A Tale Of Three Women:

Understanding Robert Musil Allen Thiher, 2009 Deft analysis of the fiction theater and essays of the author of The Man without Qualities In this critical introduction to the major works of Austrian modernist writer Robert Musil 1880 1942 Allen Thiher offers deft analysis of Musil's short fiction theater and essays and his major novel The Man without Qualities Thiher maps Musil's development as a writer illustrating how his work evolved in response to catastrophic historical events such as World War I the collapse of the Austro Hungarian Empire and Hitler's seizure of power From this historical context Thiher traces how Musil began his career by writing a prescient first novel about ideological developments in German culture and at the same time a doctoral thesis on scientific epistemology Following his service in World War I Musil began to view writing as his vocation and during this early period in his literary career he produced short fiction plays and some of the most interesting essays on politics ethics and literature to be published during the Weimar era In exploring these writings as well as The Man without Qualities a work left unfinished upon Musil's death in exile during World War II Thiher's study plumbs the depths of Musil's ambition and accomplishments and presents a concise interpretation of the lasting significance of the writer's interrogations of the foundations of modern European culture The Drama, 1927 The Ladies of Managua

Eleni N. Gage, 2015-05-05 Lushly evocative of Nicaragua its tumultuous history and vibrant present Eleni N Gage's The Ladies of Managua brings you into the lives of three strong and magnetic women as they uncover the ramifications of the choices they made in their pasts and begin to understand the ways in which love can shape their futures When Maria Vazquez returns to Nicaragua for her beloved grandfather's funeral she brings with her a mysterious package from her grandmother's past and a secret of her own And she also carries the burden of her tense relationship with her mother Ninexin once a storied revolutionary now a tireless government employee Between Maria and Ninexin lies a chasm created by the death of Maria's father who was killed during the revolution when Maria was an infant leaving her to be raised by her grandmother Isabela as Ninexin worked to build the new Nicaragua As Ninexin tries to reach her daughter and Maria wrestles with her expectations for her romance with an older man Isabela the mourning widow is lost in memories of attending boarding school in 1950's New Orleans where she loved and lost almost sixty years ago When the three women come together to bid farewell to the man who anchored their family they are forced to confront their complicated passionate relationships with each other and with their country and to reveal the secrets that each of them have worked to conceal
