Adolescent Encounters With Death Bereavement And Coping:

Adolescent Encounters With Death, Bereavement, and Coping Charles Corr, David Balk, 2009-03-16 Capturing from the start that Childhood is and always has been a vulnerable time we have a rich in gathering of contributed pieces that bring us into the raw fragile arena of children traumatized by life events and behaviors Illness Crisis and Loss Balk and Corr again have edited a book that will set the direction of the field for yet another decade Caregivers can count on this book for insight and intervention From the Foreword by Kenneth J Doka PhD Professor The Graduate School The College of New Rochelle Author Counseling Individuals With Life Threatening Illness Over a decade has passed since the publication of Balk and Corr s groundbreaking Handbook of Adolescent Death and Bereavement This new book Adolescent Encounters With Death Bereavement and Coping analyzes the challenges faced by adolescents coping with death dying and bereavement and examines the new unique circumstances and advances that have transpired over the last decade These include Grief and coping with HIV AIDS Adolescents humor and death Technology and the Internet coping with loss in the digital world Bereavement over the deaths of celebrities The book also explores critical imaginative conceptual frameworks and models that have emerged on the scene including The dual process model for understanding loss Ideas about assumptive worlds Debates about the benefit and harm of grief counseling New research on recovery and resilience following bereavement Written from the interdisciplinary perspectives of expert sociologists psychologists educators social workers nurses and anthropologists this book offers a breadth and depth of insight into the complex nature of adolescent bereavement Nurses counselors social workers and educators will find this book to be an invaluable resource when they try to understand and help adolescents coping with death related issues Dealing with Dying, Death, and Grief during Adolescence David E. Balk, 2014-02-18 For some life s introduction to death and grief comes early and when it does it can take many forms Not only does Dealing with Dying Death and Grief during Adolescence tackle them all it does so with David Balk s remarkable sensitivity to and deep knowledge of the pressures and opportunities adolescents face in their transition from childhood to adulthood In seamless jargon free language Balk brings readers up to date with what we know about adolescent development because over time such changes form the backstory we need to comprehend the impact of death and bereavement in an adolescent s life The book s later chapters break down the recent findings in the study of life threatening illness and bereavement during adolescence And crucially these chapters also examine interventions that assist adolescents coping with these difficulties Clinicians will come away from this book with both a grounded understanding of adolescent development and the adolescent experience of death and they ll also gain specific tools for helping adolescents cope with death and grief on their own terms For any clinician committed to supporting adolescents facing some of life s most difficult experiences this integrated up to date and deeply insightful text is simply the book to have David E Balk is professor in the department of health and nutrition sciences at Brooklyn College CUNY where he directs the graduate program in thanatology He is the author of Adolescent Development Early Through Late Adolescence Helping the Bereaved College Student and several other books on death and bereavement He is also co editor of the 2nd edition of the Handbook of Thanatology Routledge 2013

Counseling Adolescents Through Loss, Grief, and Trauma Pamela A. Malone, 2016-02-19 Loss grief and trauma come into the lives of adolescents in many forms and with more frequency than the adults in their lives may realize Assessing the depth and nature of their emotions can be difficult adolescents are typically reluctant to show strong emotions and can be difficult to reach particularly when they experience the untimely death of a loved one How best to work with a young person who may have trouble communicating their emotions even under the best of circumstances And what if he or she has learned about the death of a loved one or classmate from another peer rather than a family member What about gender differences and the influence of culture and family What role do cell phones text messaging and technologies such as Facebook play in the adolescent grief experience Adolescents use of technology creates unlimited access to friends support systems and information but news that spreads quickly without buffering effects can intensify the strength of the adolescent grief responses Counseling Adolescents Through Loss Grief and Trauma not only examines these issues it also provides clinicians with a wealth of resources and time tested therapeutic activities that are sure to become an indispensable part of any clinician s practice

Life Span Human Development Carol K. Sigelman, Linda De George, Kimberley Cunial, Elizabeth A. Rider, 2018-09-01 The third edition of Life Span Human Development helps students gain a deeper understanding of the many interacting forces affecting development from infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood It includes local multicultural and indigenous issues and perspectives local research in development regionally relevant statistical information and National guidelines on health Taking a unique integrated topical and chronological approach each chapter focuses on a domain of development such as physical growth cognition or personality and traces developmental trends and influences in that domain from infancy to old age Within each chapter you will find sections on four life stages infancy childhood adolescence and adulthood This distinctive organisation enables students to comprehend the processes of transformation that occur in key areas of human development This text also includes a MindTap course offering with a strong suite of resources including videos and the chronological sections within the text can be easily customised to suit academic and student needs

Living Through Loss Nancy R. Hooyman, Betty J. Kramer, Sara Sanders, 2021-08-31 Living Through Loss provides a foundational identification of the many ways in which people experience loss over the life course from childhood to old age It examines the interventions most effective at each phase of life combining theory sound clinical practice and empirical research with insights emerging from powerful accounts of personal experience The authors emphasize that loss and grief are universal yet highly individualized Loss comes in many forms and can include not only a loved one s death but also divorce adoption living with chronic illness caregiving retirement and relocation or being abused assaulted or otherwise traumatized They approach the topic from the perspective of the resilience model which acknowledges people s capacity to find meaning in their losses and integrate grief into their lives The book explores the varying roles of age race culture sexual orientation gender and spirituality in responses to loss Presenting a variety of models approaches and resources Living Through Loss offers invaluable lessons that can be applied in any practice setting by a wide range of human service and health care professionals This second edition features new and expanded content on diversity and trauma including discussions of gun violence police brutality suicide and an added focus on systemic racism Helping the Bereaved College Student David E. Balk, 2011-05-26 Print CourseSmart

Handbook of Thanatology David K. Meagher, David E. Balk, 2013-07-18 If ever there was an area requiring that the research practice gap be bridged surely it occurs where thanatologists engage with people dealing with human mortality and loss The field of thanatology the study of death and dying is a complex multidisciplinary area that encompasses the range of human experiences emotions expectations and realities The Handbook of Thanatology is the most authoritative volume in the field providing a single source of up to date scholarship research and practice implications The handbook is the recommended resource for preparation for the prestigious certificate in thanatology CT and fellow in thanatology FT credentials which are administered and granted by ADEC

Sibling Loss Across the Lifespan Brenda J. Marshall, Howard R. Winokuer, 2016-10-04 Sibling Loss Across the Lifespan brings together researchers clinicians and bereaved siblings to explore sibling loss Unique in both form and content the book focuses on loss within five key age ranges childhood adolescence emerging adulthood adulthood and late adulthood and losses within a special topics section that addresses areas of interest across multiple age groups In addition to chapters from researchers and clinicians the book includes personal stories from bereaved siblings who describe the lived experience of this loss

A Clinical Handbook in Adolescent Medicine Kate Steinbeck, Michael R. Kohn, 2013 This clinical handbook is a valuable resource for any health professional who works with adolescents and young adults whether in paediatric or adult acute care facilities or in the community As a handbook it provides ready access to practical clinically relevant and youth specific information This clinical handbook fills a clear gap as most adolescent texts are primarily directed at paediatricians This handbook extends its scope beyond paediatrics for three important reasons First many adolescents are managed by adult trained clinicians who have not had much exposure to or training in adolescent health Secondly the important health conditions of adolescents are often the important health conditions in young adults Thirdly with increased survival rates in chronic illness over the last two to three decades it is becoming essential that clinicians in adult health care are able to assess and manage conditions that have their origins in childhood Each chapter is written by an expert in their field with a highly practical approach The information is relevant and straightforward with the aim of enhancing clinical skills
