Thinking in Action George Arabatzis, Evangelos D. Protopapadakis, 2018-08-11 Action can only be spontaneous and impulsive if not guided by contemplation; contemplation on the other hand may only be luxurious playfulness if not either purposed or suitable to motivate action. This volume seeks to prove what may seem self-evident to common sense but adhering to common sense is never pointless nor excessive. Next to this Thinking in Action is the offspring of friendship, respect and commitment between two academic communities: the Hellenic and the Serbian philosophical communities that admittedly have a lot in common, especially with regard to philosophy and hopefully as many differences as needed in order to secure a long-lasting and fertile exchange of ideas. It is also the natural-born child of necessity: philosophy is about argumentation, debate and confrontation. Thinking in Action inaugurates the Hellenic-Serbian Philosophical Dialogue Series that entertains no hesitation in being as ambitious as any philosophical series could be: it seeks to establish a permanent wide and rich channel of fruitful philosophical interaction between the two philosophical communities. Having high aspirations is one thing; meeting these aspirations as well as the expectations of the reader is a totally different one. We wish Thinking in Action, the first volume of the Hellenic-Serbian Philosophical Dialogue Series, apart from being the initial step of a long journey, will also be a fascinating one to the reader.
