The Crucifixion of Mary Magdalene Richard J. Hooper, 2005 A careful study of Christian origins and detailed analysis of all the canonical apocryphal and Gnostic Gospels in which Mary Magdalene appears Considered the first apostle of Christianity by early Christians the author explains why the patriarchs of the early church found it necessary instead to reinvent Mary as a wanton woman rather than Jesus most favored disciple

Lupieri's direction produced Mary Magdalene from the New Testament to the New Age and Beyond While the historical figure of the Magdalene may be lost forever the construction of her literary images and their transformations and adaptations over the centuries are a lively testimony to human creativity and faith Different pictures of Mary travelled through time and space from history to legend and mythology crossed religious boundaries going beyond the various Christianities to become a sign of contradiction for many This book describes a special case of biblical reception history that of the New Testament figure of a woman whose presence at the side of Jesus has been disturbing for some but proves to be inspiring for others

The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene Jane Schaberg, 2004-08-31 The controversy surrounding Dan Brown's novel The Da Vinci Code has intensified interest in Mary Magdalene and Jane Schaberg provides an authoritative source for a deeper understanding and re assessment of this popular figure Within a progressive feminist framework The Resurrection of Mary Magdalene approaches Christian Testament sources through analysis of legend archaeology and gnostic apocryphal traditions This is the story of the suppression and distortion of a powerful woman leader Schaberg presents Mary Magdalene as successor to Jesus in a challenging alternative to the Petrine primacy

The Gospel of Mary Esther De Boer, 2005-06-20 The success of Dan Brown's Da Vinci Code has raised new interest in Mary Magdalene and in the Gospel of Mary Here the author examines Mary Magdalene's influence on the beginnings of Christianity and asks what was her impact and her message And furthermore what became of her and her ideas Esther de Boer studies the Gospel of Mary the only Gospel to be named after a woman to discover what it reveals about Mary Magdalene and to determine the origin of its portrayal She argues that the Gospel of Mary is not a Gnostic writing but is more closely related to the writings of Philo the letters of Paul and the Gospel of John She demonstrates that esteem of Mary Magdalene did not just belong to the Gnostic tradition but to a broader Christian context In order to determine this context the study identifies the different portrayals of Mary Magdalene in the New Testament analyses their concepts of discipleship and their views on women and investigates their historical reality Esther de Boer concludes that the portrayal of Mary Magdalene in the Gospel of Mary is close to that in the Gospel of John and investigates the possibility that she is concealed in the Johannine disciple loved by
