Arachne Study Guide:

The Metamorphoses of Ovid (MAXNotes Literature Guides) Dalma Brunauer, 2013-01-01 REA's MAXnotes for Ovid's The Metamorphoses of Ovid MAXnotes offer a fresh look at masterpieces of literature presented in a lively and interesting fashion. Written by literary experts who currently teach the subject, MAXnotes will enhance your understanding and enjoyment of the work. MAXnotes are designed to stimulate independent thought about the literary work by raising various issues and thought-provoking ideas and questions. MAXnotes cover the essentials of what one should know about each work, including an overall summary, character lists, an explanation and discussion of the plot, the work's historical context, illustrations to convey the mood of the work, and a biography of the author. Each chapter is individually summarized and analyzed and has study questions and answers. High School English, 1958. Roads of Her Own Alexandra Ganser, 2009. Reading Jack Kerouac's classic On the Road through Virginia Woolf's canonical A Room of One's Own, the author of this book examines a genre in North American literature which, despite its popularity, has received little attention in literary and cultural criticism: women's road narratives. The study shows how women's literature has inscribed itself into the American discourse of the Whitmanesque open road or, more generally, the freedom of the road. Women writers have participated in this powerful American myth, yet at the same time also have rejected that myth as fundamentally based on gendered and racial/ethnic hierarchies and power structures and modified it in the process of writing back to it. The book analyzes stories about female runaways, outlaws, questers, adventurers, kidnapping victims, biker chicks, travelling saleswomen, and picares and makes theoretical observations on the debates regarding discourses of spatiality and mobility, debates which have defined the so-called spatial turn in the humanities. The analytical concept of transdifference is introduced to theorize the dissonant plurality of social and cultural affiliations as well as the narrative tensions produced by such pluralities in order to better understand the textual worlds of women's multiple belongings as they are present in these writings. Roads of Her Own is thus not only situated in the broader context of a constructivist cultural studies but also, by discussing narrative mobility under the sign of gender, combines insights from social theory and philosophy, feminist cultural geography, and literary studies. Key names and concepts: Doreen Massey, Rosi Braidotti, Literary Studies, Spatial Turn, Gendered Space and Mobility, Nomadism, Road writing, Transdifference, American Culture, Popular Culture, Women's Literature after the Second Wave, Quest, Picaresque. The Literary Guide and Rationalist Review, 1925. Manual of Courses of Study and Report Lima (Ohio). Superintendent of Schools, 1915.
