Bidding Prayers 12 May 2013:

Leaders in the Shadows David Siegel, 2015-02-26 In most municipalities across Canada the top public servant is the chief administrative officer CAO or city manager Compared to elected politicians such as the mayor and the council the work of a CAO is often overlooked and not well understood In Leaders in the Shadows David Siegel brings the CAO into the limelight examining the leadership qualities of effective municipal managers Using the examples of five exceptional CAOs who have worked in municipalities of varying sizes across Canada Siegel identifies the leadership traits skills and behaviours which have made them successful Interweaving the stories of his subjects with insights drawn from leadership theory Siegel offers an engrossing account of how CAOs must lead up down and out in order to succeed Offering well rounded accounts of the challenges and opportunities faced by public servants at the municipal level Leaders in the Shadows is a valuable resource for academics and practitioners alike

Intercessions for Mass Mary Grace Melcher, 2013 Inspired by her daily contemplation and meditation on the Scriptures Carmelite Sister Mary Grace Melcher offers this book of deeply meaningful prayers of the faithful for every day of the year Cycles A B and C for Sundays and the two year cycle for weekdays are all included These beautiful intercessions echo the grace of the day indicated by the Scripture readings and have been prayed in her monastic community for years Enrich your community's liturgy with these beautiful and inspiring intercessions Mary Grace Melcher OCD is a cloistered Carmelite nun at the Carmelite Monastery of Terre Haute Indiana She has been a member there since 1981

Petitioners, Penitents, and Poets Timothy J. Sandoval, Ariel Feldman, 2020-10-26 This volume contributes to the growing interest in understanding the phenomenon of prayer and praying in the Hebrew Bible Early Judaism and nascent Christianity Papers by the leading scholars in these fields revisit long standing questions and chart new paths of inquiry into the nature form and practice of addressing the divine in the ancient world The essays in this volume deal with particular texts of and about prayer practices of prayer as well as figures and locations historical and literary that are associated with prayer and praying These studies apply a range of methods and theoretical approaches to prayer and the language of prayer in literatures of Early Judaism and Christianity Some studies apply the classical methods of biblical studies to Second Temple texts of prayer including form critical and text critical approaches others engage in literary and narrative analysis of ancient works that recount discourse directed to the divine Still other studies draw on anthropological and sociological analyses of prayer or marshal particular theories of discourse ethics and moral agency to offer fresh interpretations of address to God in the literature of Second Temple Judaism and earliest Christianity

Remembering the First World War Bart Ziino, 2014-12-05 Remembering the First World War brings together a group of international scholars to understand how and why the past quarter of a century has witnessed such an extraordinary increase in global popular and academic interest in the First World War both as an event and in the ways it is remembered The book discusses this phenomenon across three key areas The first section looks at family history genealogy and the First World War seeking to understand the power of family history in shaping and reshaping remembrance of the War at the smallest levels as well as popular media and the continuing role of the state and its agencies The second part discusses practices of remembering and the more public forms of representation and negotiation through film literature museums monuments and heritage sites focusing on agency in representing and remembering war The third section covers the return of the War and the increasing determination among individuals to acknowledge and participate in public rituals of remembrance with their own contemporary politics What for instance does it mean to wear a poppy on armistice remembrance day How do symbols like this operate today These chapters will investigate these aspects through a series of case studies Placing remembrance of the First World War in its longer historical and broader transnational context and including illustrations and an afterword by Professor David Reynolds this is the ideal book for all those interested in the history of the Great War and its aftermath

Kimberly'S Hmmmings Kimberly McGary,2015-07-13 Join Kimberly as she journeys through the difficulties of breast cancer Be strengthened as she shares the encouragement God gives each day Kimberly graduated from the University of Missouri St Louis with a B A degree in Communications and holds a Certificate in Writing She finds joy in sharing Gods faithfulness in the counseling ministry of her church She and Ellie May her beloved rescued Rottweiler became a certified touch therapy team and made visits to nursing homes and hospitals The most unique individual Christian woman I have ever met is Kimberly McGary Despite adversity which would destroy the average person she thrives on difficulties disappointments and illness as a manifestation that her Heavenly Father is preparing her to serve Him After giving an update of her physical and mental condition Kimberly shares with a joyful positive spirit the Scripture promises that encouraged and sustained her Dr Curtis T Porter Transitional Pastor and Marriage and Family Counselor Kimberly McGary has beautifully and honestly recorded her thoughts as she has experienced the pain suffering and questions that come from battling cancer Her deep faith in God is an inspiration and encouragement to all who know her and it will inspire all who read her story of trusting God Dr Charles McLain Senior Pastor First Baptist Church of Festus Crystal City The Other Air Force Matt Sienkiewicz,2016-10 As it seeks to win the hearts and minds of citizens in the Muslim world the United States has poured millions of dollars into local television and radio programming hoping to generate pro American currents on Middle Eastern airwaves However as this fascinating new book shows the Middle Eastern media producers who rely on these funds are hardly puppets on an American string but instead contribute their own political and creative agendas while working within U S restrictions The Other Air Force gives readers a unique inside look at television and radio production in Afghanistan and the Palestinian territories from the isolated villages of the Afghan Panjshir Valley to the congested streets of Ramallah Communications scholar Matt Sienkiewicz explores how the U S takes a soft psy approach to its media efforts combining soft methods of encouraging entertainment programming such as adaptations of The Voice and The Apprentice with more militaristic psy ops approaches to information control Drawing from years of field research and interviews with everyone from millionaire executives to underpaid but ever resourceful cameramen Sienkiewicz considers the perspectives of the Afghan and Palestinian media workers trying to forge viable broadcasting businesses without straying outside American set boundaries for acceptable content As it carefully examines the interplay of U S military and economic might with the capacity for local ingenuity and resistance the book also analyzes the intriguingly complex programming that emerges from this tension Combining eyewitness reportage with cutting edge scholarship The Other Air Force reveals the remarkable creative output that can emerge even from the world s tensest conflict zones

A Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels James Hastings, 2004-10

The purpose of this dictionary is to give an account of everything that relates to Christ His Person Life Work and Teaching It is in a sense complementary to the Dictionary of the Bible in which of course Christ has a great place But a dictionary of the Bible being occupied mainly with things biographical historical geographical or antiquarian does not give attention to the things of Christ sufficient for the needs of the preacher to whom Christ is everything This is first of all a preacher s dictionary The authors of the articles have been carefully chosen from among those scholars who are or have been themselves preachers And even when the articles have the same titles as articles in the Dictionary of the Bible they are written by new men and from a new standpoint It is thus a work which is quite distinct from and altogether independent of the Dictionary of the Bible It is called a Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels because it includes everything that the Gospels contain whether directly related to Christ or not Its range however is far greater than that of the Gospels It seeks to cover all that relates to Christ throughout the Bible and in the life and literature of the world There will be articles on the Patristic estimate of Jesus the Medieval estimate the Reformation and Modern estimates There will be articles on Christ in the Jewish writings and in the Muslim literature Much attention has been given to modern thought whether Christian or anti Christian Every aspect of modern life in so far as it touches or is touched by Christ is described under its proper title James Hastings 1852 1922 was a distinguished scholar and pastor He was founder and editor of the Expository Times and is also well known for editing the five volume Dictionary of the Bible as well as the Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics the Dictionary of Christ and the Gospels and the Dictionary of the Apostolic Church
