Brick Township Postcard History:

Brick Township Gene Donatiello, John Leavey, 2013 In 1850 the New Jersey Legislature created Ocean County and Brick Township naming it for Joseph W Brick the industrious owner of Bergen Iron Works At the beginning of the 20th century Brick Township was a rural community Up until the 1920s postcards of the township were primarily architectural images Brick Township contains updated images of familiar names and places Emma Havens Young for whom an elementary school has been named the very popular Red Lion Tavern later called the Red Lion Inn the progression of four bridges crossing Barnegat Bay to the peninsula area of Brick Township and Traders Cove Marina as it looked in the 1950s when it was called Pleasure Cove Marina There are postcards from summer camps such as Camp NEJECHO and Metedeconk Summer Camp and from summer resorts such as Breton Woods Riviera Beach and Normandy Beach New Philadelphia in Vintage Postcards Erin L. VanFossen, 2004 In 1772 Native Americans granted land in the Tuscarawas Valley to Moravian missionary David Zeisberger and he established the Christian community of Schoenbrunn Village which remained until 1777 when members were forced to relocate Then in late 1804 John Knisely his family and other pioneers braved the western frontier and settled on the Tuscarawas River near the Schoenbrunn Village site On October 23 1804 John Knisely founded the town of New Philadelphia He was a great philanthropist donating land to the city for future public buildings guaranteeing its selection as the Tuscarawas County Seat In Schoenbrunn Village which has been partially excavated and rebuilt as a historic site in New Philadelphia missionaries lived in harmony with Native Americans and so it seems fitting that New Philadelphia through the influence of John Knisely's generosity has maintained its image as the new city of brotherly love Two hundred years later the city strives to keep Knisely's dream alive with its generous allocation of resources and commitment to those in need The Official Museum Directory 1991 ,1990 The Official Museum Directory, 1992 ,1992-12 Resorts & Recreation ,1995 The History and People of New Jersey's Shore Frances L. Mollett, 1983 Brown Township Tales Alan Frederick Smith, 2002 Around Curwensville Julie Rae Rickard, 2007-11-21 Curwensville one of the oldest towns in Clearfield County began as a lumber town Some of the area's finest families made their fortunes by harvesting the tall pine trees that were used as ship masts The Irvin and Patton families were instrumental in the development of the town as they brought the railroad to the area and contributed to the schools banks and a water system In the 20th century industries such as brick making stone quarries and tanneries became vital to the community Bringing to life an era when every settlement was a stop on the railroad route Around Curwensville is an exciting collection of historic photographs from Curwensville and surrounding towns including Clearfield Grampian and DuBois Directory of Historical Organizations in the United States and Canada American Association for State and Local History, 2002 This multi functional reference is a useful tool to find information about history related organizations and programs and to contact those working in history across the country Sparta Gwen Donovan, 2010 Incorporated in 1845 Sparta was once a Colonial farming village comprised of stone mills

general stores and one room schoolhouses Summer visitors from surrounding metropolitan areas were drawn to Sparta in the late 1800s for the fresh mountain air During that time Thomas Edison came to Sparta to extract iron ore at his massive Edison village manufacturing plant on Sparta Mountain The 1920s saw the development of Lake Mohawk permanently changing the landscape of the township as the windswept Brogden Meadow was transformed into a sparkling 3 mile long lake which attracted hundreds of part time residents While Sparta is no longer a farming community mining town or seasonal vacation destination today s residents take great pride in its small town appeal and rich colorful past
