Belle Creole Folio French Edition:

La Belle Créole Alina García-Lapuerta, 2014-09-01 La Belle Créole re-creates the dramatic story of Cuba's earliest female author the adventurous 19th century countess nicknamed La Belle Créole María de las Mercedes Santa Cruz y Montalvo or Mercedes and later the Comtesse Merlin Alina García-Lapuerta draws from Mercedes' memoirs and letters and contemporary accounts to bring to life this Havana-born aristocrat who was years ahead of her time as a writer, socialite, salon host and participant in the Cuban slavery debate. Eventually celebrated on both sides of the Atlantic at age 13, headstrong young Mercedes was shipped off to live with her glamorous mother in Spain. Though political chaos blanketed Europe, Mercedes triumphed, charming aristocrats from all sides with her beauty and singing voice. She married General Merlin in Napoleon's army, watched her mother have an intimate affair with Joseph Bonaparte and discussed painting with Goya. Arriving in Paris after the French defeat, Mercedes, one of the greatest amateur sopranos of her day, hosted the city's premier musical salon where Liszt, Rossini and great divas performed for Rothschilds, Balzac and royalty. Increasingly, she turned to her memoirs and travel writings, which have recently been rediscovered and scholars agree deserve a place in the canon of Latin American literature. Alina García-Lapuerta was born in Cuba and travels frequently to Miami and Cuba, retaining strong ties with her Cuban-based family and the Cuban American community. She holds a bachelor's degree in international economics from Georgetown University and a master's degree in international relations from Tufts University. She lives in London. Maryse Condé, a Writer for Our Times Madeleine Dobie, Kaiama L. Glover, 2022-01-04 A diverse interdisciplinary collection of essays exploring what makes Maryse Condé a writer for our times. In 2018 the New Academy selected Guadeloupean writer, scholar and teacher of literature Maryse Condé as the recipient of the 2018 Alternative Nobel Prize in Literature. This volume of Yale French Studies examines Condé's work and legacy, exploring why a diverse group of journalists, critics and lay readers selected her as the writer most deserving of the prize. Varied in their themes, forms and disciplinary groundings, the essays consider how Condé's novels, plays, essays and memoirs have engaged with many of the urgent social, economic and political issues of the late twentieth and twenty-first centuries, often anticipating and catalyzing public debates. Written by scholars from Africa, the Antilles, South America, France and the United States, the essays consider Condé's unique voice and the ways in which her writing speaks to readers all over the world, making her a writer for our times. *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
