Breeding Bin Ladens America Islam And The Future Of Europe:

Breeding Bin Ladens Zachary Shore, 2006-10-15 Outstanding Academic Title for 2007 Choice Magazine While American leaders wage war on extremists in the Middle East they are dangerously detached from a potentially greater threat closer to home In Breeding Bin Ladens Zachary Shore asserts that the growing ambivalence of Europe's Muslims poses risks to national identities international security and the transatlantic alliance Europe's failure to integrate its Muslim millions combined with America's battered image in the Muslim world have left too many Western Muslims easy prey for violent dogmas Until America and Europe adopt new strategies Shore argues Europe will increasingly become the incubation ground for breeding new Bin Ladens The United States continues to spend billions of dollars and lose thousands of its young men and women to combat Islamic extremists a group estimated to be as small as fifty thousand What Western leaders have not done says Shore is seek to understand the millions of moderate Muslims who live peacefully in the United States and Europe Many in this extraordinarily diverse group are deeply ambivalent toward perceived Western values Although they may admire America's economic or technological might many are appalled by its crass consumerism sexualization of women lack of social justice and foreign policies Shore taps into this oft ignored perspective through in depth interviews with Muslims living across the European Union He gives voice to people of deep faith who speak of the conflict between their desire to integrate into their adopted societies and the repulsion they feel toward some of what the West represents Shore offers a deeply nuanced and hopeful consideration of Islam's future in the West Cautioning Western leaders against an anti terrorist tunnel vision that could ultimately backfire Shore proposes bold creative and controversial solutions for attracting the hearts and minds of moderate Muslims living in the West

Breeding Bin Ladens Zachary Shore, 2006-10-15 A look into the state of Islam in Europe and the threat posed by excluding moderate Muslims in Western society While American leaders wage war with extremists in the Middle East they are ignoring a greater threat closer to home In Breeding Bin Ladens Zachary Shore asserts that the growing ambivalence of Europe's Muslims poses risks to national identities international security and the transatlantic alliance Europe's failure to integrate its Muslim millions and America's battered image in the Muslim world have left too many Western Muslims easy prey for violent dogmas Until America and Europe adopt new strategies Shore argues Europe will increasingly become the incubation ground for breeding new Bin Ladens The United States continues to spend billions and lose thousands of soldiers to combat Islamic extremists a group estimated to be as small as fifty thousand Meanwhile Western leaders have not sought to understand the millions of moderate Muslims who live peacefully in the United States and Europe Many in this extraordinarily diverse group are deeply ambivalent toward perceived Western values Although they may admire America's economic or technological might many are appalled by its crass consumerism sexualization of women lack of social justice and foreign policies Through in depth interviews with Muslims living across the European Union Shore gives voice to people of deep faith who speak of the conflict between their desire to integrate into their adopted societies and the repulsion they feel toward some of what the West represents Shore offers a consideration of Islam's future in the West Cautioning Western leaders against an anti terrorist tunnel vision that could ultimately backfire Shore proposes bold creative and controversial solutions for attracting the hearts and minds of moderate Muslims living in the West

European Politics Paul Kubicek, 2017-07-14 European Politics surveys the history institutions and issues that are essential for understanding contemporary European politics Exploring a central question what is Europe this text's thematic approach helps students compare politics in individual countries and see the political big picture in the region European Politics examines not only countries already in the European Union but also those eligible to join to give students the most comprehensive picture of Europe's evolution in a globalized world Key changes for the new edition Fully revised and updated to include coverage of recent elections public opinion data and key topics such as refugees Russia and Ukraine Syria more on the economic crisis and Brexit Expanded and revised opening chapter explaining Europeanization multi level governance and the fissures in Europe Greater and updated coverage of theory multi culturalism and the EU This timely in depth text will be essential reading for anyone interested in European politics

Is There Still a West? William Anthony Hay, Harvey Sicherman, 2007 Scholarly essay collection that considers whether the West is still a major force in international affairs or whether we face a new world of competing states and shifting alliances In proposing possible counterterrorism strategies to define a shared Western security policy they offer an alternative to neoconservative and liberal viewpoints

Provided by publisher The Secular Contract Alex Schulman, 2011-06-23 The Secular Contract seeks to defend the European Enlightenment's secularization of political philosophy by promoting an understanding of Enlightenment secular liberalism and extending it to contemporary issues The work proposes that the Enlightenment united the secularizing trends that occurred at the time across all areas of knowledge into a secular contract for modern politics It argues that this was a normatively valuable enterprise whose aims and arguments need to be recovered today especially in light of the challenges faced by the West including fundamentalist Christianity in the US and radical Islam in Europe Looking at the works of many thinkers such as Hobbes Jefferson Madison Rousseau the book then shifts to the present day to argue for a different liberalism as suggested by such contemporary thinkers as William Galston or Stephen Macedo An engaging read The Secular Contract will appeal to anyone interested in political theory and the history of ideas

Comparative Homeland Security Nadav Morag, 2011-09-19 Students and practitioners of Homeland Security have generally not looked beyond U S borders in terms of searching for solutions to existing H S policy problems Comparative Homeland Security Global Lessons examines overseas homeland security practices allowing readers to integrate counter terrorism emergency response and other H S practices from around the world into our own policies The book covers strategies for combatting terrorism countering radicalization emergency response border and transportation security critical infrastructure protection public health and military support for civil authorities from a number of the world's democracies Organized topically the book allows scientists policymakers law enforcement professionals government workers and students of H S to easily compare and integrate the concepts presented into practice Migrants and Minorities Adam Luedtke,2020-05-22 Europe stands on the brink of a new era of diversity and immigration Although many Europeans would prefer to ignore this fact the signs are everywhere Societies and politics are being irrevocably changed by their encounters with migrants both recent and settled This book pinpoints the specific trends and emerging patterns that allow us to understand what these changes mean for the future of Europe On the ground level institutions like schools and local governments have charted unique courses for dealing with diversity And from above the institutions of Brussels become ever more important for regulating the big picture The passage of the Lisbon Treaty means that common EU rules on immigration will now be easier to achieve and more likely But what exact role is played by the institutions of the EU in Brussels and how does this vary across policy areas How are Europeans on all levels dealing with the sensitive questions raised by Islam and how are migrants and minorities dealing with the hostility and xenophobia they routinely encounter And finally how have the experiences of different European countries in integrating their immigrants and minorities changed our comparative understanding of race ethnicity and citizenship These three sets of issues EU level regulations Islam and Xenophobia and comparative integration policy are the topics that motivate and structure this book Noted experts on each topic offer the latest research findings which collectively advance our understanding of how Europe will deal with diversity in the 21st Century The Moment and Late Writings Robert L. Perkins,2009 On 18 December 1854 Kierkegaard began to publish a series of newspaper articles critical of the Danish state church This book views these writings not only in the context of the theological philosophical and social events of that time but also the 2005 2006 Danish cartoon controversy Observing Islam in Spain ,2018-05-07 Islam in Spain has been transformed from a historical to a social matter in recent decades attracting the attention of experts from a variety of disciplines However contributions to the field have been somewhat disperse The multidisciplinary nature of the research done mainly by specialists in Islamic Studies Anthropology Sociology and Law has not been conducive to debates between specialists or to the publication of comprehensive works that recognize the wealth of views and findings Observing Islam in Spain contains the keys to understanding current debates about the presence of Muslim citizens in Spain with regard to symbolism and public space the law ritual the question of re Islamization and the association building and political participation of young people and women Contributors are Marta Alonso Cabr Jos Mar a Contreras Mazar o Khalid Ghali Aitana Guia Alberto L pez Bargados Salvatore Madonia Laura Mijares Jordi Moreras Ana I Planet Contreras ngeles Ram rez scar Salguero Monta o Ariadna Sol Arrar s and Virtudes T llez Delgado Benchmarking Muslim Well-Being in Europe Irving Jackson, Pamela,Doerschler, Peter,2012-07-11 This highly topical book aims to undermine unsubstantiated myths by examining Muslim integration in Germany France the Netherlands and the United Kingdom states which dominate the debate on minority integration and the practice of Muslim religious traditions These nations have a range of alternative relationships between religion and the state as well as strategies for coordinating individuals ethnic and state identities Using the European Parliament s benchmarking guidelines surveys and other non official data the authors find that in some areas Muslims are in fact more integrated than popularly assumed and suggest that instead of failing to integrate Muslims find their access to integration blocked in ways that reduce their life chances in the societies in which they are now permanent residents The book will have an impact on research and policy especially with the commencement of the EU wide integration benchmarking effort and will be an excellent resource for researchers academics and policy makers
