Anti Architecture And Deconstruction:

Anti-architecture and Deconstruction Nikos Angelos Salingaros, 2004 The Emperor Has No Clothes is an old adage but in the sad case of Deconstructivism it is absolutely appropriate as Deconstructivism is really nothing more than Modernism in a new guise Modernists notably the Bauhaus aimed for the clean slate jettisoning everything that went before Yet at times they claimed links with antecedents to give a spurious historical ancestry to their aims and creations These questionable links and precedents are now being claimed for the works of Deconstructivists by sympathetic architects and their supporters

Anti-Architecture and Deconstruction Nikos Angelos Salingaros, Christopher Alexander, 2013-11-20 Anti-Architecture and Deconstruction Nikos A. Salingaros, 2006-04-01 Anti-architecture and Deconstruction Nikos Angelos Salingaros, Christopher Alexander, 2014 Anti-architecture et deconstruction Nikos A. Salingaros, 2005 Transformative Pedagogy in Architecture and Urbanism Ashraf M. Salama, 2021-03-04 First published in 2009 Transformative Pedagogy in Architecture and Urbanism is a detailed round of pedagogical dialogue on architecture and urbanism that reset the stage for debating future visions of transformative pedagogy and its impact on design education Structured in five chapters the book presents a wide range of innovative concepts and practical methodologies for teaching architectural and urban design It traces the roots of architectural education and offers several contrasting ideas and strategies of design teaching practices Transformative Pedagogy in Architecture and Urbanism will appeal to those with an interest in architectural and urban design and architectural and design education

Spatial Design Education Ashraf M. Salama, 2016-03-09 Design education in architecture and allied disciplines is the cornerstone of design professions that contribute to shaping the built environment of the future In this book design education is dealt with as a paradigm whose evolutionary processes underpinning theories contents methods tools are questioned and critically examined It features a comprehensive discussion on design education with a focus on the design studio as the backbone of that education and the main forum for creative exploration and interaction and for knowledge acquisition assimilation and reproduction Through international and regional surveys the striking qualities of design pedagogy contemporary professional challenges and the associated sociocultural and environmental needs are identified Building on twenty five years of research and explorations into design pedagogy in architecture and urban design this book authoritatively offers a critical analysis of a continuously evolving profession its associated societal processes and the way in which design education reacts to their demands Matters that pertain to traditional pedagogy its characteristics and the reactions developed against it in the form of pioneering alternative studio teaching practices Advances in design approaches and methods are debated including critical inquiry empirical making process based learning and Community Design Design Build and Live Project Studios Innovative teaching practices in lecture based and introductory design courses are identified and characterized including inquiry based active and experiential learning These investigations are all interwoven to elucidate a comprehensive understanding of contemporary design education in architecture and allied disciplines A wide spectrum of teaching approaches and methods is utilized to reveal a theory of a trans critical pedagogy that is conceptualized to shape a futuristic thinking about design teaching Lessons learned from techniques and mechanisms for accommodation adaptation and implementation of a trans critical pedagogy in education are conceived to invigorate a new student centered evidence based design culture sheltered in a wide variety of learning settings in architecture and beyond Making Dystopia James Stevens Curl,2018-08-23 In Making Dystopia distinguished architectural historian James Stevens Curl tells the story of the advent of architectural Modernism in the aftermath of the First World War its protagonists and its astonishing almost global acceptance after 1945 He argues forcefully that the triumph of architectural Modernism in the second half of the twentieth century led to massive destruction the creation of alien urban landscapes and a huge waste of resources Moreover the coming of Modernism was not an inevitable seamless evolution as many have insisted but a massive unparalleled disruption that demanded a clean slate and the elimination of all ornament decoration and choice Tracing the effects of the Modernist revolution in architecture to the present Stevens Curl argues that with each passing year so called iconic architecture by supposed star architects has become more and more bizarre unsettling and expensive ignoring established contexts and proving to be stratospherically remote from the aspirations and needs of humanity In the elite world of contemporary architecture form increasingly follows finance and in a society in which the haves have more and more and the have nots are ever more marginalized he warns that contemporary architecture continues to stack up huge potential problems for the future as housing costs spiral out of control resources are squandered on architectural bling and society fractures This courageous passionate deeply researched and profoundly argued book should be read by everyone concerned with what is around us Its combative critique of the entire Modernist architectural project and its apologists will be highly controversial to many But it contains salutary warnings that we ignore at our peril And it asks awkward questions to which answers are long overdue Art History: The Key Concepts Jonathan Harris,2006-10-16 Art History The Key Concepts is a systematic reliable and accessible reference guide to the disciplines of art history and visual culture Containing entries on over 200 terms integral to the historical and theoretical study of art design and culture in general it is an indispensable source of knowledge for all students scholars and teachers Covering the development present status and future direction of art history entries span a wide variety of terms and concepts such as abstract expressionism epoch hybridity semiology and zeitgeist Key features include a user friendly A Z format fully cross referenced entries suggestions for further reading Engaging and insightful as well as easy to follow and use Art History The Key Concepts builds a radical intellectual synthesis for understanding and teaching art art history and visual culture Design Patterns and Living Architecture Nikos A.
