysis of conversational humor is particularly eye opening Talking Difference is not only a great read but also an acute criticism of current research and a very important contribution to feminist theory Journal of Pragmatics African American Communication Michael L. Hecht, Ronald L. Jackson, Sidney A. Ribeau, 2003-01-01 What communicative experiences are particular to African Americans How do many African Americans define themselves culturally How do they perceive intracultural and intercultural communication These questions are answered in this second edition of African American Communication Exploring Identity and Culture Informing multiple audiences interested in African American culture from cultural researchers and practitioners to educators policymakers and community leaders this innovative and invaluable resource examines the richness and depth of African American communication norms and patterns as well as African American identities Positive and healthy African American identities are centrally positioned throughout the book Applying the cultural contracts theory and the communication theory of identity authors Michael L Hecht Ronald L Jackson II and Sidney A Ribeau explore relationships among African Americans as well as between African Americans and European Americans while highlighting the need for sensitivity to issues of power when discussing race ethnicity and culture This wide ranging volume provides an extensive review of the relevant literature and offers recommendations designed to encourage understanding of African American communication in a context extending beyond Eurocentric paradigms Considering African American identity with a communicative linguistic and relational focus this volume Defines African American identities by describing related terms such as self self concept personhood and identity Explores Afrocentricity and African American discourse Examines the status of African Americans in the United States using census statistics and national studies from other research agencies Considers identity negotiation and competence and Features a full chapter on African American relationships including gendered familial intimate adolescent and adult homosexual friendship communal and workplace relationships African American Communication Exploring Identity and Culture begins an important dialogue in the communication discipline intercultural studies African American studies and other fields concerned with the centrality of culture and communication as it relates to human behavior It is intended for advanced students and scholars in intercultural communication interpersonal communication communication theory African American Black studies social psychology sociolinguistics education and family studies

Feeling Democracy Sarah Tobias,Arlene Stein,2024-06-14 Cultural critic Lauren Berlant wrote that politics is always emotional and her words hold especially true for politics in the twenty first century From Obama to Trump from Black Lives Matter to the anti abortion movement politicians and activists appeal to hope fear anger and pity all amplified by social media The essays in Feeling Democracy examine how both reactionary and progressive politics are driven largely by emotional appeals to the public The contributors in this collection cover everything from immigrants rights movements to white nationalist rallies to show how solidarities forged around gender race and sexuality become catalysts for a passionate democratic politics Some essays draw parallels between today s activist strategies and the use of emotion in women led radical movements from the 1960s and 1970s while others expand the geographic scope of the collection by considering Asian decolonial politics and Egyptian pro democracy protests Incorporating scholarship from fields as varied as law political science philosophy psychoanalysis and history Feeling Democracy considers how emotional rhetoric in politics can be a double edged sword often wielded by authoritarian populists who seek to undermine democracy but sometimes helping to bring about a genuine renewal of participatory democracy

Cultural Proficiency Randall B. Lindsey,Kikanza Nuri-Robins,Raymond D. Terrell,Delores B. Lindsey,2018-08-02 Our students futures depend upon it If we re to guarantee equitable access and improved academic outcomes for our historically underserved students then we must first confront the deeply rooted biases and practices that for far too long have limited them That's where Cultural Proficiency A Manual for School Leaders has already benefited tens of thousands of schools leaders and the students teachers and communities they serve Cultural Proficiency helps us all establish a mindset and worldview for effectively describing and responding to inequities Its inside outside approach to leadership is grounded in the assumption that honest introspection is a requirement to leading equity driven change And now with updated content new case studies expanded vignettes new activities and study guides and an updated matrix this fourth edition is more urgently needed than ever What leaders love most is the way Cultural Proficiency lays the groundwork for powerful organizational growth with resources to Engage colleagues in collaborative dialogue about creating powerful teaching and learning environments Recognize and respond to both individual and group differences to break down barriers Use the Cultural Proficiency Continuum to assess the limitations of school practices and identify opportunities to shift the culture Take this first step on the Cultural Proficiency journey and soon enough you too can create equitable educational opportunities and more inclusive environments in which differences are embraced This book is a riveting and unparalleled resource for all educational merchants of hope The insights learning strategies and professional development structures in this edition illuminate a path for all leaders to successfully commit to the journey of being equity champions Dr Erick E Witherspoon National Director of Equity Professional Development Services Generation Ready There is no greater honor than to have one's professional work become the inspiration for a new way of thinking and transformative literature and action that change the world for schools and the children and youth they serve I am grateful that the ideas have been so skillfully brought to scale by these authors Dr Terry L Cross MSW Founder and Senior Advisor National Indian Child Welfare Association The Shy Child Philip G. Zimbardo, Shirley L. Radl, 1999 Two out of every five people in the U S regard themselves as shy Yet shyness can be cured says Dr Philip Zimbardo the nation's leading authority on shyness With co author Shirley Radl Dr Zimbardo presents a program for overcoming and preventing shyness from infancy to adulthood The book is based on pioneering research conducted at the Stanford Shyness Clinic including surveys of people in the U S and abroad with children parents and teachers The book documents which parenting style encourages self confidence in a child helps with the problems of being shy and provides methods for building a child's trust and self esteem It explores the role that school plays in contributing to a child's shyness and suggests ways to improve the quality of the classroom experience for every child THE SHY CHILD is the only book to provide an effective program for conquering childhood shyness before it has a chance to limit a child's options and determine the course of the child's life
