Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition Jane Anderson, 2016-05-20 Innovative Catholicism and the Human Condition gives an anthropological account of a progressive religious movement in the Roman Catholic Church that is attempting to reconcile religious conviction and reason and ergo modify the human condition Investigation is given to a representative group of this movement Innovative Catholics who are endeavouring to maintain the momentum for change which began in the 1960s and 1970s They now find themselves caught between traditional notions of religion and a secularised society while trying to reconcile these polarising forces to find a pathway forward While ethnographic fieldwork for this research was conducted in Australia this movement is to be found across the Western world The research is framed by the question posed by Jürgen Habermas who asks whether the democratic constitutional state is able to renew itself and recognises a benefit in learning from religion Cardinal Joseph Ratzinger subsequently Pope Benedict XVI responds by asserting the need for a common ethical basis and limits on reason This latter position however remains problematic for Innovative Catholics who are conscious of history and culture The research explores how Innovative Catholics who in taking the middle position inform this dialectic on secularization through their ideas and practices about the human condition

The York Mystery Plays Margaret Rogerson, 2011 Essays on the York Mystery Plays uniting voices from the scholarly world with the York community that has assumed responsibility for their production today The York Play of Corpus Christi also known as the York Cycle has been central to the study of early English theatre for over a century and a touchstone for the revival of medieval dramatic practice for over fifty years But these two endeavours have often found little common ground This volume therefore accomplishes something very important It brings together scholars of medieval English drama and places them in dialogue with experienced practitioners from the community Together they share a common commitment to understanding how performances matter to the communities that produce them and how plays intersect with other public activities CAROL SYMES Professor of History University of Illinois at Urbana This volume provides a wealth of new insights into the performance of mystery plays in medieval York and their modern revival It utilises both academic study and the practical experience of those who now produce the cycle within York itself on wagons in the street in an approximation of their original performance A number of topics are covered The manuscript is linked to Richard III the Masons are introduced as non guildsmen in an enterprise assumed to be guild specific families not just male heads of households are shown to be important to the dramatic narrative and cognitive theory elucidates performance past and present Recent productions are discussed in lively detail by those directly responsible for them leading to analyses of performances in Israel Spain and Australia not all of them of a predictable kind which offer further angles on the medieval dramatic tradition Professor Margaret Rogerson teaches in the Department of English at the University of Sydney Contributors Margaret Rogerson Keith Jones Richard Beadle Sheila K Christie Mike Tyler Jill Stevenson Elenid Davies Ben Pugh Peter Brown Tony Wright Steve Bielby Emma Cunningham Alan Heaven Linda Ali Paul Toy Gweno Williams John Merrylees David Richmond Alexandra F Johnston Sharon Aronson Lehavi Pamela M King Res Gestae - Things Done Naida Haxton AM,2016-10-25 Feminist catch cries of the mid 1900s included invocations for freedom of choice and equality with men Res Gestae is a collection of memorabilia by one woman of that era who eschewed the prevailing mantras by choosing to do those things which not only produced an illustrious career in the law but also a full interesting and rewarding life in amongst and with both men and women Judgment Day Paul Collins,2014-07-30 European Theatre Performance Practice, 1400-1580 Philip Butterworth,2017-03-02 This volume brings together important records of medieval theatre practice between 1400 and 1580 The records are drawn from a wide range of spheres including civic ecclesiastical trade and guild records and consist of payments for materials techniques and services also included are some eye witness accounts Alongside these records is a selection of the best contemporary research conducted into medieval performance practice which features ground breaking analysis and challenges current understanding knowledge and authority in this field These contributions of rigorous scholarship complement and support the work of the well known Records of Early English Drama project and help to further illuminate contemporary fifteenth and early sixteenth century theatre performance practice

Journal of the Australian Catholic Historical Society. Volume 39 (2018) ATF Press,2018-12-31 This volume focuses on Catholic Church history in Australia by looking at certain figures Archdeacon John McEencroe Lwesi Harding Bishop Chalres Henry Davis Cardonal Gilroy as well as themes Catholic Social Justice and parliamentary politics humanae vitae and Tridentine clericalism and the emergence of Catholic education offices Being Catholic in the Contemporary Philippines Jayeel Serrano Cornelio,2016-06-23 This book based on extensive original research examines the nature of Catholicism in the contemporary Philippines It shows how Catholicism is apparently flourishing with good attendance at Sunday Masses impressive religious processions and flourishing charismatic groups and with interventions by the Catholic hierarchy in national and local politics However focusing in particular on the beliefs and practices of young people the book shows that young people are often adopting a different more individualised approach to Catholicism which is frequently out of step with the official position It considers the features of this a more personal and experiential relationship with God a new approach to morality in which right living is seen as more important than right believing and a critical view of what is seen as the Catholic hierarchy's misguidedness The book argues that this reinterpreting of religion by young people has the potential to alter fundamentally the nature of Catholicism in the Philippines but that nevertheless young people's new approach involves a solid enduring commitment and a strong view of their own Catholic religious identity
