Being There The Fieldwork Encounter And The Making Of Truth:

Being There John Borneman, Abdellah Hammoudi, 2009-02-04 Challenges to ethnographic authority and to the ethics of representation have led many contemporary anthropologists to abandon fieldwork in favor of strategies of theoretical puppeteering textual analysis and surrogate ethnography In Being There John Borneman and Abdellah Hammoudi argue that ethnographies based on these strategies elide important insights To demonstrate the power and knowledge attained through the fieldwork experience they have gathered essays by anthropologists working in Morocco Saudi Arabia Syria Tanzania the Canadian Arctic India Germany and Russia that shift attention back to the subtle dynamics of the ethnographic encounter From an Inuit village to the foothills of Kilimanjaro each account illustrates how despite its challenges fieldwork yields important insights outside the reach of textual analysis Rapport and the Discursive Co-Construction of Social Relations in Fieldwork Encounters Zane Goebel, 2019-08-19 In accounts of ethnographic fieldwork and textbooks on ethnography we often find the notion of rapport used to describe social relationships in the field Frequently rapport between researcher and researched is invoked as a prerequisite to be achieved before fieldwork can start or used as evidence to judge the value and robustness of an ethnography With few exceptions and despite regular pleas to do so ethnographers continue to avoid presenting any discursive evidence of what rapport might look like from an interactional perspective In a sense the uncritical acceptance of rapport as a fieldwork goal and measure has helped hide the discursive work that goes on in the field In turn this has privileged ideas about identity as portable rather than portable and emergent and reports of social life as more important than how such reports emerge Written for all those who engage or plan to engage in ethnographic fieldwork this collection examines how social relationships dialogically emerge in fieldwork settings The Routledge Encyclopedia of Social and Cultural Anthropology Alan Barnard, Jonathan Spencer, 2009-12-04 Written by leading scholars in the field this comprehensive and readable resource gives anthropology students a unique guide to the ideas arguments and history of the discipline Combining anthropological theory and ethnography it includes 275 substantial entries over 300 short biographies of important figures in anthropology and nearly 600 glossary items The fully revised and expanded second edition reflects major changes in anthropology in the past decade Social Anthropology in the Arab World Abdullah Alajmi, Daniele Cantini, Irene Maffi, Imed Melliti, 2025-08-01 There are ongoing efforts in anthropology to decolonise its history and give fairer space to marginalised traditions This book examines the history and institutionalisation of anthropology in the Maghreb the Mashreq and the Gulf in an open and collaborative manner and from various perspectives Its primary focus is two fold first to reorient the anthropological focus towards studies conducted in the region particularly on the conditions conducive to the institutionalisation of anthropological knowledge second to shed light on anthropological studies in languages other than English offering different theoretical and epistemological perspectives A Research Agenda for COVID-19 and Society Matthewman, Steve, 2022-08-12 With contributions from leading experts in the fields of anthropology communications disaster studies economics epidemiology Indigenous studies philosophy and sociology this expansive book offers a diverse range of social science perspectives on the COVID 19 pandemic providing critical insights into what a research agenda for COVID 19 and society resembles across different fields of study Tight Knit Elizabeth L. Krause, 2018-08-17 The coveted Made in Italy label calls to mind visions of nimble fingered Italian tailors lovingly sewing elegant high end clothing The phrase evokes a sense of authenticity heritage and rustic charm Yet as Elizabeth L.
