Andrei Codrescu And The Myth Of America:

Andrei Codrescu and the Myth of America Kirby Olson, 2014-09-17 This is one of those times a time choked in the weeds of academic and civilian formalism To put it mildly most of what we see in print in North America is unbearably trivial and singularly devoid of courage Andrei Codrescu The Disappearance of the Outside Known to the general public as a radio commentator on National Public Radio Romanian born essayist and poet Andrei Codrescu has developed a variety of voices throughout his career Transylvanian humorist on NPR surrealist poet in his many volumes of poetry academic essayist in his philosophical writings and historical novelist Taking seemingly everyday events in seemingly mundane places Codrescu is able to link the random details into a larger whole leading his readers and listeners to conclusions very different from those they first imagined This work explores Codrescu s writings and how they are a part of the surrealist tradition It examines the ways in which his poetry essays and novels are influenced by his upbringing in Communist Romania and the liberal attitudes he encountered upon moving to the United States and draws comparisons between Codrescu and other surrealists An interview with the author is also included

Saul Steinberg Deirdre Bair, 2012-11-20 From National Book Award winner Deirdre Bair the definitive biography of Saul Steinberg one of The New Yorker s most iconic artists The issue date was March 29 1976 The New Yorker cost 75 cents And on the cover unfolded Saul Steinberg's vision of the world New York City the Hudson River and then well it's really just a bunch of stuff you needn't concern yourself with Steinberg's brilliant depiction of the world according to self-satisfied New Yorkers placed him squarely in the pantheon of the magazine's and the era's most celebrated artists But if you look beyond the searing wit and stunning artistry you'll find one of the most fascinating lives of the twentieth century Born in Romania Steinberg was educated in Milan and was already famous for his satirical drawings when World War II forced him to immigrate to the United States On a single day Steinberg became a US citizen a commissioned officer in the US Navy and a member of the OSS assigned to spy in China North Africa and Italy After the war ended he returned to America and to his art He quickly gained entrée into influential circles that included Saul Bellow Vladimir Nabokov Willem de Kooning and Le Corbusier His wife was the artist Hedda Sterne from whom he separated in 1960 but never divorced and with whom he remained in daily contact for the rest of his life This conveniently freed him up to amass a coterie of young mistresses and lovers But his truly great love was the United States where he traveled extensively by bus train and car drawing observing and writing His body of work is staggering and influential in ways we may not yet even be able to fully grasp quite possibly because there has not been a full-scale biography of him until now Deirdre Bair had access to 177 boxes of documents and more than 400 drawings In addition she conducted several hundred personal interviews Steinberg's curious talent for creating myths about himself did not make her job an easy one but the result is a stunning achievement to admire and enjoy The electronic version of this title does not contain the 35 Saul Steinberg illustrations that are available in the print edition Postcommunism/Postcolonialism Bogdan Stefanescu, 2012

hundreds making my dream a reality When the final deadline had passed I had received over 1 200 poems written by pastors professors and dozens of everyday Lutherans from all walks of life Selected authors range from newly discovered talent to well known Lutheran poets and hymn writers To hear their stories and read their poetry was a great gift to me and I will be forever grateful for the experience It is my hope and prayer that these poems might find a special place in your heart and that they might be a blessing to you and your family now and for years to come Mark Odland editor Mark Patrick Odland is a published poet and visual artist from Alexandria MN A graduate of Augustana College and Luther Seminary Mark currently serves as pastor of outreach and new ministry development at Living Waters Lutheran Church in Sauk Rapids MN He is happily married to Rachel and they are expecting their first child a little girl in September of 2007 Mark feels a strong calling to encourage inspire and nourish the arts within the larger church and believes that the creation of SIMUL Lutheran Voices in Poetry is simply one of many ways to help make this a reality The Dog with the Chip in His Neck Andrei

Codrescu,Mary Sheepshanks,1997-10-15 In this collection of essays Codrescu focuses his keen eye on America in the age of the chip He confronts the convulsions of our post ideological world at a time when the advent of cyberspace and the caffeinating of America have occurred simultaneously With poignancy and trenchant humor he takes us on a roller coaster tour of our dramatically changing country History of the Literary Cultures of East-Central Europe Marcel

Cornis-Pope,John Neubauer,2010-09-29 Types and stereotypes is the fourth and last volume of a path breaking multinational literary history that incorporates innovative features relevant to the writing of literary history in general Instead of offering a traditional chronological narrative of the period 1800 1989 the History of the Literary Cultures of East Central Europe approaches the region s literatures from five complementary angles focusing on literature s participation in and reaction to key political events literary periods and genres the literatures of cities and sub regions literary institutions and figures of representation The main objective of the project is to challenge the self enclosure of national literatures in traditional literary histories to contextualize them in a regional perspective and to recover individual works writers and minority literatures that national histories have marginalized or ignored Types and stereotypes brings together articles that rethink the figures of National Poets figurations of the Family Women Outlaws and Others as well as figures of Trauma and Mediation As in the previous three volumes the historical and imaginary figures discussed here constantly change and readjust to new political and social conditions An Epilogue complements the basic history focusing on the contradictory transformations of East Central European literary cultures after 1989 This volume will be of interest to the region s literary historians to students and teachers of comparative literature to cultural historians and to the general public interested in exploring the literatures of a rich and resourceful cultural region The Book Review Digest ,2006
