A Time Between Ashes And Roses Middle East Literature In Translation:

A Time Between Ashes and Roses Adonis, 2004-11-01 Adonis's poetry and prose writings have aroused much controversy in the Arab world both for their provocative content and their arresting style. Grounded in traditional poetic styles, Adonis developed a new way of expressing modern sentiments. Although influenced by classical poets, Adonis started at a relatively early age to experiment with the prose poem, giving it density, tension, metaphors, and rhythm. He also broke with the diction and style of traditional poems, introducing a new and powerful syntax and new imagery. Through his innovative use of language, imagery, and narrative technique, Adonis has played a leading role in the revolutionizing of Arabic literature. He has garnered many of the world's major poetry prizes. In A Time Between Ashes and Roses, Adonis evokes the wisdom of Whitman's Leaves of Grass, liberally excerpting from and remolding its images, the modernism of William Carlos Williams, and the haunting urban imagery of poets such as Baudelaire, Cavafy, and Lorca. Three long poems allow him to explore profoundly the human condition by examining language and love, race and faith, and dogma, war, and ruin. In the lyrical This Is My Name and Introduction to the History of the Petty Kings, Adonis ponders Arab defeat and defeatism. In A Grave for New York, he reflects on the same theme by interrogating Vietnam-era America. This bilingual edition, presenting the poems in Arabic and English on facing pages, is enhanced by a critical bibliography of Adonis's works, providing an accessible and crucial reference for scholars of modern and Middle Eastern poetry and culture. Shawkat M. Toorawa's vivid and eloquent translation finally makes the poet's signature work available to an English-speaking audience; the effect is no less powerful than were the first translations of Pablo Neruda into English.

The Journals of Sarab Affan Jabra Ibrahim Jabra, 2007-02-13 Jabra tells his love story through alternate journal entries and with a complex layering of voices, showing how the affair of a famed fictional male novelist and the woman who desires him takes shape through twin perspectives. Initially, he is seen through the text of her journals, from her fascination with his writings until the instant when she arranges their first meeting. Thereafter, Jabra presents the male novelist's point of view, from the start of the relationship through demise due to departure and eventual momentary reunion in romantic Paris. Jabra's well-known concern with the inconstancy of identity and its articulation through multiple first-person narration is ever evident. However, this is the first time he places a strong female character at the center of his novel, with all the enticing complexities that result from the interplay of the author's projected female and male sensibilities. Crafting a tale of love from two disparate yet linked points of view, Jabra encourages readers to question their assumptions about the nature of self, its role in shaping character, and the possibilities of salvation through action. The extreme value Jabra places on the import of the female narrative gives his book a timely relevance. Religious Perspectives in Modern Muslim and Jewish Literatures, The World Through the Eyes of Angels Mahmoud Saeed, 2011-12-15 Mosul, Iraq, in the 1940s, is a teeming multiethnic city where Arabs, Kurds, Assyrians, Jews, Aramaeans, Turkmens, Yazidis, and Syrians mingle in the ancient souks and alleyways. In these crowded streets, among rich and poor educated and illiterate pious and unbelieving a boy is growing up Burdened with chores from an early age and afflicted with an older brother who persecutes him with mindless sadism the child finds happiness only in stolen moments with his beloved older sister and with friends in the streets Closest to his heart are three girls encountered by chance a Muslim a Christian and a Jew After enriching the boy's life immensely all three meet tragic fates leaving a wound in his heart that will not heal A richly textured portrayal of Iraqi society before the upheavals of the late twentieth century Saeed's novel depicts a sensitive and loving child assailed by the cruelty of life Sometimes defeated but never surrendering he is sustained by his city and its people

Abundance from the Desert Raymond Farrin, 2011-03-29 Abundance from the Desert provides a comprehensive introduction to classical Arabic poetry one of the richest of poetic traditions Covering the period roughly of 500-1250 c e it features original translations and illuminating discussions of a number of major classical Arabic poems from a variety of genres The poems are presented chronologically each situated within a specific historical and literary context Together the selected poems suggest the range and depth of classical Arabic poetic expression read in sequence they suggest the gradual evolution of a tradition Moving beyond a mere chronicle Farrin outlines a new approach to appreciating classical Arabic poetry based on an awareness of concentric symmetry in which the poem's unity is viewed not as a linear progression but as an elaborate symmetrical plot In doing so the author presents these works in a broader comparative light revealing connections with other literatures The reader is invited to examine these classical Arabic works not as isolated phenomena notwithstanding their uniqueness and their association with a discrete tradition but rather as part of a great multicultural heritage This pioneering book marks an important step forward in the study of Arabic poetry At the same time it opens the door to this rich tradition for the general reader

Disciples of Passion Hoda Barakat, 2015-02-01 Disciples of Passion chronicles the civil war in Lebanon through the troubled and sometimes quasi hallucinatory mind of a young man who has experienced kidnapping hostage exchange and hospital internment As he recalls his village childhood and recounts his relationship with a woman of a different faith his fragmented narrative probes the uncertainties of political testimonial and ascriptions of responsibility in wartime Marilyn Booth's fluid translation brings to an English audience one of the Arabic language's finest contemporary novelists Widely celebrated in France where she currently lives in exile from Lebanon Hoda Barakat writes from personal experience her novels focus on the civil war in Lebanon and how it shaped the lives of people marginalized by the conflict Compelling scenarios of war and its aftermath of suffering and destruction are integrated into subtle psychological portraits with protagonists often propelled into unexpected action

Lebanon / Liban Nadia Tuéni, 2006-04-25 This bilingual anthology edited by Christophe Ippolito contains Samuel Hazo's complete translation of Lebanon Twenty Poems for One Love and Paul B Kelley's selections from the never before translated Sentimental Archives of a War in Lebanon The Francophone poet Nadia Tueni has devoted readers in Lebanon and elsewhere in the Middle East and has quickly achieved poetic distinction in France The fluency of her poetic language and motifs reflecting Tueni's love of her people and country is illuminated in Ippolito's introduction She chose to create a new poetic language that captured the fragile essence of her troubled country and exposed the many crises of identities present in the war By identifying with her country she placed herself beyond all parties and created a sacred river that irrigates her poems Drawn from two collections that were published during the civil war in Lebanon in 1979 and 1982 these poems are haunted by the Lebanese war some transcend famous Lebanese locales as the symbolic incarnations of the land's eternal essence others illuminated at first by nostalgic memories take on a prophetic tone Tueni's work merges the poetic with the political landscape of her country She writes I belong to a country that commits suicide every day while it is being assassinated The languages of Rimbaud Lautréamont and surrealist poetry have had a decisive influence on Tueni's poetry But she also owes a great debt on the Arabic side to the avant garde poets for example the celebrated Adonis Like many Lebanese writers Tueni was active in political circles particularly after the war in 1967 Her poems tell of suffering memories of an abandoned garden slip away of her own life slipping away and in the end the reader is invited to reflect on the mimesis of identity identity of a country identity of a woman each echoing the other
