Breaking Cycle Politics Constitutional Governance:

Political Governance and the African Peer Review Mechanism Omololu Fagbadebo, Isioma U. Ile, 2025-04-15 This book presents a comparative analysis of political governance and includes case studies from various African countries. It further sheds light on the paradox of poverty despite Africa's plentiful resources and traces its roots in historical legacies of colonialism and leadership failures. The book examines the African Peer Review Mechanism (APRM) initiated by the African Union (AU) in 2003 and explores the APRM's role in promoting sustainable development, political stability, and integration. Against this background, the book dissects the four thematic areas of the APRM with a focal point on democratic and political governance, illuminating challenges and proposing solutions. In case studies on selected African countries, contributors present governance structures highlighting the struggle for accountability, representation, and public participation. The book highlights alarming indicators of weak governance, including corruption and declining public engagement, and reflects Africa's journey toward effective governance. By doing so, the book scrutinizes African governing systems' responses to crises and offers valuable insights into the continent's quest for progress and transformation.

Statehood à la Carte in the Caribbean and the Pacific Jack Corbett, 2023-04-15 This book explains how leaders in the Caribbean and Pacific regions balance the autonomy viability dilemma of postcolonial statehood, that political self-determination is a hollow achievement unless it is accompanied by economic development by practising statehood la carte. Previous research has focused on the pursuit of decolonial self-determination through and above the nation-state via regionalism and internationalism or by creating non-sovereign alternatives to it. This book looks at how communities have sought the same goals below the state, including via secession and devolution. Downsizing is typically portrayed as the antithesis of progressive cosmopolitan internationalism and employed as evidence for the claim that the age of anticolonial self-determination has ended. In this book, Jack Corbett shows how these movements are animated by similar ideas and motivations that are rendered viable by the simultaneous pursuit of regional integration and forms of non-sovereignty. He argues that the la carte pursuit of political and economic independence through above and below the state and via non-sovereign alternatives to it is a pragmatic response to the contradictions inherent to coloniality.
