Compelling Convictions Terry L. Brensinger,Jennifer Lancaster,Alan Robinson,2024-06-25 A fresh look at our core values In the twenty years since a group of Brethren in Christ pastors educators administrators and laypeople first met to identify ten core values for the North American church much has changed including the continuing decline of the church in the west dynamic social movements for racial gender and economic justice vast advances in technology and a worldwide pandemic With so much happening on both the national and international stages it seems vital that we as Brethren in Christ prayerfully reflect not only on our core values and their application but on how those values might help our churches engage a dramatically new social context Are these values merely sentimental slogans Or do they constitute compelling convictions genuine guiding lights orienting us and motivating our mission in a rapidly changing world The answer to that all important question depends largely on how we use them In this forward looking book essays from Brethren in Christ pastors and leaders from across the globe call us into the future of the church to unleash our creative energies roll up our sleeves and put these core values to good use
