

An anime-style illustration featuring two characters. On the left, a man with long, straight black hair and a slight smile, wearing a black suit with a white shirt and a dark bow tie. He has a white glove on his right hand, which is holding a small, white, doll-like figure. On the right, a young girl with short, dark blue hair and a single visible blue eye, looking slightly to the side with a neutral expression. She is wearing a white, ruffled dress. The background is dark and textured, resembling a large, dark wing or a curtain. The title "Black Butler" is written in a stylized, gothic font across the bottom of the image.

The Living from the Dead Stuart J. Murray, 2022-09-20 In a society that aims above all to safeguard life how might we reckon with ethical responsibility when we are complicit in sacrificial economies that produce and tolerate death as a necessity of life Arguing that biopower can be fully exposed only through an analysis of those whom society has let die Stuart J Murray employs a series of transdisciplinary case studies to uncover the structural and rhetorical conditions through which biopower works These case studies include the concept of sacrifice in the war against COVID 19 where emergent cultures of pandemic resistance are explored alongside suicide bombings and military suicides the California mass hunger strikes of 2013 legal cases involving preventable and untimely childhood deaths exposing the irreconcilable claims of anti vaxxers and Indigenous peoples and the videorecording of the death of a disabled Black man Murray demonstrates that active resistance to biopower inevitably reproduces tropes of making live and letting die His counter to this fact is a critical stance of disaffirmation one in which death disrupts the politics of life itself A philosophically nuanced critique of biopower The Living from the Dead is a meditation on life death power language and control in the twenty first century It will appeal to students and scholars of rhetoric philosophy and critical theory

Aunt Ester's Children Redeemed Riley K. Temple, 2017-02-13 August Wilson 1945 2005 wrote one play for every decade of the twentieth century that explored black life in America for the descendants of slaves All of his characters seek wholeness identity and reconstituted selves after the terror of 250 years chattel slavery and its terrifying legacy Their history culture wisdom joys triumphs pain sufferings victories weaknesses and strengths are all embodied in one character Aunt Ester She is as old as the number of years blacks have been on these shores All of the characters in the ten play cycle are her children Their search is through circumstance and adventure certainly This author demonstrates how Wilson uses language poetry the blues to bring each play s characters to a point of wholeness redemption and freedom not from history but ennobled and strengthened by it Wilson employs fundamental theological doctrines to exhort Aunt Ester s children to remember by whom and how they were freed and made whole Children's Literature Studies Matthew O. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have captivated audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This heartfelt tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids absorbing storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Black Butler Read Online : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These top-selling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
