A/r/tography Rita L. Irwin, Alex De Cosson, 2004 Twelve contributors explore the relationships between and among the three roles of artist researcher and teacher as they implement arts based educational research Each contributor uses her or his own artistic practices as integral or complementary practices to other forms of inquiry In each case the artist author examines an educational issue and through visual and textual means pursues theoretical and practical considerations Each artist author engages with theory and practice art and text self and other artist and teacher In many respects two points of view are explored art as phenomenon and art making as method Using these points separately or together the artist authors explore the fullness of such inquiry for educational research Through an examination of these art based texts readers will come to appreciate educational practices in deeper and more meaningful ways publisher Making Connections in and Through Arts-Based Educational Research Hala Mreiwed, Mindy R. Carter, Sara Hashem, Candace H. Blake-Amarante, 2023-02-18 This book explores the connections made in and through arts based educational research through four themes socially engaged connections cultural connections personal and pedagogical connections and making connections during the COVID 19 pandemic It emerges from the 3rd bi annual 2020 Artful Inquiry Research Group symposium on the theme of connections The symposium brought together artists community members teachers students and researchers through a virtual platform to examine the ways in which the arts can help connect people ideas and spaces places in a pandemic reality Art plays a predominant role in each chapter as authors weave their research and art based understandings together This book is a valuable teaching resource for undergraduate and postgraduate courses in teaching anthropology digital ethnography autoethnography cultural studies and communications It is of interest to higher education students academic researchers and teachers exploring arts based methodologies in the fields of creative practice and creativity studies communications critical studies sociology sciences teacher education and the arts Arts-Based Educational Research Trajectories Barbara Bickel, Rita L. Irwin, Richard Siegesmund, 2023-03-17 This book offers reflections from Arts Based Educational Research ABER scholars who since 2005 were awarded the American Educational Research Association ABER Special Interest Group's Outstanding Dissertation Award The book includes essays from ten awardees who across diverse artistic disciplines share how their ABER careers evolve and succeed inspiring insights into the possibilities of ABER It also examines the essential role of mentorship in the academy that supports and expands ABER scholarship Drawing from dissertation exemplars in the field this book allows readers to look at how ABER scholars learn with the world while creatively researching and teaching in innovative ways Handbook of Arts-Based Research Patricia Leavy, 2019-02-27 The handbook is heavy on methods chapters in different genres There are chapters on actual methods that include methodological instruction and examples There is also ample attention given to practical issues including evaluation writing ethics and publishing With respect to writing style contributors have made their chapters reader friendly by limiting their use of jargon providing methodological instruction when appropriate and offering robust research examples from their own work and or others Arts-Based Research Jan Jagodzinski, Jason Wallin, 2013-04-19 A provocative book an important book jagodzinski s and Wallin s betrayal is in fact a wake up call for art based research a loving critique of its directions jagodzinski s and Wallin s reference is the question what art can do not what it means Theirs is an ultimate affirmation that uncovers the singularities that compose and give consistency to art not as an object but as an event Their betrayal consists in an affirmation of life and becoming positing a performative machinics of the arts which is in absolute contraposition with the hegemonic discourse of art and as an object of knowledge and representation This does not only concern academia but also politics and ethics an untimely book that comes just at the right time Bernd Herzogenrath Goethe Universit t Frankfurt am Main Germany author of An American Body Politic A Deleuzian Approach and editor of Deleuze Pedagogies Against the State

A/r/tography Rita L. Irwin, Alexandra Lasczik, Anita Sinner, Valerie Triggs, 2023-11-06 The focus of this edited book is to evoke and provoke conceptual conversations between early a r tographic publications and the contemporary scholarship of a r tographers publishing and producing today Working around four pervasive themes found in a r tographic literature this volume addresses relationality and renderings ethics and embodiment movement and materiality and propositions and potentials In doing so it advances concepts that have permeated a r tographic literature to date More specifically the volume simultaneously offers a site where key historical works can easily be found and at the same time offer new scholarship that is in conversation with these historical ideas as they are discussed expanded and changed within contemporary contexts The organizing themes offer conceptual pivots for thinking through how a r tography was first conceptualized and how it has evolved and how it might further evolve Thus this edited book affords an opportunity for all those working in and through a r tography to offer refined revised revisited or new conceptual understandings for contemporary scholarship and practice Part of the Artwork Scholarship International Perspectives in Education series Arts-Based Educational Research and Qualitative Inquiry Thalia M. Mulvihill, Raji Swaminathan, 2019-11-04 Awarded QRSIG s Honorable Mention for 2021 2020 AESA Critics Choice Book Award Winner Arts Based Educational Research and Qualitative Inquiry introduces novice qualitative researchers within education and related fields to arts based educational research ABER Abundant prompts and exercises are provided to help readers apply the concepts and experiment with various applications of the ideas presented The authors walk the path with novice researchers offering a variety of approaches to the practice of arts based methods while providing a guided overview of ABER and include pedagogical features in each chapter Exercises are designed to assist educational researchers who wish to expand their repertoire of methodologies The authors also weave into the discussion the possibilities and limitations of many types of arts based methods while introducing readers to the growing methodological literature By offering a tapestry of ways to engage the novice researcher the book illustrates that it is not always possible to separate cognitive findings from aesthetic knowing This book will help qualitative researchers to expand their methodologies to include arts based approaches to their projects and by doing so reshape their identities as qualitative researchers It also offers some evaluative criteria and tool kits for experimenting with various arts and educational research

Arts-Based Methods in Education Research in Japan ,2022-02-22 This volume created by seventeen interdisciplinary authors brings together pioneering practices that introduce arts into education in Japan The field of research ranges from kindergarten primary and secondary school to liberal arts and postgraduate courses at university The chapters cover both formal and informal settings such as museums and after school programs The genres of art include visual art performance dance vocal music and drama Arts based or arts inspired methods help students artistic inquiry through creative or performative practices leading to new findings that might not otherwise be described Artistic practice makes students reflect on their own bodies emotions feelings ways of life and relationships with others which leads to creative thinking The volume is based on three new trends in art and education 1 the development of Arts Based Research in Japan since its introduction from abroad 2 the introduction of art practice into academic research in various disciplines and diverse educational settings and 3 the new trend in drama education and theatrical performance in Japan Each chapter inspires and provokes discussion among researchers and practitioners in various educational settings on the future direction of art education in Japan and around the world

Rethinking Art Education Research through the Essay Stephen M. Morrow,2021-09-29 This book explores the pedagogical applications of critical thinking in art education and scholarship In the first part of the book the author delves into the ways that arts based educational research has incorporated critical thinking in order to illuminate the context for the subsequent study The second half of the book focuses on the essay as a genre used in creative nonfiction and film in order to enact the concept of critical thinking in art education In this way the book sheds light on a new landscape of thinking arts education and thinking scholarship through the essay that is practiced in creative nonfiction and cinema

Understanding Art Education through the Lens of Threshold Concepts Matthew Ravenstahl,2021-12-13 This is an important book on the value of art education and the nature of having the affective dimension at the core of the visual art learning environment The case studies are powerful and varied providing an unapologetic view of the transformative impact such learning environments can have upon students and the epistemic value of engagement in the visual arts Moreover the case studies speak to an emotional level of the reader The author provides a digestible theoretical support for understanding the journey these students have undergone which can empower educators to rethink their existing pedagogy
