Between Terror And Tolerance Religious Leaders Conflict And Peacemaking:

Between Terror and Tolerance Timothy D. Sisk, 2011-11-21 Civil war and conflict within countries is the most prevalent threat to peace and security in the opening decades of the twenty first century A pivotal factor in the escalation of tensions to open conflict is the role of elites in exacerbating tensions along identity lines by giving the ideological justification moral reasoning and call to violence Between Terror and Tolerance examines the varied roles of religious leaders in societies deeply divided by ethnic racial or religious conflict The chapters in this book explore cases when religious leaders have justified or catalyzed violence along identity lines and other instances when religious elites have played a critical role in easing tensions or even laying the foundation for peace and reconciliation This volume features thematic chapters on the linkages between religion nationalism and intolerance transnational intra faith conflict in the Shi a Sunni divide and country case studies of societal divisions or conflicts in Egypt Israel and Palestine Kashmir Lebanon Nigeria Northern Ireland Sri Lanka Sudan and Tajikistan The concluding chapter explores the findings and their implications for policies and programs of international non governmental organizations that seek to encourage and enhance the capacity of religious leaders to play a constructive role in conflict resolution

The ^AOxford Handbook of Religion, Conflict, and Peacebuilding Atalia Omer, R. Scott Appleby, David Little, 2015-03-02 The book provides a comprehensive overview of the literature on religion conflict and peacebuilding With a focus on structural and cultural violence the volume also offers a cutting edge interdisciplinary reframing of the scope of scholarship in the field

Religious Leaders and Conflict Transformation Nukhet A. Sandal, 2017-02-16 The book introduces a theoretical framework to understand the role of religious leaders in conflict transformation and peacebuilding

Protestant-Catholic Conflict from the Reformation to the 21st Century John Wolffe, 2013-04-11 Taking a fresh look at the roots and implications of the enduring major historic fissure in Western Christianity this book presents new insights into the historical dynamics of Protestant Catholic conflict while illuminating present day contexts and suggesting comparisons for approaching other entrenched conflicts in which religion is implicated

Religion and Global Politics Sheriff Folarin, Olusola Ogunnubi, 2022-06-21 Religion and Global Politics Soft Power in Nigeria and Beyond examines the deployment of religious soft power in African states and the potential it has for transforming perceptions of the continent The contributors refocus the attention on religion away from the misery discourse of conflict and violence towards the domain of international relations diplomacy and foreign policy in Africa Through this shift the contributors analyze the ways in which religion has impacted the external relations of African states Religion and Global Politics introduces the theme of religion to the discourse of African international relations and politics to provide a thorough examination of religion s influence on politics in the daily lives of African people

Sectarianization Nader Hashemi, Danny Postel, 2017-03-15 As the Middle East descends ever deeper into violence and chaos sectarianism has become a catch all explanation for the region s troubles The turmoil is attributed to ancient sectarian differences putatively primordial forces that make violent conflict intractable. In media and policy discussions, sectarianism has come to possess trans-historical causal power. This book trenchantly challenges the lazy use of sectarianism as a magic bullet explanation for the region's ills, focusing on how various conflicts in the Middle East have morphed from non-sectarian or cross-sectarian and nonviolent movements into sectarian wars. Through multiple case studies including Syria, Iraq, Lebanon, Saudi Arabia, Bahrain, Yemen, and Kuwait, this book maps the dynamics of sectarianisation, exploring not only how but also why it has taken hold. The contributors examine the constellation of forces from those within societies to external factors such as the Saudi-Iran rivalry that drive the sectarianisation process and explore how the region's politics can be de-sectarianised. Featuring leading scholars and including historians, anthropologists, political scientists, and international relations theorists, this book will redefine the terms of debate on one of the most critical issues in international affairs today.

Peacemakers in Action: Volume 2 Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding, 2016-10-03. The second volume of Peacemakers in Action tells the stories of remarkable individuals, peacemakers across the world who strive to end violence in religiously charged conflicts.

Peacemakers in Action: Volume 2 Joyce S. Dubensky, 2016-10-03. Every day, men and women risk their lives to stop violence in religiously charged conflicts around the world. You may not know their names, but you should. Peacemakers in Action: Volume 2 provides a window into the triumphs, risks, failures, and lessons learned of eight remarkable, religiously motivated peacemakers, including a Methodist bishop in the Democratic Republic of the Congo who confronts armed warlords on his front lawn; a Christian who travels to Syria to coordinate medical aid and rebuild postwar communities; a Muslim woman, not knowing how Kabul's imams will react, arrives to train them on how to treat women respectfully. Volume 2 offers students of religious and grassroots peacebuilding informative techniques and methods for organizing community action, establishing trust in conflict, and instilling hope amid turmoil. The book also features updates of case studies presented in Volume 1.

Peacemakers in Action David Little, 2007. Peacemakers in Action explores the conflicts and the stories of 15 individuals identified by the Tanenbaum Center for Interreligious Understanding from regions as far-flung as West Papua, Indonesia, the Middle East, Northern Ireland, Nigeria, El Salvador, and South Africa.

Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria Isaiah Ekundayo Dada, 2019-04-18. Nigeria, a country under a military regime for several years, transitioned to a civilian regime in May 1999. Since this change, violent conflicts between Christians and Muslims have continued to erupt. They constitute one of the gravest dangers facing Nigeria, a country with a population of 189 million people. What have Nigerian religious leaders done about this situation, especially in educational circles? Have they received formal educational training to understand the causes of this violence and especially how to provide alternatives for more peaceful relations within Nigeria? Does the current educational system in Nigeria provide the main ingredients for the promotion of a culture of peace? The absence and neglect of interreligious peace education as part of a peace education core program and the lack of an interreligious curriculum for peace education in the training of religious leaders are the two problems contributing towards the lack of effectiveness of religious leaders in promoting less violent and more peaceful living. The solution to the problem is proposed in this book entitled Interreligious Curriculum for Peace Education in Nigeria. The book develops a one year curriculum building on Yoruba Islamic Christian conceptions of peace and teaches how to create safe caring spiritual peaceful and successful interfaith relationships between all Nigerian religious communities. In the long term the book helps to educate religious leaders to contribute in themselves and with the help of their respective religious communities to reducing the growing religious violence in Nigeria.
