Biblical Equality And Today's Messianic Movement:

Biblical Equality and Today's Messianic Movement J. K. McKee, 2014-03-10 Galatians 3:28 is one of the most important verses not only in the Apostolic Scriptures but in the entire Bible. This one verse written by the Apostle Paul speaks of a new status for human beings that has been inaugurated via the sacrificial work of Yeshua as God's people are to be united in Him actively accomplishing His tasks in the Earth. At times we do find Galatians 3:28 quoted among those in our Messianic faith community but its ramifications are not often fully considered or probed for their significant spiritual power. Current and severe developments in the Messianic movement in our day with the future steadily looming require that we take a fresh look at this verse, what its message of equality means for us, and things that we are certainly missing as we seek to be those who are useful in the Lord's work. This single verse asks us many difficult questions about both Biblical equality and why the Messianic community seems to have less unity and more rivalry.

A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith Craig A. Evans, David Mishkin, 2019. A Handbook on the Jewish Roots of the Christian Faith is a comprehensive handbook that serves as an introduction to the Jewish roots of the Christian Faith. It includes Old Testament background, Second Temple Judaism, the life of Jesus, the New Testament, and the early Jewish followers of Jesus. It is intended as a resource for college and/or higher education. It is no longer a novelty to say that Jesus was a Jew. In fact, the term Jewish root has become something of a buzzword in books, articles, and especially on the internet. But what does the Jewishness of Jesus actually mean, and why is it important? This collection of articles aims to address those questions and serve as a comprehensive yet concise primer on the Jewish roots of the Christian faith. It consists of thirteen chapters, most of which are divided into four or five articles. It is in a handbook format, meaning that each article is brief but informative. The thirteen chapters are grouped into four major sections: 1. The Soil, 2. The Roots, 3. The Trunk, and 4. The Branches. Craig A. Evans, PhD, D.Hab., is the John Bisagno Distinguished Professor of Christian Origins at Houston Baptist University in Texas. He is a frequent contributor to scholarly journals and the author or editor of over seventy books. Evans resides in Houston, TX. David Mishkin, PhD, serves on the faculty of Israel College of the Bible in Netanya, Israel. He is the author of The Wisdom of Alfred Edersheim and Jewish Scholarship on the Resurrection of Jesus.

Encyclopedia of New Religious Movements Peter Clarke, 2004-03. An essential companion to both research and scholarship upon which undergraduates, postgraduates, lecturers, and researchers can all be expected to draw.

Christianity Made in India Roger E. Hedlund, 2017-10-01. Christianity Made in India: From Apostle Thomas to Mother Teresa discusses the indigenization of Christianity in the Indian context. It is set in the larger context of the exceptional growth of the church in the non-Western world during the twentieth century, which has been characterized by a diversity of localized cultural expressions. It recognizes that the center of Christian influence, numerically and theologically, is shifting southward to Africa, Latin America, and Asia. It affirms the reality that wherever the gospel goes, it takes root in the local culture.

The Early Israeli Settler Movement Jeffrey Kaplan, 2024-09-23 This book examines the religious intellectual and historical roots of the Israeli settlement movement through the lens of various strands of Zionism The book opens with a discussion of religious Zionism especially through the lens of the teachings of Rabbi Avraham Isaac Kook and his son Zvi Yehuda Kook The author notes the remarkable growth of a once marginal movement into a rapidly growing stream of Judaism highlighting its key role in the settlement project before and after the Six Day War in 1967 This is supplemented by an analysis of the role of political Zionism as embodied by key figures such as Theodor Herzl and David Ben Gurion who adapted it into a governing ethos after Independence in 1948 This section concludes with a consideration of the writings of Ahad Ha'am and the role of cultural Zionism The book then turns to an oral history of the 1967 war and the beginning of settlement which saw the emergence of key Gush founders Finally the book concludes with an extended discussion of Hebron from both Jewish and Palestinian perspectives first in 1929 and then in 1968 Offering new interpretations of Zionism as it impacts on the Israeli Palestinian conflict the book will appeal to students and researchers
