Being Colonized Jan Vansina, 2010-03-18 What was it like to be colonized by foreigners Highlighting a region in central Congo in the center of sub Saharan Africa Being Colonized places Africans at the heart of the story In a richly textured history that will appeal to general readers and students as well as to scholars the distinguished historian Jan Vansina offers not just accounts of colonial administrators missionaries and traders but the varied voices of a colonized people Vansina uncovers the history revealed in local news customs gossip and even dreams as related by African villagers through archival documents material culture and oral interviews Vansina's case study of the colonial experience is the realm of Kuba a kingdom in Congo about the size of New Jersey and two thirds the size of its colonial master Belgium The experience of its inhabitants is the story of colonialism from its earliest manifestations to its tumultuous end What happened in Kuba happened to varying degrees throughout Africa and other colonized regions racism economic exploitation indirect rule Christian conversion modernization disease and healing and transformations in gender relations The Kuba like others took their own active part in history responding to the changes and calamities that colonization set in motion Vansina follows the region's inhabitants from the late nineteenth century to the middle of the twentieth century when a new elite emerged on the eve of Congo's dramatic passage to independence

The Palgrave Handbook of Christianity in Africa from Apostolic Times to the Present Andrew Eugene Barnes, Toyin Falola, 2024-03-07 This comprehensive Handbook provides chapter length surveys of the history of Christian missions and Christian churches on the African continent since the time of Christ Africa is rapidly becoming the most Christianized region of the world While common narratives about Christianity tend to present Christianity as a set of ideas and beliefs imposed on Africa from the outside such narratives hold little meaning for African Christians or for those seeking to understand Christianity in Africa as an indigenous faith The aim of the Handbook is to propose a set of scholarly starting points for a new set of narratives The chapters collected here communicate an idea of Christianity as it has been embraced among African peoples at particular historical moments It therefore grants voice to the various strands of African Christianity on their own terms and offers scholarly study of what these voices teach us about how the world's most adhered to religion is practiced and understood on the continent of Africa

Authentically African Sarah Van Beurden, 2015-11-25 Together the Royal Museum for Central Africa in Tervuren Belgium and the Institut des Musées Nationaux du Zaïre IMNZ in the Congo have defined and marketed Congolese art and culture In Authentically African Sarah Van Beurden traces the relationship between the possession definition and display of art and the construction of cultural authenticity and political legitimacy from the late colonial until the postcolonial era Her study of the interconnected histories of these two institutions is the first history of an art museum in Africa and the only work of its kind in English Drawing on Flemish language sources other scholars have been unable to access Van Beurden illuminates the politics of museum collections showing how the IMNZ became a showpiece in Mobutu's effort to revive authentic African culture She reconstructs debates between Belgian and Congolese museum professionals revealing how the dynamics of decolonization played out in the fields of the museum and international heritage conservation Finally she casts light on the art market showing how the traveling displays put on by the IMNZ helped intensify collectors interest and generate an international market for Congolese art The book contributes to the fields of history art history museum studies and anthropology and challenges existing narratives of Congo's decolonization It tells a new history of decolonization as a struggle over cultural categories the possession of cultural heritage and the right to define and represent cultural identities 2010 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2014-12-12 Every year the Bibliography catalogues the most important new publications historiographical monographs and journal articles throughout the world extending from prehistory and ancient history to the most recent contemporary historical studies Within the systematic classification according to epoch region and historical discipline works are also listed according to author's name and characteristic keywords in their title A Higher Mission Kimberly D. Hill, 2020-10-15 In this vital transnational study Kimberly D Hill critically analyzes the colonial history of central Africa through the perspective of two African American missionaries Alonzo Edmiston and Althea Brown Edmiston The pair met and fell in love while working as a part of the American Presbyterian Congo Mission an operation which aimed to support the people of the Congo Free State suffering forced labor and brutal abuses under Belgian colonial governance They discovered a unique kinship amid the country's growing human rights movement and used their familiarity with industrial education popularized by Booker T Washington's Tuskegee Institute as a way to promote Christianity and offer valuable services to local people From 1902 through 1941 the Edmistons designed their mission projects to promote community building to value local resources and to incorporate the perspectives of the African participants They focused on childcare teaching translation construction and farming ministries that required constant communication with their Kuba neighbors Hill concludes with an analysis of how the Edmistons pedagogy influenced government sponsored industrial schools in the Belgian Congo through the 1950s A Higher Mission illuminates not only the work of African American missionaries who are often overlooked and under studied but also the transnational implications of black education in the South Significantly Hill also addresses the role of black foreign missionaries in the early civil rights movement an argument that suggests an underexamined connection between earlier nineteenth century Pan Africanisms and activism in the interwar era The Publishers Weekly, 2010
