Breaking The Silence A Novel Of Spains Civil War:

Breaking the Silence Maria J. Nieto, 2015-04-09 On a sweltering summer day the streets of Old Madrid that once resonated with the laughter of children playing are empty and silent But inside the apartment buildings there is life as families faithfully wait for updates about an army uprising in Spanish Morocco Before long their greatest fears come true As rebel troops storm Madrid and chaos fills the streets six year old Mari wonders why she cannot go outside to play Unfortunately she has no idea she is about to be trapped inside the abyss of what is rapidly becoming a ruthless civil war Already emotionally wounded by the absence of her mother Mari attempts to go about her fear filled days living with her fathers family which includes a grandfather who lovingly teaches her about the history leading up to the conflict As she embarks on a coming of age journey submerged in the darkness of war Mari somehow stays alive despite the decisions of an intimidating ruthless dictator starvation and brainwashing by the new Fascist regime But when circumstances lead her to inadvertently commit the ultimate betrayal Mari must face the horrifying consequences of her actions Breaking the Silence shares the compelling tale of a little girls experiences as she attempts to survive amid the horror and death surrounding the Spanish Civil War

Breaking the Silence Maria J. Nieto, 2022-09-02 Breaking the Silence Nieto, 2017-12-27 The echo of women screaming and children crying could be heard in the streets of Madrid as bombs fell crushing building and leaving torn and disfigured bloody bodies hanging from the ruins It was 1930 and a Civil War had started in Spain Breaking the Silence is a vividly realistic and powerful story of a 6 year old little girl trying to understand and survive in a world where fathers kill sons sons kill fathers and brothers kill each other The little girl s name is Mari and her world is filled with fear and confusion as she imitates the marching steps of soldiers using their descriptive language and names given to the enemy Much tragedy occurs in the life of this little child during the long years of war and post war years under and mind altering dictator But there are also moments of comedy tenderness and compassion in her life during those terrible days The reader s eyes may sometimes fill with tears but also will sometimes there will be bursts of laughter The end of Breaking the Silence is both unexpected and electrifying

Narrating Motherhood(s), Breaking the Silence Silvia Caporale-Bizzini, 2006 Feminist theory on motherhood has successfully transformed mothers into subjects of their own discourse recognized the historical heterogeneous and socially constructed origins of their life experience while at the same time widening our understanding of the notion of mothering This collection combines a literary and a wider cultural perspective from which to look at the topic of the representation of other or forgotten motherhoods Mothers who have been forced to live exiled and away from their children women who after trying to conceive get pregnant but discover they cannot bear to become mothers or even literary characters based on an autobiographical experience of a sexually abusive mother The essays critically point out how writing becomes a tool to think and write about the many aspects of motherhood such as an idealized maternal experience versus the real one or the accepted stereotypes of the good mother and the bad mother Testimony and Trauma Cristina

Santos, Adriana Spahr, Tracy Crowe Morey, 2019-03-19 This book offers a collection of reflective essays on current testimonial production by researchers and practitioners working in multifaceted fields such as art and film performance public memorialization scriptotherapy and fictional and non fictional testimony The interdisciplinary approach to the question of testimony offers a current account of testimony's diversity in the twenty first century as well as its relevance within the fields of art storytelling trauma and activism The range of topics engage with questions of genre and modes of representation ethical and political concerns of testimony and the flaws and limitations of testimonial production giving testament to some of the ethical concerns of our present age Contributors are Alison Atkinson Phillips Olga Bezhanova Melissa Burchard Mateusz Chaberski Candace Couse Tracy Crowe Morey Marwa Sayed Hanafy Rachel Joy Emma Kelly Timothy Long Elizabeth Matheson Antonio Prado del Santo Christine Ramsay Cristina Santos and Adriana Spahr Self-Censorship in Contexts of Conflict Daniel Bar-Tal, Rafi Nets-Zehngut, Keren Sharvit, 2017-10-30 This groundbreaking volume explores the concept of self censorship as it relates to individuals and societies and functions as a barrier to peace Defining self censorship as the act of intentionally and voluntarily withholding information from others in the absence of formal obstacles the volume introduces self censorship as one of the socio psychological mechanisms that prevent the free flow of information and thus obstruct proper functioning of democratic societies Moreover it analyzes this socio psychological phenomenon specifically in the context of intractable conflict providing much evidence from the Israeli Palestinian conflict Moving from the micro to the macro level the collected chapters put the individual as the focal unit of psychological analysis while embedding the individual in multiple levels of context including families organizations and societies Following a firm conceptual explanation of self censorship a selection of both emerging and prominent scholars describe the ways in which self censorship factors into families organizations education academia and other settings Further chapters discuss self censorship in military contexts narratives of political violence and the media Finally the volume concludes by looking at the ways in which harmful self censorship in societies can be overcome and explores the future of self censorship research In doing so this volume solidifies self censorship as an important phenomenon of social behavior with major individual and collective consequences while stimulating exciting and significant new research possibilities in the social and behavioral sciences Conceptually carving out a new area in peace psychology Self Censorship in Contexts of Peace and Conflict will appeal to psychologists sociologists peace researchers political scientists practitioners and all those with a wish to understand the personal and societal functioning of individuals in the real world Memory, War, and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women Sarah Leggott, 2015-06-10 Memory War and Dictatorship in Recent Spanish Fiction by Women analyzes five novels by women writers that present women's experiences during and after the Spanish Civil War and Franco dictatorship highlighting the struggles of female protagonists of different ages to confront an unresolved individual and collective past It discusses the different narrative models and strategies used in these works and the ways in which they engage with their political and historical context particularly in the light of campaigns for the so called recovery of historical memory in Spain the memory boom and in the broader context of memory and trauma studies The novels that are examined in this book are Dulce Chac n s La voz dormida 2002 Rosa Reg s s Luna lunera 1999 Josefina Aldecoa s La fuerza del destino 1997 Carme Riera s La mitad del alma 2005 and Almudena Grandes s El coraz n helado 2007 These works all highlight the multiple nature of memories and histories and demonstrate the complex ways in which the past impacts on the present This book also considers the extent to which the memories represented in these five novels are inflected by gender and informed by the gender politics of twentieth century and contemporary Spain

Experiments in Life-Writing Lucia Boldrini, Julia Novak, 2017-10-24 This volume examines innovative intersections of life writing and experimental fiction in the 20th and 21st centuries bringing together scholars and practicing biographers from several disciplines Modern Languages English and Comparative Literature Creative Writing It covers a broad range of biographical autobiographical and hybrid practices in a variety of national literatures among them many recent works texts that test the ground between fact and fiction that are marked by impressionist self reflexive and intermedial methods by their recourse to myth folklore poetry or drama as they tell a historical character s story Between them the essays shed light on the broad range of auto biographical experimentation in modern Europe and will appeal to readers with an interest in the history and politics of form in life writing in the ways in which departures from traditional generic paradigms are intricately linked with specific views of subjectivity with questions of personal communal and national identity The Introduction of this book is open access under a CC BY 4 0 license via link springer.com

Spanish Women Writers and Spain's Civil War Maryellen Bieder, Roberta Johnson, 2016-12-01 The Spanish Civil War 1936 1939 pitted conservative forces including the army the Church the Falange fascist party landowners and industrial capitalists against the Republic installed in 1931 and supported by intellectuals the petite bourgeoisie many campesinos farm laborers and the urban proletariat Provoking heated passions on both sides the Civil War soon became an international phenomenon that inspired a number of literary works reflecting the impact of the war on foreign and national writers While the literature of the period has been the subject of scholarship women s literary production has not been studied as a body of work in the same way that literature by men has been and its unique features have not been examined Addressing this lacuna in literary studies this volume provides fresh perspectives on well known women writers as well as less studied ones whose works take the Spanish Civil War as a theme The authors represented in this collection reflect a wide range of political positions Writers such as Maria Zambrano Merc Rodoreda and Josefina Aldecoa were clearly aligned with the Republic whereas others including Mercedes Salisachs and Liberata Masoliver sympathized with the Nationalists Most however are situated in a more ambiguous political space although the ethics and character portraits that emerge in their works might suggest Republican sympathies Taken together the essays are an important contribution to scholarship on literature inspired by this pivotal point in Spanish history

Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War Sebastiaan

Faber, 2021-04-30 The ability to forget the violent twentieth century past was long seen as a virtue in Spain even a duty But the common wisdom has shifted as increasing numbers of Spaniards want to know what happened who suffered and who is to blame Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War shows how historiography fiction and photography have shaped our views of the 1936-39 war and its long painful aftermath Faber traces the curious trajectories of iconic Spanish Civil War photographs by Robert Capa Gerda Taro and David Seymour critically reads a dozen recent Spanish novels and essays interrogates basic scholarly assumptions about history memory and literature and interviews nine scholars activists and documentarians who in the past decade and a half have helped redefine Spain's relationship to its past In this book Faber argues that recent political developments in Spain from the grassroots call for the recovery of historical memory to the indignados movement and the foundation of Podemos provide an opportunity for scholars in the humanities to engage in a more activist public and democratic practice
