Action Research A Guide For Library Media Specialists:

How to Conduct Action Research Lesley S. J. Farmer, 2003 Action Research Jody K. Howard, Su A. Eckhardt, 2005
Presents a comprehensive manual that helps to evaluate and improve library media programs and offers advice on assessing the school and library environment developing research questions collecting and analyzing data and more Librarians and Educators Collaborating for Success Marcia A. Mardis, 2016-12-05 The first in the IASL Libraries Unlimited partnership series this book features contributions written by authors from around the world about their effective collaboration experiences Collaboration between teachers and school librarians is a topic that is often discussed in the quest for educational excellence but the international perspective is something that is rarely explored This text documents the collaboration endeavors in international school libraries and drawing upon research and direct experience demonstrates effective collaboration experiences in a range of countries It also features selected brief case studies as well as several original essays on the topic of collaboration between teachers and teacher librarians in curriculum planning The result of a joint effort between Libraries Unlimited and the International Association of School Librarianship IASL this book shows how collaboration with teachers looks in the international arena It addresses topics such as collaborating for success with student searching the roles of librarians and teachers in the research process principal involvement information literacy inquiry based learning use of digital resources models of collaboration for diversity and evaluation of collaboration Additionally the current research findings presented will offer readers new insights into their profession Administering the School Library Media Center Betty J. Morris, 2010-08-16 This is the most comprehensive textbook on school library administration available now updated to include the latest standards and address new technologies This reference text provides a complete instructional overview of the workings of the library media center from the basics of administration budgeting facilities management organization selection of materials and staffing to explanations on how to promote information literacy and the value of digital tools like blogs wikis and podcasting Since the publication of the fourth edition of Administering the School Library Media Center in 2004 many changes have altered the landscape of school library administration the implementation of NCLB legislation and the revision of AASL standards just to mention two The book is divided into 14 chapters each devoted to a major topic in school library media management This latest edition gives media specialists a roadmap for designing a school library that is functional and intellectually stimulating while leading sources provide guidance for further research Educational Media and Technology Yearbook Michael Orey, V. J. McClendon, Robert Maribe Branch, 2009-05-28 The Educational Media and Technology Yearbook has become a standard reference in many libraries and professional collections Examined in relation to its companion volumes of the past it provides a valuable historical record of current ideas and developments in the field Part I Trends and Issues presents an array of chapters that develop some of the current themes listed above in addition to others Part II Library and Information Science concentrates upon chapters of special relevance to K 12 education library science education school learning resources and various types of library and media centers school public and academic among others In Part III Leadership Profiles the authors provide biographical sketches of the careers of instructional technology leaders Part IV Organizations and Associations in North America and Part V Graduate Programs in North America are respectively directories of instructional technology related organizations and institutions of higher learning offering degrees in related fields Finally Part VI the Bibliography presents an annotated listing of selected current publications related to the field For a number of years we have worked together as editors and the sixth with Dr Michael Orey as the senior editor Last year as the senior editor Orey decided to try and come up with a list of the top programs rather than just the list of all the programs This has proven to be problematic First of all bias exists when we are rating a field in which our program is within those to be rated

Research in Information Studies W. Bernard

Lukenbill, 2012-04-11 Research is integrated into the whole fabric of modern day society and culture It affects our lives in so many ways from finding a job to knowing how to manage our health Information studies designed to understand this array of information encompasses a wide expanse of disciplines Many of these areas draw their philosophical and research bases from a mixture of disciplines within the social sciences and the humanities This book takes a holistic view of these diverse areas and shows how they are united through the common thread of enhancing our knowledge of and understanding the world in which we all live

Conducting Action Research to Evaluate Your School Library Judith Anne

Sykes, 2013-05-01 How should teacher librarians or instructional leaders engage in action research to improve their school library and benefit students learning This book provides the answers Teacher librarians need to get directly involved with the research process in the learning commons in order to create actions and strategies that will enhance student learning and benefit their own professional development as well as demonstrate accountability through their action research efforts This book provides practical tips and work spaces for educators at the local state and national levels clearly modeling and explaining the process and the tools for conducting action research in a school library setting that will identify the program's strengths and weaknesses The author coalesces current expert opinions on the topic of action research in the school library environment and highlighting what other teacher librarians in the field have identified as the pros and cons of using the process Readers are directed to focus on mitigating the cons through the use of specific working pages and templates and by initially exploring five favorite links thereby encouraging those who are new to action research to try what might otherwise seem a daunting process School principals K 12 who read this book will be better equipped to support their teacher librarians and teachers in this important professional process

Youth-Serving Libraries in Japan, Russia, and the United States Lesley S.J. Farmer, Natalia Gendina, Yuriko Nakamura, 2011-12-30 In recent years interest in International Librarianship has grown rapidly and will continue to grow as globalization influences education and librarianship In countries around the world public and school libraries have unique roles and their staffs collaborate across types of libraries to varying degrees Library staff preparation training and ongoing learning and organization of youth serving librarians mirror each country's values and priorities The essays in Youth Serving Libraries in Japan Russia and the United States address the universal and culture specific aspects of library services to children and teens in these three countries This collection shows how libraries have developed in light of each country's political educational and social history They examine how government and citizen roles in youth serving libraries also reflect culturally defined social structures The chapters highlight unique collections and services within each country and also show how librarians deal with the challenges they encounter both from within their culture as well as from outside including natural disasters Each country's authors discuss contemporary issues that face youth serving libraries such as information literacy reading in a multimedia world and the overarching influence of technology This book will be of interest to youth serving librarians around the world library educators and for those studying international and young adult librarianship

Using Qualitative Methods, Information Literacy Assessment in K-12 Settings Lesley S. J. Farmer, James Henri, 2008 This work helps library educators address information literacy assessment issues systematically within their own settings Global trends and cultural contexts are duly noted in exploring assessment processes and use as well as in analyzing and categorizing existing assessment instruments
