Practitioner's Guide to Developmental and Psychological Testing Glen P. Aylward, 2013-06-29 The practice of primary health care has expanded beyond the traditional medical model Primary care physicians and allied professionals are called upon more frequently to address parental concerns about developmental delays poor school performance or behavioral problems As a result pediatricians family practitioners pediatric nurses social workers and speech language specialists are faced with the issue of developmental and psychological testing The degree of the clinician's involvement in testing varies from interpretation of reports to performing screening or assessments In many cases the primary health care professional assumes the role of case manager Unfortunately cooperation between disciplines often has been limited because of poor communication particularly in regard to developmental and psychological testing where acronyms statistics and jargon abound Even professionals from mental health disciplines such as child psychiatrists or psychiatric social workers sometimes are overwhelmed The purpose of this book therefore is to provide the clinician with practical information regarding developmental and psychological testing thereby making the health care professional an educated consumer This text does not simply describe how psychologists perform testing rather it provides information to help clinicians understand what the tests contain what their strengths and limitations are and how they can be incorporated into practice Assessment of Young Children with Special Needs Susan M. Benner, Joan Grim, 2013 There are many assessment systems available to provide the answers teachers and parents seek regarding the progression of infants toddlers and young children However simply choosing and administering an assessment instrument or procedure from the wide array of tools available today can be an overwhelming task Assessment of Young Children with Special Needs helps prepare teachers for the task of evaluating the skills of infants toddlers and preschool children with developmental delays and those considered at risk to Resources in Education ,1994-02 Tests in Print IV Linda L.
