Belarus Background And Us Policy Concerns:

Belarus Steven Woehrel,2011-05 Belarusian Pres Aleksandr Lukashenko snuffed out Belarus s modest progress toward democracy and a free market economy in the early 1990s and created an authoritarian Soviet style regime Belarus has close historical and cultural ties to Russia Current Russian policy toward Belarus appears to be focused on gaining control of Belarus s economic assets while reducing the costs of subsidizing the Belarusian economy For many years the U S limited ties to the regime while providing modest support to pro democracy org in Belarus Contents of this report Intro Political and Economic Situation Relations with Russia NATO the European Union and Belarus U S Policy This is a print on demand edition of an important hard to find publication

Neighbourhood Policy and the Construction of the European External Borders Filippo Celata,Raffaella Coletti,2015-06-11 This book looks both backward and forward with regard to the European Union s political strategies towards its neighbouring countries By bringing together the perspectives of critical geopolitics policy studies and border studies it presents a comprehensive review of the European Neighbourhood Policy and how it impacts the ongoing construction of the EU s external frontiers Is the EU committed to promoting integration in a wider European space or is a fortress Europe emerging where the strengthening of internal cohesion is coupled with the militarisation of its external borders The book aims to problematize this question by showing how the EU s external policies are based on a mixture of openness and closure inclusion and exclusion cooperation and securitisation The European Neighbourhood Policy is a controversial strategy where regionalization and bordering homogenisations and differentiations centrifugal and centripetal forces proceed side by side in an explicit attempt to construct a selective mobile and fragmented border A specific focus is devoted to the diversity of geo strategies the EU is pursuing in its neighbouring countries and regions macro regional strategies and cross border cooperation initiatives as new scales of cooperation and the role of other global players

NATO's Democratic Retrenchment Henrik B.L. Larsen,2019-07-02 Exploring NATO s post Cold War determination to support democracy abroad this book addresses the alliance s adaptation to the new illiberal backlashes in Eastern Europe the Western Balkans and Afghanistan after the alleged return of history The book engages the question of what has driven NATO to pursue democratisation in face of the significant region specific challenges and what can explain policy expansion or retrenchment over time Explaining NATO s adaptation from the perspective of power dynamics that push for international change and historical experience that informs grand strategy allows wider inferences not only about democratisation as a foreign policy strategy but also about the nature of the transatlantic alliance and its relations with a mostly illiberal environment Larsen offers a theoretical conception of NATO as a patchwork of one hegemonic and several great power interests that converge or diverge in the formulation of common policy as opposed to NATO as a community of universal values This volume will appeal to researchers of transatlantic relations NATO's functional and geographical expansion hegemony and great power politics democracy promotion lessons of the past Neoclassical Realism alliance theory and the crisis of the liberal world order

The Despot's Accomplice Brian Klaas, 2018-05-01 For the first time since the end of the Cold War the world is steadily becoming less democratic The true culprits are dictators and counterfeit democrats But argues Klaas the West is also an accomplice inadvertently assaulting pro democracy forces abroad as governments in Washington London and Brussels chase pyrrhic short term economic and security victories Friendly fire from Western democracies against democracy abroad is too high a price to pay for a myopic foreign policy that is ultimately making the world less prosperous stable and democratic The Despot's Accomplice draws on years of extensive interviews on the frontlines of the global struggle for democracy from a poetry reading politician kidnapping general in Madagascar to Islamist torture victims in Tunisia Belarusian opposition activists tailed by the KGB West African rebels and tea sipping members of the Thai junta Cumulatively their stories weave together a tale of a broken system at the root of democracy's global retreat

Bandwagoning in International Relations: China, Russia, and Their

Neighbors Dylan Motin, 2024-04-02 Whether states balance against or bandwagon with threatening great powers remains an unsolved problem for international relations theory One school argues that military power compels minor powers to accommodate threats while another defends that it elicits balancing instead With the emergence of potential hegemon in both Asia and Europe namely China and Russia understanding state alignment is more urgent than ever This book shows that bandwagoning has been a rare choice in contemporary Asia and Europe The only states that chose bandwagoning with China or Russia faced both conflicts with third rivals and low levels of U S assistance Going further I divide bandwagoning between full alignment survival accommodation and profit accommodation Bandwagoners choose among these three options based on the severity of the threat posed by the potential hegemon the intensity of third conflicts and the level of U S assistance I test this novel theory against three European Armenia Belarus and Serbia and four Asian Cambodia Myanmar North Korea and Pakistan cases This study is the first to provide an exhaustive and compelling explanation of bandwagoning fully compatible with neorealism and adds to the balancing bandwagoning debate Beyond scholarly implications this research s findings offer advice for policymakers concerned with the changing balance of power in Asia and Europe and how to counter China and Russia s influence
