Bridging Divided Worlds Generational Cultures In Congregations:

Bridging Divided Worlds Jackson W. Carroll, Wade Clark Roof, 2002-03-05 Just about all religious communities have to confront the tension between generations such as the pre boomers baby boomers and gen Xers who all bring their unique understandings of faith various levels of religious literacy and different expectations of what a church or synagogue should be and do in the lives of its members Now Bridging Divided Worlds by Jackson W Carroll and Wade Clark Roof two experts in the field of contemporary religion presents a comprehensive study of generational dynamics within congregations Their groundbreaking work analyzes the crucial role the generations play in reshaping the American religious landscape Throughout the book the authors examine current religious and spiritual trends and reveal how these changes can offer opportunities for enriching a congregation's faith and spiritual life Bridging Divided Worlds offers an insightful analysis of how congregations have historically adapted to change and reveals how various contemporary groups of congregants have dealt with change in recent years For example the authors profile three types of congregations inherited congregations practices are guided by the past blended congregations practices honor inherited tradition and are attentive to generational diversity and generation specific congregations practices are tailored to the needs of a particular generation With these profiles the authors provide commentary on the strengths and weaknesses of each In addition to its wealth of information and commentary this indispensable resource shows how congregations are discovering ways to bridge the gaps and connect the different worlds the generations inhabit to create stronger richer and more vibrant religious communities

Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton Allen, Christine Lawton, Cory L. Seibel, 2023-06-13 In a revised and updated edition this comprehensive up to date text offers a framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation It provides the theoretical foundation of intergenerationality then gives concrete practical guidance on how worship learning community and service can all be achieved intergenerationally

The Local Church and Generational Change in Birmingham, 1945-2000 Dr. Ian Jones, 2012 An examination of how religious identity changed in twentieth century England using Birmingham as a case study to illuminate wider trends The ongoing debate about secularisation and religious change in twentieth century Britain has paid little attention to the experience of those who swam against the cultural tide and continued to attend church This study based on extensive original archive and oral history research redresses this imbalance with an exploration of church based Christianity in post war Birmingham examining how churchgoers interpreted and responded to the changes that they saw in family congregation neighbourhood and wider society One important theme is the significance of age and generational identity to patterns of religiosity amidst profound change in attitudes to youth age and parenting and growing evidence of a widening generation gap in Christian belief and practice In addition to offering a new and distinctive perspective on the changing religious identity of late twentieth century English society the book also provides a rare case study in the significance of age and generation in the social and cultural history of modern Britain Ian

The Calling of Congregational

Leadership Larry L. McSwain, 2013-05-30 Leading is a calling from God but that doesn't mean it is easy. There are choices to be made about what your congregation believes, how your church organizes for effective ministry, and how your church serves the settings of which you are a part. The good news is that others have gone before you. Author Larry L. McSwain's forty years of experience can help guide you through these choices. Rooted in research, The Calling of Congregational Leadership teaches a three-pronged approach to congregational leadership: being a good leader, the knowledge needed by the leader, and the managing of ministry leadership. By using this practical, holistic approach to leading congregations, McSwain shows you how to use your church's potential for conveying the power of God in the lives you touch. The Calling of Congregational Leadership is for those who seek to enlarge the understanding of their leadership to make their communities of faith more vital and more reflective of the mission of God in the world.

Nurturing Faith Fred P. Edie, Mark A. Lamport, 2021-09-07

Faith left on rocky soil withers. But faith nurtured in the good soil of Christian teaching, formation, and mentorship grows to maturity and yields thriving community. Educational ministries are so often where this happens, where the desires of the human heart are shaped toward a love for God, a love for one's neighbor, and a love for the world. In this comprehensive guide to educational ministries in the twenty-first century, Fred Edie and Mark Lamport explore how church leaders and others involved in Christian education can nurture a robust, cruciform faith within their communities. When discussing strategies and goals, Edie and Lamport consider a range of contexts and a variety of related fields that might give insight into educational ministry: theology, pedagogy, philosophy, social science, and more. Those working with any age group—children, adolescents, and adults—will find a relevant discussion of key underlying theological themes, a guide to concrete practices, and indispensable help in navigating shifting cultural dynamics. Exceedingly practical and consistent with the teachings of the gospel, the wisdom in this book will speak to all who long to foster discipleship in their church, school, or missional community. Key Features: A Road Map at the beginning of each chapter concisely introduces the chapter's topic and essential themes. Sidebars throughout the text provide deeper insight into particular important or nuanced concepts. Discussion questions at the end of each chapter facilitate further reflection, especially in conversation with others. Suggestions for further reading are provided at the end of each chapter for those interested in exploring the chapter's ideas in greater depth. Concluding the book is a series of afterwords from experts in the field of Christian educational ministries: Martyn Percy, Almeda Wright, Craig Dykstra, Kirsten Oh, Elizabeth DeGaynor, and Thomas Groome.

Jewish Megatrends Rabbi Sidney Schwarz,

PhD, 2013-01-15 Visionary solutions for a community ripe for transformational change from fourteen leading innovators of Jewish life. Jewish Megatrends offers a vision for a community that can simultaneously strengthen the institutions that serve those who seek greater Jewish identification and attract younger Jews, many of whom are currently outside the orbit of Jewish communal life. Schwarz and his collaborators provide an exciting path, building on proven examples that we ignore at our peril from the Foreword The American Jewish community is riddled with doubts about the viability of the institutions that well served the Jewish community of the twentieth century Synagogues Federations and Jewish membership organizations have yet to figure out how to meet the changing interests and needs of the next generation In this challenging yet hopeful call for transformational change visionary leader Rabbi Sidney Schwarz looks at the social norms that are shaping the habits and lifestyles of younger American Jews and why the next generation is so resistant to participate in the institutions of Jewish communal life as they currently exist He sets out four guiding principles that can drive a renaissance in Jewish life and gives evidence of how on the margins of the Jewish community those principles are already generating enthusiasm and engagement from the very millennials that the organized Jewish community has yet to engage Contributors leading innovators from different sectors of the Jewish community each use Rabbi Schwarz s framework as a springboard to set forth their particular vision for the future of their sector of Jewish life and beyond The Postindustrial Promise Anthony

Healy, 2005-04-01 Tales of demise and decline have come to characterize news on the state of religion and congregations in America In The Postindustrial Promise author Anthony Healy finds that the changes in religious life and among congregations are being misunderstood Instead of seeing the changes as the result of the presumed aspects of postmodern life individualism the collapse of social groups and the scrapping of tradition Healy sees what has occurred as a postindustrial transformation in which an economy based on manufacturing has been replaced by one based on corporate and consumer services This transformation has changed what we value and how we live as well as how we work It has also changed congregations and religious life but not necessarily in the way that many people think Contrary to the stories of decline Healy finds that in this time of postindustrial dislocation people are again putting down religious roots Congregations are making it possible for people to reconnect with the stories and traditions of previous generations and have become the places in society where the reembodying of religious and cultural narratives is taking place Different from the postmodern script this postindustrial explanation leads us to fresh insights into the change that has occurred among religious bodies their congregants and their communities This book provides pastors lay leaders teachers scholars and seminarians with a solid grounding in the basic aspects of the postindustrial transformation and offers direction to help religious leaders develop responsive and viable places of ministry mission and program in this time of change Hermeneutics and Empirical

Research in Practical Theology Chris Hermans, Mary Moore, 2021-09-20 There is a growing consensus among scholars in different countries about the object of practical theology Hans van der Ven has contributed much to this consensus through his writings on the foundations of practical theology the empirical paradigm within practical theology and specific subdisciplines within practical theology especially religious education moral education church development and ministry At the center of this growing consensus is an understanding of the independent hermeneutical role of religious experiences and practices of people in the process of theological theory building If contemporary religious experiences and practices have a critical role with regard to religious tradition and the ministry of this tradition then practical theology cannot just be a form of applied theology. The contributors of this volume focus on this hermeneutical core foundations of practical theology and on empirical research as a research method within practical theology in the work of Van der Ven. Ministering to Older Adults Donald Koepke, 2013-10-18. Learn how to focus your ministry's programs and services on the elderly. By 2030, 20% of the people living in the United States will be age 65 or older with unique spiritual needs that can affect their physical and mental well-being. Ministering to Older Adults answers the critical need for a ministry that doesn't center primarily on youth and families in its outreach, instead presenting a step-by-step guide to developing a ministry for the aged that is focused on the needs and resources of each congregation. This program has been used effectively with nearly 50 congregations, both large and small, to create a focused older adult ministry. No two congregations are alike. The resources, perspectives, and skills of each congregation are different, as are the needs of its members. Ministering to Older Adults provides a framework for use by planning groups within communities of any religious tradition. The book presents a process that includes essential questions that allow planning groups to develop answers that fit the needs, cultural history, and structure of their individual congregations. Ministering to Older Adults is divided into three sections: The Fundamentals (defining your audience, your mission, and the skills and existing programs that can be brought to the planning process); Programming Possibilities (spiritual needs based on the aging process, continued learning for older adults, opportunities to serve and be served, providing quality pastoral care, and community building); Putting it All Together (deciding on a direction, using desired outcomes for evaluation, establishing target dates, and ongoing evaluation). Ministering to Older Adults also includes forms and charts to help in the planning process. The book is an invaluable resource for clergy, ministry committees, and planning groups, and staff persons responsible for older adult ministries. Following Our Bliss Don Lattin, 2024-02-27. Renowned journalist Don Lattin, longtime reporter for the San Francisco Examiner and more recently the San Francisco Chronicle, interprets the American spiritual and religious landscape since the 60s with insight, wit, and telling reporting. What David Brooks did for the American social and commercial landscape in the bestselling Bobos in Paradise, he does for the spiritual landscape, showing how the 60s have had a profound transformative impact in every area of spirituality. This is the first comprehensive look at the spiritual legacy of the 60s and 70s as seen through the lives of those raised amid some of the era's wildest experimentation.
