A New Coat For Anna Dragonfly S:

A New Coat for Anna Harriet Ziefert, 1988-05-12 A fresh and moving story of a mother's dedication to acquire a coat for her daughter in post World War II hard times Anna's mother decides to trade the few valuables she has left for wool and for the services of a spinner a weaver and a tailor Lobel's pictures do a tremendous job of evoking the period Insightful and informative this may make children consider how precious the ordinary can become in times of turmoil starred review

Booklist Integrating Social and Emotional Learning with Content Katherine Kapustka, Sarah Bright, 2022-03-14

Integrating Social and Emotional Learning with Content builds a framework for creatively and effectively using picture books to integrate social and emotional learning SEL with teaching across content areas Thoughtful book choices in mixed ability early elementary classrooms have the power to not only support gifted students as they develop academically but also to provide an opportunity to address their unique social and emotional needs such as asynchronous development and an early awareness of complex and challenging issues in their lives and the world at large Picture books are an invaluable tool for this work because the characters topics and settings increasingly represent and celebrate the lived experiences of diverse student populations supporting culturally responsive teaching Packed with lesson plans book lists and more this book is perfect for teachers in gifted and mixed ability classrooms as well as homeschooling parents looking to help their children make meaningful connections between their culture languages and lived experiences and the academic content and SEL skills they are being taught in the classroom Teaching Economic Concepts with Picture Books and Junior Novels Nancy J.

Polette, 2013-08-29 Using quality literature to introduce younger students to economic terms and concepts is an engaging and effective teaching method This book demonstrates how At what age can children benefit from learning about economics The consensus among educators today is the earlier the better K 8 teachers and librarians will find this book invaluable for introducing basic economic concepts to students and giving them a solid foundation of understanding that can be built upon as they advance in grade level Author Nancy Polette prolific author and expert on using picture books for education explains how to use 20 picture books to present basic ideas such as credit wants and needs and supply and demand and to build understanding of more complex concepts with 20 junior novels The titles and suggested activities enable students to enjoy the literary experience and benefit from economic lessons that sink in because they are presented through stories involving characters with whom children can relate Time to Weave Jane Patrick, 2013-03-15 Highly textured objects such as plaited paper baskets woven lanterns small hearth rugs and cork tables are featured in this beginner's guide to nonloom weaving The easy instructions teach ancient techniques such as braiding stringing and knotting and call for everyday materials such as copper tape plastic sheeting paper yarn and granite tiles to produce stunning contemporary designs for the home A short essay about natural materials and the creative process introduces each project and lovely photographs showcase the final results sleek window hangings stick and string coasters pillows covered in canvas tape and woven paper cards A list of resources an assortment of weaving tips and suggestions for further reading are included The Book Tree Elizabeth McCallum, Jane Scott, 2008 Literary habits naturally give way to literary affections Once upon a time a carpenter entered a forest and happened upon a wolf wearing a feathered cap Quick whose side are you on If you don't know we suggest reading a hearty round of fairytales Stories provide a roadmap for life This is because stories are life But oftentimes it's easiest to understand where we are when we can look through other eyes from the perspective of someone else living somewhere else somewhen else For those beginning to read for the first time or those beginning to read again The Book Tree will drop golden apples in your lap until you can climb high enough to pick for yourself 1997 Summer Library Program

A Method for Linguistic Metaphor Identification Gerard J. Steen, Aletta G. Dorst, J. Berenike Herrmann, Anna Kaal, Tina Krennmayr, Trijntje Pasma, 2010-06-23 This book presents a complete method for the identification of metaphor in language at the level of word use It is based on extensive methodological and empirical corpus linguistic research in two languages English and Dutch The method is formulated as an explicit manual of instructions covering one chapter the method being a development and refinement of the popular MIP procedure presented by the Pragglejaz Group in 2007 The extended version is called MIPVU as it was developed at VU University Amsterdam Its application is demonstrated in five case studies addressing metaphor in English news texts conversations fiction and academic texts and Dutch news texts and conversations Two methodological chapters follow reporting a series of successful reliability tests and a series of post hoc troubleshooting exercises The final chapter presents a first empirical analysis of the findings and shows what this type of methodological attention can mean for research and theory BiblioAsia National Library (Singapore), 2008
