Behind The Backlash Muslim Americans After 9 Or 11:

Behind the Backlash Lori Peek, 2011 How Muslim American identity has been shaped by 9 11 and its after effects

Thomas Jefferson's Qur'an Denise Spellberg, 2014-07-01 In this original and illuminating book Denise A Spellberg reveals a little known but crucial dimension of the story of American religious freedom a drama in which Islam played a surprising role In 1765 eleven years before composing the Declaration of Independence Thomas Jefferson bought a Qur'an This marked only the beginning of his lifelong interest in Islam and he would go on to acquire numerous books on Middle Eastern languages history and travel taking extensive notes on Islam as it relates to English common law Jefferson sought to understand Islam notwithstanding his personal disdain for the faith a sentiment prevalent among his Protestant contemporaries in England and America But unlike most of them by 1776 Jefferson could imagine Muslims as future citizens of his new country Based on groundbreaking research Spellberg compellingly recounts how a handful of the Founders Jefferson foremost among them drew upon Enlightenment ideas about the toleration of Muslims then deemed the ultimate outsiders in Western society to fashion out of what had been a purely speculative debate a practical foundation for governance in America In this way Muslims who were not even known to exist in the colonies became the imaginary outer limit for an unprecedented uniquely American religious pluralism that would also encompass the actual despised minorities of Jews and Catholics The rancorous public dispute concerning the inclusion of Muslims for which principle Jefferson's political foes would vilify him to the end of his life thus became decisive in the Founders' ultimate judgment not to establish a Protestant nation as they might well have done As popular suspicions about Islam persist and the numbers of American Muslim citizenry grow into the millions Spellberg's revelatory understanding of this radical notion of the Founders is more urgent than ever Thomas Jefferson's Qur'an is a timely look at the ideals that existed at our country's creation and their fundamental implications for our present and future

Scapegoating Islam Jeffrey L. Thomas, 2015-09-15 Exploring the experience of Muslims in America following 9 11 this book assesses how anti Muslim bias within the U S government and the larger society undermines American security and democracy In the aftermath of the events of September 11 2001 Muslims in America have experienced discrimination and intolerance from the U S government and American citizens alike From religious and ethnic profiling to hate crimes intolerance against Muslims is being reinforced on multiple levels undercutting the Muslim community's engagement in American society This text is essential for understanding how the unjust treatment of American Muslims following September 11 has only served to alienate the Muslim community and further divide the United States Authored by an expert analyst of policy for 20 years this book explores the prejudice against Muslims and how the actions of the U S government continue to perpetuate fear and stereotypes within U S citizens The author posits that by respecting the civil rights of Muslims the government will lead by example in the acceptance of American Muslims improving homeland security along with the lives of Muslims living in the United States

Learning Challenges for Culturally and

Linguistically Diverse (CLD) Students With Disabilities Fallah, Soraya, Reynolds, Bronte, Murawski, Wendy, 2020-01-10

When children with learning challenges are identified the educational community in the United States diligently applies a well established model of remediation that has for the most part yielded positive results Research however has demonstrated that the American perception of disability may vary from those in Eastern cultures These cultural differences can play a significant role in the failure to achieve learning success on behalf of children from the Middle East North Africa and Southwest Asian MENASWA families It is critical for the school community to recognize and acknowledge these differences and bring them into alignment in order to meet these students learning needs Learning Challenges for Culturally and Linguistically Diverse CLD Students With Disabilities is an essential reference publication that identifies ways in which CLD families can be involved with schools to help build educators cultural competence and explores the idea of disabilities as a social model with a focus on strengths rather than a medical model focused on needs and weaknesses Featuring coverage on a wide range of topics including racial identity leadership wisdom and family school collaboration this book is ideally designed for educators principals administrators curriculum developers instructional designers policymakers advocates researchers academicians and students

A Global Racial Enemy Saher Selod, Inaash Islam, Steve Garner, 2023-11-28
Prejudice against Muslims has a long and complex history In recent decades discrimination violence and human rights abuses against Muslims have taken a significant turn with rising reports and discussions of Islamophobia across the globe However much of the conversation has missed the key features of this increasingly insidious phenomenon This original book puts race at the center of the analysis exposing the global racialization of Muslims With special attention paid to the United States China India and the United Kingdom the authors examine both the unique national contexts and crucially the shared characteristics of anti Muslim racism They uncover how a range of counterterrorism policies from hyper surveillance to racialized policing and the ensuing representation of Islam have taken a decisive role in shaping social life for Muslims and have worked across borders to justify and institutionalize an acceptable state sponsored face of racism Ultimately A Global Racial Enemy argues that anti Muslim animus is a symptom of a global and powerful form of twenty first century racism

The Fear of Islam, Second Edition Todd H. Green, 2019-09-03 The Fear of Islam investigates the context of Western views of Islam and offers an introduction to the historical roots and contemporary anxiety regarding Islam within the Western world Tracing the medieval legacy of religious polemics and violence Green orients readers to the complex history and issues of Western relations to Islam from early and late modern colonial enterprises and theories of Orientalism to the production of religious discourses of otherness and the clash of civilizations that proliferated in the era of 9 11 and the war on terror In this second edition Green brings the reader up to date examining the Islamophobic rhetoric of the 2016 US presidential election and the ongoing success of populist and far right parties in Europe Green provides updated data on the rise of anti Muslim legislation for example the Muslim ban in the United States and a wave of full face veil bans in Europe as well as the rise in anti Muslim hate crimes on both sides of the Atlantic since 2015 This important book is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand current views of Islam and to work toward meaningful peace and understanding between religious communities Media, Myth, and Millennials Christopher Campbell, Loren Saxton Coleman, 2019-09-13 Media Myth and Millennials Critical Perspectives on Race and Culture debunks the post racial myth among millennial media consumers and producers This theoretically diverse collection of contributors highlights the complexity at the intersections of media race gender sexuality class and place Loren Saxton Coleman and Christopher Campbell s edited collection offers critical and cultural insight on the commodification of millennial audiences and the acts of resistance that emerge from millennial media producers and consumers Scholars of sociology media studies race studies gender studies and cultural studies will find this book especially useful Migration, Incorporation, and Change in an Interconnected World Syed Ali, Doug Hartmann, 2015-01-09 Written in engaging and approachable prose Migration Incorporation and Change in an Interconnected World covers the bulk of material a student needs to get a good sense of the empirical and theoretical trends in the field of migration studies while being short enough that professors can easily build their courses around it without hesitating to assign additional readings Taking a unique approach Ali and Hartmann focus on what they consider the important topics and the potential route the field is going to take and incorporate a conceptual lens that makes this much more than a simple relaying of facts Lone Star Muslims Ahmed Afzal, 2015 Lone Star Muslims offers an engaging and insightful look at contemporary Muslim American life in Texas It illuminates the dynamics of the Pakistani Muslim community in Houston a city with one of the largest Muslim populations in the south and southwestern United States Drawing on interviews and participant observation at radio stations festivals and ethnic businesses the volume explores everyday Muslim lives at the intersection of race class profession gender sexuality and religious sectarian affiliation to demonstrate the complexity of the South Asian experience Importantly the volume incorporates narratives of gay Muslim American men of Pakistani descent countering the presumed heteronormativity evident in most of the social science scholarship on Muslim Americans and revealing deeply felt affiliations to Islam through ritual and practice It also includes narratives of members of the highly skilled Shia Ismaili Muslim labor force employed in corporate America of Pakistani ethnic entrepreneurs the working class and the working poor employed in Pakistani ethnic businesses of community activists and of radio program hosts Decentering dominant framings that flatten understandings of transnational Islam and Muslim Americans such as terrorist on the one hand and model minority on the other Lone Star Muslims offers a glimpse into a variety of lived experiences It shows how specificities of class Islamic sectarian affiliation citizenship status gender and sexuality shape transnational identities and mediate racism marginalities and abjection Superheroes in the Streets Kimberly Wedeven Segall, 2024-03-26 The icon of the female protester and her alter ego the female superhero fills screens in the news in theaters and in digital spaces The female protester who is Muslim though has been subject to a legacy of discrimination

Superheroes in the Streets Muslim Women Activists and Protest in the Digital Age follows the stories of both famous and grassroots Muslim female protestors bringing careful attention to protest modes and online national icons US Muslim women have long navigated public and digital spaces aware of the complex and nuanced histories that trail them Given the pervasive influence of mainstream feminism Muslim women activists are often made out to be damsels in distress Even when mass media turns its attention to the activism of Muslim women persistence of these false narratives demeans their culture and hypersexualizes their bodies Following the stories of US Muslim women activists author Kimberly Wedeven Segall shows how they have been reinventing the streets and remaking racialized codifications Segall highlights their creativity in crafting protest media of posters rap rally songs and digital images of superheroes carving public spaces into inclusive and digital territories Each chapter teases apart the complexities of public banners and digital activism
