A Troubled Man With A Violent Past:

A Troubled Man with a Violent Past. Daniel Buck-Burgoon,2011-04-07 This book is a fictional story of a man who had a good life The short summery of his existence would be too much pressure of his peers and difficulties of life to drown him in his own sorrow and sink him in to one of the worst troubles any one could bare His pressures and habits would cost him his rights and freedom

The Legacy of a Troubled Past Bernard Cros,Mathilde Rogez,Gilles Teulie,2022-06-07 Since the advent of democracy in 1994 South Africa has been engaged in an unprecedented exercise of national soul searching torn between the need to lay to rest centuries of racial conflict and the desire to come to terms with its traumatic history This book asks whether the country has begun to turn the corner on the legacy of collective hurt To do so it ranges in scope across 350 years of South African history encompassing the struggle against the apartheid regime the downfall of white supremacy the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and the first 25 years of democracy up to more recent movements such as RhodesMustFall or the inquests into the 2012 Marikana massacre that point to the persistence of traumatic memory in contemporary society The authors assembled here set out to analyse the representation of such memory how it has been woven into narratives recorded preserved and questioned and how issues of individual and collective responsibility have been grafted onto it through the visual arts literature political discourse and public action In focusing on memory along with its derived forms of memorialization collective memory nostalgia or post memory our contributors pose a fundamental question is South Africa finally coming to the end of the post apartheid transition period Do the decades of memory work on racial violence and repression examined here hold out hope for the nation to make peace with its past

Structures of Desire Tony Williams,2000-08-10 This book examines representations of desire in British cinema during a period of turbulent change In addition to investigating male female desire in status quo realist films and in various anti realist movements represented by Gainsborough Melodrama and the work of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger the book also explores the various factors that affected utopian aspirations for a better postwar world and how these desires eventually became restrained by the dominant forces of conservative ideology Structures of Desire provides new perspectives on previously recognized film movements such as Ealing Comedy and Gainsborough Melodrama while also offering analyses of interesting but neglected films such as Love on the Dole 1941 Perfect Strangers 1945 They Made Me a Fugitive 1947 The Bad Lord Byron 1949 and Madeleine 1950

Batterer Intervention Systems Edward W. Gondolf,2001-10-31 Batterer Intervention Systems is a very important book probably the most important one on batter interventions and evaluations to date The writing style is very strong conversational and kept my interest It presents complex information in a non technical way The book should be very accessible to a wide audience JEFFREY L EDLESON Professor of Social Work University of Minnesota and Director Minnesota Center Against Violence Abuse MINCAVA One of the most burning debates in the domestic violence field is over the effectiveness of batterer programs and how to improve them Batterer Intervention Systems responds to this debate with research from a multi site evaluation of batterer programs the most comprehensive and extensive evaluation to date It critiques current experimental evaluations exposes the complex issues of evaluation and presents alternatives to assessing effectiveness A four year follow up of program participants reveals a surprising de escalation of abuse a subgroup of unresponsive repeat reassaulters and the difficulty in identifying the most dangerous men Conventional batterer counseling appears to be appropriate for the vast majority of men Most of all the book shows that the system matters and can be improved through some straightforward adjustments "X-Men" Films , The Angry Land William W. Men Who Batter Nancy Nason-Clark PhD, Barbara Fisher-Townsend PhD, 2014-10-01 Men who act abusively have their own story to tell a journey that often begins in childhood ripens in their teenage years and takes them down paths they were hoping to never travel Men Who Batter recounts the journey from the point of view of the men themselves The men's accounts of their lives are told within a broader framework of the agency where they have attended groups and the regional coordinated community response to domestic violence which includes the criminal justice workers e.g. probation parole judges and those who staff shelters and work in advocacy Based on interview data with this wide array of professionals we are able to examine how one community in one western state responds to men who batter Interwoven with this rich and colorful portrayal of the journey of abusive men we bring twenty years of fieldwork with survivors and those who walk alongside them as they seek safety healing and wholeness for themselves and their children Women who have been victimized by the men they love often hold out hope that if only their abusers could be held accountable and receive intervention the violence will stop and their own lives will improve dramatically as a result While the main purpose of Men Who Batter is to highlight the stories of men told from their personal point of view it is countered by reality checks from their own case files and those professionals who have worked with them And finally interspersed within its pages is another theme finding religious faith or spiritual activity in unlikely places

Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities Alette Smeulers, 2023-12-22 The 9/11 attacks as well as the ones in Madrid London Paris and Brussels the genocides in Nazi Germany Rwanda and Cambodia the torture in dictatorial regimes the wars in former Yugoslavia Syria and Iraq and currently in Ukraine the sexual violence during periods of conflict all make us wonder why would anyone do something like that Who are these people Drawing on 30 years of research in this book Alette Smeulers explores the perpetrators of mass atrocities such as war crimes crimes against humanity genocide and terrorism Examining questions of why people kill and torture and how mass atrocities can be explained Smeulers presents a typology of perpetrators with different ranks roles and motives Devoting one chapter to each type of perpetrator the book combines insights from academic research with illustrative case studies of well known perpetrators from dictators to middlemen to lower ranking officials and terrorists Their stories are explored in depth as the book examines their behaviour and motivation Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities thus provides a comprehensive understanding of the causes of extreme mass violence Such knowledge not only can help the international criminal justice system to be able to attribute blame in a fairer way but can also assist in preventing such atrocities being committed on the current scale Perpetrators of Mass Atrocities is essential reading for all those interested in war crimes genocide terrorism and mass violence
