Global Geotourism Perspectives Ross. K Dowling, David Newsome, 2010-05-09 An outstanding collection of international case studies that provide insight into and suggest best practice for issues such as conservation risk management education marketing interpretation and technology of actual and developing geotourism sites

IUCN World Heritage Outlook 2014 International Union for the Conservation of Nature and Natural Resources (IUCN), World Heritage Programme, 2014-11-30 Natural World Heritage sites are internationally recognized as having the highest global conservation significance and include iconic places such as the Serengeti Great Barrier Reef and the Galapagos Islands These renowned sites offer crucial insight into the successes and challenges on the frontlines of conservation but only about half of the natural sites have been regularly monitored through the main monitoring mechanisms of the World Heritage Convention The IUCN World Heritage Outlook monitoring system which consists of Conservation Outlook Assessments complements the Conventions monitoring mechanisms and assesses all World Heritage sites in recognition of their natural Outstanding Universal Value This report describes the methodology for the IUCN World Heritage Outlook reviews the rating system applied and then summarizes the first set of global results We hope the IUCN World Heritage Outlook will serve as a dynamic new tool to assist in celebrating best practice in World Heritage sites and in helping to address the management challenges in some of the most iconic places on Earth

Geotourism David Newsome, 2006-08-11 Geotourism is tourism surrounding geological attractions and destinations This unique text uses a wealth of case studies to discuss the issues involved in the management and care of such attractions covering topics such as sustainability impacts and environmental issues Geotourism Sustainability impacts and management leads the reader logically through the process covering both the theories involved and the practicalities of managing such environmentally precious attractions

Uses of Heritage Laurajane Smith, 2006-11-22 Examining international case studies including USA Asia Australia and New Zealand Laurajane Smith identifies and explores the use of heritage throughout the world Challenging the idea that heritage value is self evident and that things must be preserved because they have an inherent importance Smith forcefully demonstrates that heritage value is not inherent in physical objects or places but rather that these objects and places are used to give tangibility to the values that underpin different communities and to assert and affirm these values A practically grounded accessible examination of heritage as a cultural practice The Uses of Heritage is global in its benefit to students and field professionals alike

Art and Cultural Heritage Barbara T. Hoffman, 2006 Art and Cultural Heritage is appropriately but not solely about national and international law respecting cultural heritage It is a bubbling cauldron of law mixed with ethics philosophy politics and working principles looking at how cultural heritage law policy and practice should be sculpted from the past as the present becomes the future Art and cultural heritage are two pillars on which a society builds its identity its values its sense of community and the individual The authors explore these demanding concerns untangle basic values and look critically at the conflicts and contradictions in existing art and cultural heritage law and policy in its diverse sectors The rich and provocative contributions collectively provide a reasoned discussion of the issues from a multiplicity of views to permit the reader to understand the theoretical and philosophical underpinnings of the cultural heritage debate
