Lyttelton's Britain Iain Pattinson, 2009-11-10 The I m Sorry I Haven t A Clue team of Barry Cryer Graeme Garden and Tim Brooke Taylor in the company of their esteemed chairman Humphrey Lyttelton have been recording their BBC radio show around the UK for longer than any of them can remember that s about a week or twenty minutes in the case of Barry Cryer At each venue Humph would present a short history of the location written by Iain Pattinson to the mutual delight of the audience the team and their delightful scorer Samantha who somehow always found time for a rewarding poke around the area s backstreets We are privileged to present in gazetteer form the very best of Humph s local histories form Radio 4 s multi award winning antidote to panel games As accurate as Wikipedia and as comprehensive as Reader s Digest this unique guide tells you everything you never knew you wouldn t ever need to know about the background and inhabitants of Britain s most prominent towns and cities The intelligent reader will waste no time in adding it to their collection Bristol It was from Bristol in 1497 that John Cabot set off to find a new route to the Spice Islands by sailing north west He instead discovered a strange hostile world which he named Newfoundland until the natives explained that they actually called it Swansea Nottingham It s well documented in official records that the city s original name was Snottingham or home of Snotts but when the Normans came they couldn t pronounce the initial letter S so decreed the town be called Nottingham or the home of Notts It s easy to understand why this change was resisted so fiercely by the people of Scunthorpe Brighton A settlement
