Alhawary, 2019-02-25 Despite the status of Arabic as a global language and the high demand to learn it the field of Arabic second language acquisition remains underinvestigated Second language acquisition findings are crucial for informing and advancing the field of Arabic foreign language pedagogy including Arabic language teaching testing and syllabus design Arabic Second Language Learning and Effects of Input Transfer and Typology provides data driven empirical findings for a number of basic and high frequency morphosyntactic structures with two novel typological language pairings examining Arabic second language acquisition data from adult L1 Chinese and Russian speaking learners of Arabic as a foreign language Alhawary's study examines the different processes hypotheses and acquisition tendencies from the two learner groups and documents the extent of the successes and challenges faced by such learners in their L2 Arabic grammatical development during the first three years of learning the language In addition the book offers both theoretical and practical implications related to input exposure L1 and L2 transfer and typological and structural proximity effects This book serves as a valuable resource for both second language acquisition experts and foreign language teaching practitioners Instructed Second Language Acquisition of Arabic Mahmoud Azaz, 2023-07-26 Instructed Second Language Acquisition of Arabic examines the acquisition of agreement asymmetries in the grammatical system of Arabic as a second foreign language through the lens of instructed second language acquisition. The book explores how to improve the processes of L2 learning of Arabic using evidence based classroom research. Before it does this it characterizes the variable challenges that English L2 learners of Arabic face when they acquire four structural cases in Arabic grammar that entail agreement asymmetries. Using the pretest posttest design it examines the effects of four classroom interventions using quantitative and qualitative measures. In these interventions form based and meaning based measures were used to reveal to what degree learners have developed explicit and implicit knowledge of these aspects of asymmetry. In the concluding chapter the book provides focused and specific implications based on the results of the four studies. It provides theoretical implications that enrich the discussions of instructed second language Acquisition in Arabic and other languages more broadly. It also provides implications for teachers curriculum designers and textbook writers of Arabic. This book will be informative for Arabic applied linguists researchers of Arabic SLA Arabic instructors at the K 12 and the college level and Arabic program directors and coordinators. The book will also appeal to all SLA and ISLA researchers.
