Beyond the Horizon Colin Angus, 2010-02-12 In June 2004 Colin Angus left Vancouver on his bicycle Nearly two years later he rolled back in looking like a castaway and having completed the first human powered circumnavigation of the globe Angus cycled skied and rowed a route that took him to Alaska across the Bering Sea and the Siberian winter across Europe from Moscow to Portugal then across the Atlantic to Costa Rica a 156 day rowing odyssey From there it was a short 8 300 kilometre ride back to Vancouver Along the way he burned through 4 000 chocolate bars 72 inner tubes 250 kgs of freeze dried foods 31 dorado fish caught from the sea 2 offshore rowboats 4 bicycles 80 kgs of clothing And he showed the world that if he can travel 43 000 kilometres without polluting the planet then the rest of us can get off our butts and clean up our own acts We lay in the rowboat cabin as the seas swelled and the sky boiled like a devil's cauldron Slanting yellow sun beams cut between black squalls and corrugated cirrus clouds interlaced the remaining areas of blue Huge anvil heads roiled and billowed like slow moving atomic explosions Flashes of lightning illuminated the IMAX screen of the horizon Such energy and volatility would have been breathtakingly beautiful if we had been watching from nearly anywhere else and if it weren't for the fact that it was all just a prelude to a killer storm It was hard to believe that yet another tropical cyclone was heading our way We had chosen the worst hurricane season in recorded history to make our five month 10 000 km unsupported rowboat crossing of the Atlantic Ocean Now two months into our voyage it looked very likely our expedition might come to an abrupt end Our voyage across the Atlantic was only a part of a much larger expedition an attempt to complete the first human powered circumnavigation of the planet So far we had trekked skied cycled canoed and rowed non stop across three continents and were half way across our second ocean Now as I huddled in the dog house sized cabin with my fianc e waiting for the Hurricane Epsilon to reach us I cursed myself for ever believing I could achieve such an impossible quest From Beyond the Horizon "Beyond the Horizon" John H. Whalen,2012-11-15 Beyond the Horizon is about a young man s search for himself and his purpose in life The book takes place in the future after a nuclear holocaust was released upon the world After the death of his mother Jessica Miles goes in search of his father John who had not returned to their village after several years He starts out his adventure with his large dog A len Miles rescues the beautiful Sara from some grotesque man creatures While exploring this primordial world they have many adventures which include evil shape shifters witches that practice the dark arts monster rats and the dreaded demon beasts As they travel on together Sara and Miles become very close and Miles begins to have feelings that he doesn t understand They also learn to continue to seek what is Beyond the Horizon Beyond Horizons Carleton Mitchell,1953

Beyond Pug's Tour, 2022-06-08

At a time when the world, Europe especially, is once more threatened by murderous conflicts between groups of people claiming ethnic and national identity as a basis for sovereignty over specific territories, it is timely to consider the part that literature has played and is playing in the creation of ethnic and national stereotypes. What role do such stereotypes have in literature? How are they created? From what materials are they constructed? What purpose do ethnic and national stereotypes serve? Can it ever be a useful one? Are they avoidable? Can we live without them? What can be done about the deleterious effects they may be thought to produce? Stereotyping is worldwide: is there a tribe, race, and nation in existence which escapes being stereotyped by its neighbours? In what sense are these stereotypes accurate? How are these stereotypes reflected in and reinforced by literature? Should and can literature do anything about them?

In Beyond Pug's Tour: National and Ethnic Stereotyping in Theory and Literary Practice, literary scholars as well as academics engaged in sociological and psychological research consider these and other questions by examining the work of specific authors and the circumstances in which stereotyping plays such a crucial part.

Adventure Awaits: Writing for Explorers Dylan Hill, The world is a vast and captivating tapestry woven with threads of adventure, discovery, and wonder. For those who crave the thrill of the unknown, the allure of extreme travel beckons, offering a chance to push personal limits, embrace the unpredictable, and forge lasting memories. But these experiences are more than just fleeting moments of adrenaline; they are stories waiting to be told. This book is a guide for explorers, both literal and metaphorical. It is a resource for anyone who seeks to capture the essence of their adventures in words to share their experiences with the world and to inspire others to embark on journeys of their own. Whether you are a seasoned adventurer or a curious beginner, the principles outlined in these pages will empower you to transform your experiences into compelling narratives that resonate with readers. Imagine yourself standing atop a mountain peak, wind whipping through your hair, the world spread out beneath you like a vast, breathtaking canvas. Or picture yourself diving deep beneath the ocean's surface, surrounded by a kaleidoscope of vibrant coral and mysterious creatures. These are the moments that adventure seekers cherish, the moments that shape us and leave an indelible mark on our souls. But how can we capture these experiences in words, convey the raw emotions, the physical challenges, and the profound sense of wonder? How can we translate the sensory overload, the adrenaline rush, and the transformative power of the journey into a narrative that leaves readers breathless and wanting more? This book is your guide to unlocking the stories that lie dormant within your adventurous spirit. It will equip you with the tools and techniques you need to transform your experiences into captivating narratives that inspire and captivate. Prepare to delve into the art of storytelling, learn to master the power of sensory detail, and discover the techniques for conveying the emotions and risks associated with extreme travel. By the time you turn the final page, you will have a newfound understanding of how to weave together personal anecdotes, breathtaking landscapes, and the psychological and physical challenges of adventure, leaving your readers breathless with anticipation and vicariously experiencing the journey themselves.
