The Politics of Knowledge Patrick Baert, Fernando Domínguez Rubio, 2013-03-01 Social scientists often refer to contemporary advanced societies as knowledge societies which indicates the extent to which science knowledge and knowledge production have become fundamental phenomena in Western societies and central concerns for the social sciences This book aims to investigate the political dimension of this production and validation of knowledge In studying the relationship between knowledge and politics this book provides a novel perspective on current debates about knowledge societies and offers an interdisciplinary agenda for future research It addresses four fundamental aspects of the relation between knowledge and politics the ways in which the nature of the knowledge we produce affects the nature of political activity how the production of knowledge calls into question fundamental political categories how the production of knowledge is governed and managed how the new technologies of knowledge produce new forms of political action This book will be of interest to students of sociology political science cultural studies and science and technology studies

Towards a Liberatory Epistemology Deborah K. Heikes, 2019-05-06 This book offers a compelling examination of our moral and epistemic obligations to be reasonable people who seek to understand the social reality of those who are different from us Considering the oppressive aspects of socially constructed ignorance Heikes argues that ignorance produces both injustice and epistemic repression before going on to explore how our moral and epistemic obligations to be understanding and reasonable can overcome the negative effects of ignorance Through the combination of three separate areas of philosophical interest ignorance understanding and reasonableness Heikes seeks to find a way to correct for epistemological and moral injustices satisfying needs in feminist theory and critical race theory for an epistemology that offers hope of overcoming the ethical problem of oppression

Colonialist Gazes and Counternarratives of Blackness Ana León-Távora, Rosalía Cornejo-Parriego, 2024-06-24 Building on the growing field of Afropean Studies this interdisciplinary and intermedial collection of essays proposes a dialogue on Afro Spanishness that is not exclusively tied to immigration and that understands Blackness as a non essentialist heterogeneous and diasporic concept Studying a variety of twentieth and twenty first century cultural products some essays explore the resilience of the colonialist paradigms and the circulation of racial ideologies and colonial memories that promote national narratives of whitening Others focus on Black self representation and examine how Afro Spanish authors artists and activists destabilize colonial gazes and constructions of national identity propose decolonial views of Spain and Europe s literature and history articulate Afro Diasporic knowledges and envision Afro descendance as an empowering tool

The Female Turn Malin Ah-King, 2023-01-04 This book traces the history of how evolutionary biology transformed its understanding of females from being coy reserved and sexually passive to having active sexual strategies and often mating with multiple males Why did it take so long to discover female active sexual strategies What prevented some researchers from engaging in sexually active females and what prompted others to develop this new knowledge The Female Turn provides a global overview of shifting perceptions about females in sexual selection research on a wide range of animals from invertebrates to primates Evolutionary biologist and feminist science scholar Malin Ah King explores this history from a unique interdisciplinary vantage point Based on extensive knowledge of the scientific literature on sexual selection and in depth interviews with leading researchers pioneers and feminist scientists in the field her analysis engages with key theoretical approaches in gender studies of science Analyzing the researchers scientific interests theoretical frameworks specific study animals technological innovations methodologies and sometimes feminist insights reveals how these have shaped conclusions drawn about sex Thereby The Female Turn shows how certain researchers gained knowledge about active females whereas others missed ignored or delayed it that is how ignorance was produced A Modern Guide to Knowledge Francisco J. Carrillo, 2022-11-18 Outlining an integrative theory of knowledge Francisco Javier Carrillo explores how to understand the underlying behavioural basis of the knowledge economy and society Chapters highlight the notion that unless a knowledge based value creation and distribution paradigm is globally adopted the possibilities for integration between a sustainable biosphere and a viable economy are small The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science Sharon Crasnow, Kristen Intemann, 2020-11-30 The Routledge Handbook of Feminist Philosophy of Science is a comprehensive resource for feminist thinking about and in the sciences Its 33 chapters were written exclusively for this Handbook by a group of leading international philosophers as well as scholars in gender studies women s studies psychology economics and political science The chapters of the Handbook are organized into four main parts I Hidden Figures and Historical Critique II Theoretical Frameworks III Key Concepts and Issues IV Feminist Philosophy of Science in Practice The chapters in this extensive fourth part examine the relevance of feminist philosophical thought for a range of scientific and professional disciplines including biology and biomedical sciences psychology cognitive science and neuroscience the social sciences physics and public policy The Handbook gives a snapshot of the current state of feminist philosophy of science allowing students and other newcomers to get up to speed quickly in the subfield and providing a handy reference for many different kinds of researchers Justice in the Age of Agnosis James Gacek, Richard Jochelson, 2024-05-18 This book seeks to further the understanding of the human experience of coerced and forced ignorance on social human rights and criminal justice related topics drawing together scholars from multiple disciplinary fronts It argues that people in our social world are forced or coerced through either implicatory or interpretive denial that is normalized through specific cultural and social mechanisms by which we refer to this as non knowledge or agnosis There has also been a lack of scholarship which examines how human victimization and power intersects by and through the systematic orchestration of forced ignorance and doubt upon daily human life This book s focus is an examination of the ways in which people find themselves in social spaces without empirical clarity and understand that absence as satisfaction stability or perhaps even pleasure It discusses a range of topics including for example people s sense of relative safety despite empirical realities suggesting otherwise This book seeks to make visible the role of ignorance in governing society highlighting how the late modern human experience in a post World War II human rights era subsumes subverts and sublimates the complex relationship between knowledge and denial the empirical gulf between knowledge and resistance may indeed breed complicit bliss Histories of the Dustheap Stephanie Foote, Elizabeth Mazzolini, 2012 An examination of how garbage reveals the relationships between the global and the local the economic and the ecological and the historical and the contemporary Garbage considered both materially and culturally elicits mixed responses Our responsibility toward the objects we love and then discard is entangled with our responsibility toward the systems that make those objects Histories of the Dustheap uses garbage waste and refuse to investigate the relationships between various systems the local and the global the economic and the ecological the historical and the contemporary and shows how this most democratic reality produces identities social relations and policies The contributors first consider garbage in subjective terms examining toxic autobiography by residents of Love Canal the intersection of public health and women s rights and enviroblogging They explore the importance of place with studies of post Katrina soil contamination in New Orleans e waste disposal in Bloomington Indiana and garbage on Mount Everest And finally they look at cultural contradictions as objects hover between waste and desirability examining Milwaukee s efforts to sell its sludge as fertilizer the plastics industry s attempt to wrap plastic bottles and bags in the mantle of freedom of choice and the idea of obsolescence in the animated film The Brave Little Toaster Histories of the Dustheap offers a range of perspectives on a variety of incarnations of garbage inviting the reader to consider garbage in a way that goes beyond the common buy green discourse that empowers individuals while limiting environmental activism to consumerist practices
