A Thousand Splendid Suns Khaled Hosseini, 2008-11-25 Propelled by the same superb instinct for storytelling that made The Kite Runner a beloved classic the 1 New York Times bestseller A Thousand Splendid Suns is at once an incredible chronicle of thirty years of Afghan history and a deeply moving story of family friendship faith and the salvation to be found in love Just as good if not better than Khaled Hosseini's best selling first book The Kite Runner Newsweek New York Times Readers Pick 100 Best Books of the 21st Century Khaled Hosseini returns with a beautiful riveting and haunting novel that confirms his place as one of the most important literary writers today Born a generation apart and with very different ideas about love and family Mariam and Laila are two women brought jarringly together by war by loss and by fate As they endure the ever escalating dangers around them in their home as well as in the streets of Kabul they come to form a bond that makes them both sisters and mother daughter to each other and that will ultimately alter the course not just of their own lives but of the next generation With heart wrenching power and suspense Hosseini shows how a woman's love for her family can move her to shocking and heroic acts of self sacrifice and that in the end it is love or even the memory of love that is often the key to survival A stunning accomplishment A Thousand Splendid Suns is a haunting heartbreaking compelling story of an unforgiving time an unlikely friendship and an indestructible love

Young People Reading Evelyn Arizpe, Gabrielle Cliff Hodges, 2018-03-19 The value of small scale qualitative research projects into young people's reading is often underestimated Yet these finely tuned studies with a precise focus and highly specialised approach can provide us with profound insights into the richness and variety of young people's reading practices Bringing together contributors from six continents this fascinating volume explores researchers' experiences of investigating the reading habits preferences and practices of young people aged 12-21 Detailing a variety of empirical methodologies and research methods its chapters also consider reading in an array of contexts in various languages and using diverse media Key issues addressed in the book include the complexity of sociocultural similarities and differences in young people's reading in international contexts multilingual bilingual and monolingual readers' experiences of reading how young readers use a range of different print and digital media how our understanding of the range of texts available to young readers and the different contexts of and purposes for reading can be enhanced through small scale qualitative research Providing in depth discussion of contributors' research and findings and touching on many different contexts text types and media this volume will support and inspire current and future researchers lecturers and teachers interested in young people's reading Unapologetically Her Zenaida Cubbinz, 2022-03-07 Unapologetically Her is not your typical love story it is a story of love tenacity struggle conflict dejection and so much more Set in current day small town India it traces the life and love of two very ordinary young women who are very different and yet so much alike and are drawn together in their journey from self discovery to coming out as lesbians The journey is filled with pain rejection self doubt religious bias ridicule and social ostracism And of course there is society The what will people say angle that every middle class Indian family and individual is so concerned about and the fear to be who they are and reveal their true self that is part and parcel of this fear It is this fear coupled with the need to conform and fit in that drives a wedge in their relationship And then there arises the question of whether each one of them is prepared to go down that journey and be who she truly is unapologetically her Don't put this down if you want to find out

Invisible Children Maya Ajmera, Gregory A. Fields, 2016-06-06 Maya Ajmera and Greg Fields provide the architecture of a new perspective on the global agenda for children based on a new global web of relationships stemming from the community level. Arguing that the existing global agenda for children has failed, this book reimagines how society can support the world's most vulnerable children. In doing so, Invisible Children identifies and gives voice to the millions of children globally living on society's margins while showing a way forward as to how we can best invest in children. Newsweek Raymond Moley, Samuel Thurston Williamson, Malcolm Muir, Rex Smith, Joseph Becker Phillips, 2007
