Contemporary Indian English Poetry and Drama Sajalkumar Bhattacharya, Himadri Lahiri, Arnab Kumar Sinha, 2019-07-29 This anthology of essays maps the divergent issues that have become relevant in contemporary Indian English poetry and drama By providing a clear idea about the new themes techniques and methods used by the Indian English poets and playwrights to address the issues emerging in the changing socio cultural scenario particularly during the post globalization period the essays offer insightful observations on canon formation and its reception It is high time to consider afresh whether the canons of Indian English poetry and drama have widened their scope to include innovative forms of writing or whether they have evolved significantly to generate novel perspectives These questions which are linked with the issue of canon formation and its reception are intricately woven into the fabric of these essays This anthology will respond to the scholarly interests of inquisitive students research scholars and academics in the field of Indian English literature Reorienting Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry Levi Thompson,2022-12-08 Re orienting Modernism in Arabic and Persian Poetry is the first book to systematically study the parallel development of modernist poetry in Arabic and Persian It presents a fresh line of comparative inquiry into minor literatures within the field of world literary studies Focusing on Arabic Persian literary exchanges allows readers to better understand the development of modernist poetry in both traditions and in turn challenge Europe s position at the center of literary modernism The argument contributes to current scholarly efforts to globalize modernist studies by reading Arabic and Persian poetry comparatively within the context of the Cold War to establish the Middle East as a significant participant in wider modernist developments To illuminate profound connections between Arabic and Persian modernist poetry in both form and content the book takes up works from key poets including the Iraqis Badr Shakir al Sayyab and Abd al Wahhab al Bayati and the Iranians Nima Yushij Ahmad Shamlu and Forough Farrokhzad The Mirror of My Heart: A Thousand Years of Persian Poetry by Women Rabe`eh Balkhi,2023-05-09 One of the very first Persian poets was a woman Rabe eh who lived over a thousand years ago and there have been women poets writing in Persian in virtually every generation since that time until the present Before the twentieth century they tended to come from society s social extremes Many were princesses a good number were hired entertainers of one kind or another and they were active in many different countries Iran of course but also India Afghanistan and areas of central Asia that are now Uzbekistan Turkmenistan and Tajikistan Not surprisingly a lot of their poetry sounds like that of their male counterparts but a lot doesn t there are distinctively bawdy and flirtatious poems by medieval women poets poems from virtually every era in which the poet complains about her husband sometimes light heartedly sometimes with poignant seriousness touching poems on the death of a child and many epigrams centered on little details that bring a life from hundreds of years ago vividly before our eyes This new bilingual edition of The Mirror of My Heart the poems in Persian and English on facing pages is a unique and captivating collection introduced and translated by Dick Davis an acclaimed scholar and translator of Persian literature as well as a gifted poet in his own right In his introduction he provides fascinating background detail on Persian poetry written by women through the ages including common themes and motifs and a brief overview of Iranian history showing how women poets have been affected by the changing dynasties From Rabe eh in the tenth century to Fatemeh Ekhtesari in the twenty first each of the eighty four poets in this volume is introduced in a short biographical note while explanatory notes give further insight into the poems themselves The Americana ,1923
