Authors And Audiences Authors And Audiences:

Authors, Audiences, and Old English Verse Thomas A. Bredehoft, 2009-01-01 Authors Audiences and Old English Verse re examines the Anglo Saxon poetic tradition from the eighth to the eleventh centuries and reconsiders the significance of formulaic parallels and the nature of poetic authorship in Old English Offering a new vision of much of Old English literary history Thomas A Bredehoft traces a tradition of literate formulaic composition in the period and contends that many phrases conventionally considered oral formulas are in fact borrowings or quotations His identification of previously unrecognized Old English poems and his innovative arguments about the dates places of composition influences and even possible authors for a variety of tenth and eleventh century poems illustrate that the failure of scholars to recognize the late Old English verse tradition has seriously hampered our literary understanding of the period Provocative and bold Authors Audiences and Old English Verse has the potential to transform modern understandings of the classical Old English poetic tradition Fictional Authors, Imaginary Audiences Bonnie S. McDougall, 2003 The authors and audiences for 20th century Chinese literature especially fiction are examined in a fresh light While modern Chinese fictions are imaginary in that they do not constitute reliable portraits of Chinese life they offer insights into the writers themselves and their implied audiences

Dictionary for Theological Interpretation of the Bible Kevin J. Vanhoozer, Craig G. Bartholomew, Daniel Treier, N.T. Wright, 2005-11-01 For the pastor or serious layperson the realm of biblical interpretation can be a confusing maze of personalities communities methods and theories This maze can often result in obscuring the main goal of interpreting Scripture hearing and knowing God better The Dictionary for Theological Interpretation of the Bible is a groundbreaking reference tool that introduces readers to key names theories and concepts in the field of biblical interpretation It discusses these approaches and evaluates their helpfulness in enabling Christians to hear what God is saying to the church through Scripture The contributors come from a variety of backgrounds and the dictionary covers a broad range of topics with both clarity and depth Ethnographic Artifacts Sjoerd R. Jaarsma, Marta

Rohatynskyj, 2000-06-01 Ethnographic Artifacts Challenges to a Reflexive Anthropology examines anthropological practice and product confronting issues of representation and the power of discourse in the lives and practice of both those doing research and of those being researched Using eight case studies by ethnographers who share extensive research experience in the Pacific the volume outlines the trouble with ethnography so representative of the end of this century where ethnography itself is perceived as a codification of contested relations Ethnographic Artifacts takes a unique approach to the social life of ethnography The editors identify three domains in which ethnographic artifacts are given meaning as text as object and as a historically contrived representation of the community in the public sphere By allowing that analysis of the life of ethnography is important in all three of these domains appreciation moves beyond narrow rhetorical and textual concerns The volume provides a multi faceted means for the reflexive understanding of the production distribution and reception of ethnography Its goal is not mere documentation but rather the assessment of the ethical dimensions of the discipline s practice in a globalizing world By melding ethical concerns with reflection on the text and the object itself Ethnographic Artifacts adds dimension to the now well established reflexive literature Contributors Niko Besnier Jonathan Friedman Michael Goldsmith Sjoerd R Jaarsma Grant McCall Mary N MacDonald Judith Macdonald Toon van Meijl Marta A Rohatynskyj Texts Jorge J. E. Gracia,1996-01-01 Provides an ontological characterization of texts explores the issues raised by the identity of various texts and presents a view of the function of authors and audiences and of their relations to texts
