A Taste Of Persia An Introduction To Persian Cooking:

A Taste of Persia: An Introduction to Persian Cooking Najmieh Batmanglij, 2012-02-23 A Taste of Persia is a collection of authentic recipes from one of the world's oldest cuisines chosen and adapted for today's lifestyle and kitchen. Here are light appetizers and kababs, hearty stews and rich golden-crusted rice, among many other dishes, all fragrant with the distinctive herbs, spices, or fruits of Iran. Each recipe offers clear, easy-to-follow step-by-step instructions. Most take less than an hour to prepare; many require only a few moments; many others can be made in advance. Besides its 100 recipes and 60 photographs, the book includes a useful dictionary of Persian cooking techniques and ingredients, a list of specialty stores around the nation that sell hard-to-find items, and a brief history of Persian cookery. Together, these make a complete introduction to this wonderful cuisine.

Taste Makers Mayukh Sen, 2021-11-16 An NPR Best Book of the Year, A New York Times Editors' Choice pick, Wall Street Journal's Who Read What Favorite Books of 2021, Longlisted for the 2022 Brooklyn Public Library Book Prize, Observer Food Monthly's 50 Things We Love in the World of Food Right Now, Named a best book for the holidays by Wall Street Journal, Vogue, Oprah's O Quarterly, Globe, Marcella Hazan, the deity of Italian cuisine, and Norma Shirley, a champion of Jamaican dishes. In imaginative, lively prose, Mayukh Sen, a queer brown child of immigrants, reconstructs the lives of these women in vivid and empathetic detail, daring to ask why some were famous in their own time but not in ours, and why others shine brightly even today. Weaving together histories of food, immigration, and gender, Taste Makers will challenge the way readers look at what's on their plate and the women whose labor is overlooked for so long, making those meals possible.

An Encounter with Dylan Thomas Ebrahim Golestan, 2022-09-27 Abadan 1951. Iran and Britain are bracing for battle over the continued British monopoly of Iran's oil. Twenty-nine-year-old Ebrahim Golestan, who was to become a towering figure in Iranian cinema and literature, encounters Dylan Thomas, the famous Welsh poet who died two years later at the age of thirty-nine from bronchial disease and pneumonia. More for his celebrity than an intimate knowledge of the subject, Thomas had been sent to Iran by the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company to write a script for a propaganda film about the company's supposedly salutary role in the country. But for a few hours, Golestan and Thomas pause amidst the escalating standoff between their two countries and speak candidly about poetry, history, philosophy, and the perils of translation. Published here for the first time is the English translation, with facing pages in the original Persian, of Golestan's unflinching portrayal of that encounter, revealing all too clearly how unsuited Thomas was for the task in hand. Accompanying the translation is an account of Thomas's time in Iran, written by Abbas Milani, Director of the Iranian Studies Program at Stanford University, together with Alina Utrata, a Ph.D. candidate and Gates Cambridge scholar. Based on the poet's letters, journals, and archival material in England and Wales, it helps to shed further light on an episode long shrouded in mystery and plagued by controversy. Publication of this book coincides with the hundredth birthday in October 2022 of Ebrahim Golestan. To mark the occasion, Professor Milani has included a personal and erudite introductory essay on Golestan's life and work, examining his pioneering approach to film.

and his important contribution to Iranian literature despite living in exile for most of his adult life With a filmography and selected bibliography of the works by or about Golestan this multifaceted volume offers not only a striking commentary on Iranian arts politics and history set against the tense backdrop of the impending geopolitical clash between Britain and Iran but also a commemoration of the work of one of the most eminent and influential representatives of Iranian culture in modern times
