Education for the Professions in Times of Change Linda Clarke, 2020-12-02 The eminent Harvard educationalist Howard Garner writes a preface to the Place Model within his Good Project Blog which provides a preface to this timely book Professional is a slippery term open to willful abuse misuse and misunderstanding as evidenced by the ways in which this chameleon term can be used as both a compliment and an insult In this book academics from a range of professional fields deconstruct professional and reimagine professionals in an age of rapid change where professionals are both increasingly in demand and frequently under threat Several deploy the lens of Clarke s Place Model to examine professions including teaching midwifery social work journalism and optometry Some papers are empirical and some are based around using the Place Model as a thought experiment All turn a critical eye on professionals and all find them to be like all humans neither devils nor divines Maya Angelou but at their best a combination of two indispensable characteristics trustworthiness and expertise

Not All In Tiffany D. Joseph, 2025-03-11 Examines how health policy shifts fail to fully serve immigrant communities due to structural racism and anti immigrant rhetoric and enforcement measures Despite progressive policy strides in health care reform immigrant communities continue to experience stark disparities across the United States In Not All In Tiffany D Joseph exposes the insidious contradiction of Massachusetts advanced health care system and the exclusionary experiences of its immigrant communities Joseph illustrates how patients race ethnicity and legal status determine their access to health coverage and care services revealing a disturbing paradox where policy advances and individual experiences drastically diverge Examining Boston s Brazilian Dominican and Salvadoran communities this book provides an exhaustive analysis spanning nearly a decade to highlight the profound impacts of the Affordable Care Act and subsequent policy shifts on these marginalized groups Not All In is a critical examination of the systemic barriers that perpetuate health care disparities Joseph challenges readers to confront the uncomfortable truths about racialized legal status and its profound implications on health care access This essential book illuminates the complexities of policy implementation and advocates for more inclusive reforms that genuinely cater to all Urging policymakers health care providers and activists to rethink strategies that bridge the gap between legislation and life this book reminds us that in the realm of health care being progressive is not synonymous with inclusivity
