Lewis Morgan had at last disappointed his mother. Mother Morgan knew that her son would one day marry; it is what young men do after all. But she had hoped that he would wait a few more years and then choose one of the local girls. A good, sensible, hardworking farm girl would have been good enough for her. Why not for her son? Louise Lewis's young bride wants so much to fit in at the Morgan house. But from the moment she arrives, it appears that she has little in common with her in-laws. How she wonders, will she ever be able to share God's love with them? Heartwarming stories of faith and love by Grace Livingston Hill's aunt Isabella Alden. Each book is similar in style and tone to Hill's and is set in the late 1800s and early 1900s.
