Athenian Potters And Painters Iii:

Athenian Potters and Painters III John Oakley, 2014-08-31 Athenian Potters and Painters III presents a rich mass of new material on Greek vases including finds from excavations at the Kerameikos in Athens and Despotiko in the Cyclades. Some contributions focus on painters or workshops: Paseas, the Robinson Group, and the structure of the figured pottery industry in Athens; others on vase forms: plates, phialai, cups, and the change in shapes at the end of the sixth century BC. Context: trade, kalos inscriptions, reception, the fabrication of inscribed painters' names to create a fictitious biography, and the reconstruction of the contents of an Etruscan tomb are also explored. The iconography and iconology of various types of figured scenes on Attic pottery serve as the subject of a wide range of papers: chariots, dogs, baskets, heads, departures, an Amazonomachy, Menelaos and Helen, red-figure komasts, symposia, and scenes of pursuit. Among the special vases presented are a black-spotlight stamnos and a column krater by the Suessula Painter. Athenian Potters and Painters III, the proceedings of an international conference held at the College of William and Mary in Virginia in 2012, will like the previous two volumes become a standard reference work in the study of Greek pottery. Athenian Potters and Painters III John Oakley, 2015

Athenian Potters and Painters John H. Oakley, Olga Palagia, 2009-05-01 This volume presents the proceedings of the second Athenian Potters and Painters conference which was held at the American School of Classical Studies, Athens, 2007. Together with the 1994 conference, Volume I, Oxbow 1997, these are the first of their kind, focusing purely on Athenian pottery and addressing key aspects of its study. The thirty-two papers contained here are the result not only of a large amount of new material but also of the dynamic appearance of a younger generation of scholars dealing with the subject. Subject areas range from the study of the potters and painters themselves to shape, subject matter, chronology, export, excavation, pottery context, and the influence of Athenian vases on pottery from other regions of the Mediterranean, and vice versa. Three papers in Greek

Athenian Potters and Painters John Howard Oakley, William D. E. Coulson, Olga Palagia, 1997 A mass of new material on Greek vases is included in this huge volume of proceedings from an international conference held at the American School of Classical Studies at Athens in December 1994. The forty-three papers include: New light on the earliest Attic black-figure drinking cups; Herman A. G. Brijder, Attic vases; Etruscan stories; Les échanges et les hommes; N. Malagradis, I Eleusis; Athenian vase painting; E. Simon, Le peintre des demi-palmets; F. Lissarrague, Der Aug'en Sirenen; Maler J. Burrow, The Bosanquet painter; J. Oakley, Boy meets girl; An iconographic encounter; J. Boardman, Aspects of nuptial and genre imagery in fifth-century Athens; V. Sabetai, The Pistocci painter; M. Denoyelle, Athenian black-figure; A. Lemos, Ceramica attica a fondo bianco da Pupulonia and more. Technology, Crafting and Artisanal Networks in the Greek and Roman World

Diego Elia, Eleni Hasaki, Marco Serino, 2024-12-02 This volume aims to merge theoretical models with methodological approaches on ceramic technology and artisanal networks in the Classical world. This convergence of analytical frameworks allowed scholars to explore some traditional archaeological topics that usually have a very low level of visibility, such as the skillful gestures of the craftspeople involved the organization of the ceramic production the dynamics of apprenticeship and knowledge transfer as well as intra and inter regional artisanal mobility in the Graeco Roman communities of practice The papers promote interdisciplinary dialogues among various fields of study such as archaeology archaeometry anthropology ethnoarchaeology experimental archaeology and digital humanities such as Social Network Analysis computational imaging and big data analysis

The Transformation of Athens Robin Osborne, 2018-02-06 How remarkable changes in ancient Greek pottery reveal the transformation of classical Greek culture Why did soldiers stop fighting athletes stop competing and lovers stop having graphic sex in classical Greek art The scenes depicted on Athenian pottery of the mid fifth century BC are very different from those of the late sixth century Did Greek potters have a different world to see or did they come to see the world differently In this lavishly illustrated and engagingly written book Robin Osborne argues that these remarkable changes are the best evidence for the shifting nature of classical Greek culture Osborne examines the thousands of surviving Athenian red figure pots painted between 520 and 440 BC and describes the changing depictions of soldiers and athletes drinking parties and religious occasions sexual relations and scenes of daily life He shows that it was not changes in each activity that determined how the world was shown but changes in values and aesthetics By demonstrating that changes in artistic style involve choices about what aspects of the world we decide to represent as well as how to represent them this book rewrites the history of Greek art By showing that Greeks came to see the world differently over the span of less than a century it reassesses the history of classical Greece and of Athenian democracy And by questioning whether art reflects or produces social and political change it provokes a fresh examination of the role of images in an ever evolving world

Excursions into Greek and Roman Imagery Eva Rystedt, 2022-08-12 This book provides an enquiry into the distinguishing traits of Greek and Roman figural imagery A detailed analysis of a wide range of material conveys an understanding of the figural imagery of classical antiquity as a whole counterbalancing studies conducted on single genres Through in depth studies of six major production categories Greek painted pottery Roman decorated walls Greek gravestones Roman sarcophagi Greek and Roman official sculpture and Greek and Roman coins the reader gains insights into the making of classical figural imagery The images are explored within their contextual frameworks paying attention to both functional purposes and pictorial traditions Image viewer relations offer a perspective that is maintained across the chapters The bottom up approach and the many genres of imagery discussed provide the basis for an extensive synthesis Lavishly illustrated with over 100 images Excursions into Greek and Roman Imagery provides a valuable resource for students of classical antiquity and history of art The book also offers classical scholars museum curators and others interested in classical art a fresh approach to the figural imagery of antiquity Chalkis Aitolias II Sanne Houby-Nielsen, 2020-07-24 Homeric Chalkis is situated on the coast of Aetolia at the very gateway of the Gulf of Patras The foundation occurred during an important period in early Greek history when trade and movement of peoples along the Gulf intensified with a resulting strong pull to the coast Well preserved stratigraphies date the foundation to the early seventh century BC and testify to a flourishing settlement in the sixth century lasting till the early fifth century BC when the site was temporarily given up Walls and roads follow a rectilinear layout A broad spectre of pottery shapes and wares attest to innovative local and regional workshops already from the onset of the settlement Alongside the pottery tools for complex textile manufacture were found in all houses among which were many small pyramidal loom weights and spools These findings indicated a high degree of experimental weaving techniques and demonstrated how the courtyard house as a new house model was particularly well suited to accommodate this manufacture probably mantels The results therefore offer important new evidence on relations between gender behaviour and Greek houses The catalogue is richly illustrated with profile drawings plans black and white and colour photos and accompanied by discussions of the material Artwashing the Past David W.J. Gill, 2024-10-01

Artwashing the Past Context Matters contributes to the wider discussion about the appropriate due diligence process that should be conducted prior to the acquisition of cultural objects The chapters were written as museums in Europe and North America were facing a series of claims on recently acquired objects in their collections in the light of the photographic dossiers that had been seized from dealers in Switzerland and Greece They engage with some of the recent debates over cultural property that include the Ka Ka Nefer mummy mask currently in the St Louis Art Museum and the Leutwitz Apollo acquired by the Cleveland Museum of Art Two of the essays reflect on the recent and controversial metal detecting finds in England the so called Crosby Garrett helmet and the Lenborough Hoard
