Architecture, Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs, 2015-11-24 In Architecture Power and Religion in Lebanon Ward Vloeberghs explores Rafiq Hariri's patronage and his posthumous legacy to demonstrate how religious architecture becomes a site for power struggles in contemporary Beirut. By tracing the 150 year long history of the Muhammad al Amin Mosque Lebanon's principal Sunni mosque and the subsequent development of the site as a commemoration venue this account offers a unique illustration of how architecture religion and power become discursively and visually entangled. Set in a multi confessional society marked by social inequalities and political fragmentation this interdisciplinary study analyses how architectural practice and urban reconfigurations reveal a nascent personality cult communal mourning and the consolidation of political territory in relation to constantly shifting circumstances. Cities and Islamisms Bülent Batuman, 2020-12-21 This book sheds light on a particular facet of the link between politics and Islam through the analysis of the relationship between Islamism and the built environment. The relationship between Islam and politics has always been controversial yet it has possibly never been as controversial as it is at the time of writing. This new edited volume sets out to explore the interactions between Islamisms and the built environment through issues such as spatial negotiations between nation and Islam in the definition of national identity everyday spaces and the making of Islamic milieus the role of Islam in the making and or remaking of state ideology via architecture and urban planning the influence of globalization and transnational links on the spatial manifestations of Islamism and transnational architectural exchanges through global Islam. It expands on these issues through case studies analysing the role of the built environment and the urban realm as major media in the making of Islamist politics. The case studies incorporate manifestations in Muslim dominated countries including those where Islam has been at the heart of state ideology Pakistan and Brunei those with influential grassroots Islamist networks pre revolutionary Iran and Indonesia those that identify with Islam through global exchanges United Arab Emirates Kazakhstan and Turkey and countries where Islam is an increasingly significant reference utilized by political actors Algeria and Lebanon. This book will appeal to students and scholars of architecture urban studies and cultural studies as well as those interested in the social and political aspects of the built environment. Architects Without Frontiers Esther Charlesworth, 2007-01-18 From the targeted demolition of Mostar's Stari Most Bridge in 1993 to the physical and social havoc caused by the 2004 Boxing Day Tsunami the history of cities is often a history of destruction and reconstruction. But what political and aesthetic criteria should guide us in the rebuilding of cities devastated by war and natural calamities. The title of this timely and inspiring new book Architects Without Frontiers points to the potential for architects to play important roles in post war relief and reconstruction. By working sans fronti res Charlesworth suggests that architects and design professionals have a significant opportunity to assist peace making and reconstruction efforts in the period immediately after conflict or disaster when much of the housing hospital educational transport civic and business infrastructure has been destroyed or badly damaged Through selected case studies Charlesworth examines the role of architects planners urban designers and landscape architects in three cities following conflict Beirut Nicosia and Mostar three cities where the mental and physical scars of violent conflict still remain This book expands the traditional role of the architect from hero to peacemaker and discusses how design educators can stretch their wings to encompass the proliferating agendas and sites of civil unrest Sunni City Tine Gade,2022-11-24 Analyses contentious politics in Tripoli Lebanon s Sunni city and the relations between Islamist and sectarian groups in governing the city
