Mercadante, 2014-04 A dramatic rise in none individuals without religious affiliation has taken place in less than two decades Many of these people are seekers who self identify as spiritual but not religious SBNR In Belief without Borders theologian Linda Mercadante once an SBNR herself sets out to find them and let them speak for themselves Being Spiritual but Not Religious William B. Parsons, 2018-05-30 In its most general sense the term Spiritual but Not Religious denotes those who on the one hand are disillusioned with traditional institutional religion and on the other hand feel that those same traditions contain deep wisdom about the human condition This edited collection speaks to what national surveys agree is a growing social phenomenon referred to as the Spiritual but Not Religious Movement SBNRM Each essay of the volume engages the past present and future s of the SBNRM Their collective contribution is analytic descriptive and prescriptive taking stock of not only the various analyses of the SBNRM to date but also the establishment of a new ground upon which the continued academic discussion can take place This volume is a watershed in the growing academic and public interest in the SBNRM As such it will vital reading for any academic involved in Religious Studies Spirituality and Sociology The Seeking Heart Ian Mobsby, 2025-01-28 In the contemporary church the word mission has become synonymous with pace expansion and results Yet such an approach can often leave those with responsibilities in mission or ministry feeling exhausted and overwhelmed Not only that but mission which focuses on the rapid and the growing fails to recognise the rich resources the more contemplative Christian traditions can offer our post secular society and especially those who would call themselves spiritual but not religious Cries from the Wilderness David Pocka, 2023-12-06 One of the most prevalent challenges in contemporary Christianity is navigating the relationship between the individual and their faith community when the Christian enters spiritually challenging times periods of aridity misunderstanding suffering or darkness This problem is amplified because of the growing angst that many feel with organized religion When loyalty to the church gets tested during a personal faith crisis or honest intellectual query many leave disenchanted claiming a desire to be spiritual but not religious Cries from the Wilderness Reimagining Church Culture in an Age of Uncertainty explores the memoirs of three contemporary sojourners Rachel Held Evans David Gushee and Macy Halford asking What postures were common in his or her journey that helped them navigate their spiritual wilderness David Pocka then argues that a primary problem is that many faith communities rarely see themselves in the spiritual wilderness The author s contention is that spiritual communities are often ill equipped to nurture the spiritual life of disoriented or questioning Christians By acknowledging their own spiritual journey and drawing lessons from healthy wilderness postures

they would be better positioned to transform and mature their community while creating a nurturing environment for individual sojourners

Finding God Among our Neighbors, Volume 2 Kristin Johnston Largen, 2017-02-01 For too many students Christian theology is learned in isolation from other religions traditions With this the second volume of her important work Kristin Johnston Largen returns to expand the systematic theology she began in the original volume Largen places the work of Christian theology soundly within the interreligious dialogue that is the defining feature of our time In doing so she prepares students of theology for the task of understanding and articulating their Christian beliefs in the context of a religiously and culturally diverse world In the original volume Largen focused her work on three loci God Creation and Humanity In this second volume she expands the project to include salvation the Church and the Holy Spirit As before each locus is set within the broader context of interreligious dialogue by considering how the varied beliefs of the world's religious traditions inform our understanding of our own tradition This volume explores indigenous religions Sikhism Confucianism and Daoism in particular

Transforming Chaplaincy Steve Nolan, Annelieke Damen, 2021-10-28 Evidence based medicine has transformed contemporary medical practice For over twenty five years George Fitchett has been a pioneering advocate of the view that evidence based spiritual care can and should equally transform chaplaincy This book collects a key selection from his ground breaking research As models of good research practice these papers demonstrate the real world value of research and introduce their readers to issues that have continuing importance to spiritual care and professional chaplaincy As such this collection offers an ideal introduction to spiritual care research The collection is complemented by three essays specially commissioned from observers well positioned to comment on future directions for both professional chaplaincy and spiritual care research

Spirituality in the Selfie Culture of Instagram Petra P. Sebek, 2019-03-22 This explorative study of personal spiritual expressions on Instagram generated important data in relation to the emerging field of cyberspirituality and showed the need for further development and research The book reveals several forms of spirituality present on Instagram mainly belonging to secular spirituality Many spiritual practices emerged in posts from all over the world demonstrated through photography as spiritual practice The Internet and social media in particular present an opportunity for individuals and communities to develop spiritual narrative when communicating online especially with young people who are more likely to express themselves as spiritual but not religious Spiritual authenticity on social media as a part of building spiritual capital is an important step

Reimagining God and Resacralisation Alexa Blonner, 2019-05-14 This book shows that widespread resacralisation has been taking place which is producing new ways of perceiving God and the divine The last century has seen unmistakable changes in religious practices and the concept of spirituality right across the world There was a broad expectation for much of the twentieth century that religious worldviews would eventually succumb to the challenge of secularist materialism but this process of secularisation has yet to occur as predicted The book begins by contrasting theories of secularisation and resacralisation Throughout the book conceptual threads or new religious themes related to this resacralisation are discussed in terms of three main categories reimagining God's nature substance and location reimagining human value and purpose and reimagining modes of redemption Finally the book considers how these threads are moving in various different directions and what the religious future might hold This is a bold examination of contemporary spirituality that will appeal to academics and scholars of religious studies new religious movements and the sociology of religion

Contemporary Spiritualities Stefania Palmisano, Nicola Pannofino, 2020-11-01

Contemporary alternative spirituality as studied by sociologists is usually seen as a recent phenomenon dating from the 1960s and 1970s However when viewed from a longer term perspective this form of religious expression is actually seen to reintroduce concepts that recur throughout Western cultural history This book argues therefore that spirituality in the 21st Century actually shares many of the same characteristics as Classical Mediaeval Renaissance and Modern spiritualities It is neither entirely new nor is it clearly alternative to more established religions The book is divided into two parts The first sets out the context in which contemporary alternative spirituality has formed charting its development as an academic term and a social phenomenon The second part looks at how these two elements have developed in countries that are historically Catholic focussing on specific examples in contemporary Italy spiritualities based on the sacralisation of nature those concerned with health and wellbeing and those which are fascinated by mystery Catholic majority countries are particularly interesting in this instance as the Catholic Church has a unique cultural hegemony with which to compare alternative spiritual practices It concludes that spirituality if framed in a longer historical perspective is a way of acting and seeing the world which was built and continues to be built upon complex relations with various contradictory sources of authority such as religion magic thinking secularism rationalism various spheres of lay culture This is a bold take on the spirituality milieu and as such will be of great interest to scholars of Religious Studies working on the sociology of religion contemporary spirituality and the rise of the spiritual but not religious
