Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language Polina Vinogradova, Joan Kang Shin, 2020-10-29
 This engaging volume on English as an Additional Language EAL argues persuasively for the importance of critical participatory pedagogies that embrace multilingualism and multimodality in the field of TESOL
 It highlights the role of the TESOL profession in teaching for social justice and advocacy and explores how critical participatory pedagogies translate into English language teaching and teacher education around the world
 Bringing together diverse scholars in the field and practicing English language teachers editors Polina Vinogradova and Joan Kang Shin present 10 thematically organized units that demonstrate that language teaching pedagogy must be embedded in the larger sociocultural contexts of teaching and learning to be successful
 Each unit covers one pedagogical approach and includes three case studies to illustrate how English language teachers across the world implement these approaches in their classrooms
 The chapters are supplemented by discussion questions and a range of practical sources for further exploration

Addressing established and emerging areas of TESOL topics covered include Critical and postmethod pedagogies Translingualism Digital literacy and multiliteracies Culturally responsive pedagogy Advocacy Featuring educators implementing innovative approaches in primary secondary and tertiary contexts across borders Contemporary Foundations for Teaching English as an Additional Language is an ideal text for methods and foundational courses in TESOL and will appeal to in service and preservice English language teachers as well as students and teacher educators in TESOL and applied linguistics
