Ireland William A. Dumbleton, 1984-06-30 The essence of the Emerald Isle is captured in this book which introduces the reader to Irish literature as it reflects and illuminates the history and culture of the people of Ireland William Dumbleton has painted an impressionistic portrait of the country and its literature focusing where it serves to bring out the essential pattern on relevant or exemplary works by such writers as Maria Edgeworth William Butler Yeats James Plunkett Sean O'Casey John Synge Liam O'Flaherty James Joyce and John McGahern

Light, Freedom and Song David Pierce, 2005-01-01 In this absorbing analysis of modern Irish writing an acknowledged expert considers the hybrid character of modern Irish writing to show how language culture and history have been affected by the colonial encounter between Ireland and Britain Examining the great themes of loss and struggle David Pierce traces the impact on Irish writing of the Great Famine and cultural nationalism and considers the way the work of Ireland's two leading writers W B Yeats and James Joyce complicate and elucidate our view of the harp and the crown The book draws a contrast between the West of Ireland in the 1930s when the new Irish State enjoyed its first full independent decade and the North of Ireland in the 1980s when the spectre of British imperialism threatened the stability of Ireland Pierce then surveys contemporary Irish writing and reflects on the legacy of the colonial encounter and on the passage to a postmodern or postnationalist Ireland in the work of such crucial living writers as John Banville Derek Mahon and John McGahern
