Shennan, 2003-05-20 Examines the critical implications of cultural identity from a variety of perspectives Questions the nature and limits of archaeological knowledge of the past and the relationship of material culture to cultural identity

Archaeological Approaches to Cultural Identity Stephen Shennan, 1989 This work examines the critical implications of cultural identity from a variety of perspectives It questions the nature and limits of archaeological knowledge of the past and the relationship of material culture to cultural identity It also offers a discussion of significant issues in view of increasing ethnic conflicts in the modern world Indigenous Archaeologies Margaret Bruchac, Siobhan Hart, H Martin

Wobst, 2016-06-03 This reader of original and reprinted articles many by indigenous authors is designed to display the array of writings around relationships between archaeologists and indigenous peoples around the globe The Oxford Handbook of the Archaeology of the Contemporary World Paul Graves-Brown, Rodney Harrison, Angela Piccini, 2013-10-17 It has been clear for many years that the ways in which archaeology is practised have been a direct product of a particular set of social cultural and historical circumstances archaeology is always carried out in the present More recently however many have begun to consider how archaeological techniques might be used to reflect more directly on the contemporary world itself how we might undertake archaeologies of as well as in the present This Handbook is the first comprehensive survey of an exciting and rapidly expanding sub field and provides an authoritative overview of the newly emerging focus on the archaeology of the present and recent past In addition to detailed archaeological case studies it includes essays by scholars working on the relationships of different disciplines to the archaeology of the contemporary world including anthropology psychology philosophy historical geography science and technology studies communications and media ethnoarchaeology forensic archaeology sociology film performance and contemporary art This volume seeks to explore the boundaries of an emerging sub discipline to develop a tool kit of concepts and methods which are applicable to this new field and to suggest important future trajectories for research It makes a significant intervention by drawing together scholars working on a broad range of themes approaches methods and case studies from diverse contexts in different parts of the world which have not previously been considered collectively Archaeology of Bandelier National Monument Timothy A. Kohler, 2004-05 These essays summarize the results of new excavation and survey research at Bandelier National Monument with special attention to determining why larger sites appear when and where they do and how life in these later villages and towns differed from life in the earlier small hamlets that first dotted the Pajarito in the mid 1100s From Antiquarian to Archaeologist Tim Murray, 2014-04-16 Brings together fourteen of Tim Murray's papers on the history philosophy and sociology of archaeology published over two decades Bulletin of the History of Archaeology This volume forms a collection of papers tracking the emergence of the history of archaeology from a subject of marginal status in the 1980s to the mainstream subject which it is today Professor Timothy Murray's essays have been widely cited and track over twenty years in the development of the subject The papers are accompanied by a new introduction which surveys the development of the subject over the last twenty five years as well as a reflection of what this means for the philosophy of archaeology and theoretical archaeology This volume spans Tim's successful career as an academic at the forefront of the study of the history of archaeology both in Australia and internationally During his career he has held posts in Britain and Europe as well as Australia He has edited the Bulletin of the History of Archaeology since 2003

Cultural Resource Management in Contemporary Society Alf Hatton, Francis P. MacManamon, 2003-05-20 This innovative collection of essays from an international range of contributors describes various means of preserving protecting and presenting vital cultural resources within the context of economic development competing claims of ownership of particular cultural resources modern uses of structures and space and other aspects of late twentieth century life

Archaeology Barry W. Cunliffe, Wendy Davies, Colin Renfrew, 2002 Twenty six leading scholars from around the world have come together to celebrate the strengths the energies and the sheer intellectual excitement of their discipline They unashamedly proclaim that over the last hundred years archaeology has transformed itself from a genteel antiquarian pursuit deeply rooted in the classical tradition to a rigorous and demanding discipline spanning the humanities and the sciences yet at the same time one widely accessible to the public at large The contributors show how our understanding of the past has changed reveal the exciting ideas under current debate and offer their visions of the future The result is a remarkable overview of world archaeology focusing on new and unexpected themes at the cutting edge of the discipline

Cultural Identity and Archaeology P. Graves-Brown, Sian Jones, C.S. Gamble, 2013-04-15 Cultural identity is a key area of debate in contemporary Europe Despite widespread use of the past in the construction of ethnic national and European identity theories of cultural identity have been neglected in archaeology Focusing on the interrelationships between concepts of cultural identity today and the interpretation of past cultural groups Cultural Identity and Archaeology offers proactive archaeological perspectives in the debate surrounding European identities This fascinating and thought provoking book covers three key areas It considers how material remains are used in the interpretation of cultural identities for example pan Celtic culture and Bronze Age Europe Finally it looks at archaeological evidence for the construction of cultural identities in the European past The authors are critical of monolithic constructions of Europe and also of the ethnic and national groups within it in place of such exclusive cultural political and territorial entities the book argues for a consideration of the diverse hybrid and multiple nature of European cultural identities
