

Good intentions are simply not enough.
Our character is defined and our lives are determined not by what we want, say or think, but by what we do.

City Schools and the American Dream 2 Pedro A. Noguera, Esa Syeed, 2020 Over a decade ago the first edition of City Schools and the American Dream debuted just as reformers were gearing up to make sweeping changes in urban education Despite the rhetoric and many reform initiatives urban schools continue to struggle under the weight of serious challenges What went wrong and is there hope for future change More than a new edition this sequel to the original bestseller has been substantially revised to include insights from new research recent demographic trends and emerging political realities In addition to surveying the various limitations that urban schools face the book also highlights programs communities and schools that are making good on public education's promise of equity With renewed commitment and sense of urgency this new edition provides a clear-eyed vision of what it will take to ensure the success of city schools and their students City schools continue to play one of the most important roles in our quest to restore democracy This is a must read again Gloria Ladson Billings University of Wisconsin Madison The authors provide concrete examples of innovative strategies and practices employed by urban schools that are succeeding against all odds Betty A Rosa chancellor New York State Board of Regents This is the book every teacher parent policymaker and engaged citizen should read Marcelo M Suarez Orozco UCLA

Transforming Multicultural Education Policy and Practice James A. Banks, 2021 The Multicultural Education Series of books at Teachers College Press was initiated in 1996 and is celebrating its 25th anniversary in 2021 The Series consists of more than 70 published books and others that are in various stages of development This 25th commemorative volume consists of engaging incisive and timely selections from the best selling and most influential books in the Series The selections describe ways in which multicultural education should be reimagined in a nation and world that are becoming increasingly complex because of continuing immigration race is becoming more fluid and complex due to interracial mixing and border crossing and because social class stratification is intensifying and becoming more salient because of the pandemic

Learn to lead yourself, your people and your organization for great results, 2023-12-20 Putting people first has always been the basis of our success We believe that if we take care of our employees they will take care of our customers and the business will take care of itself Even after the 9/11 terrorist attacks in New York where we went from an occupancy rate of 75 to 5% overnight where our hotels were empty of guests but full of staff putting people first was the our priority Instead of suffering massive layoffs we implemented education programs maintained health benefits and did everything we could to get through the crisis with minimal negative impact on our people In a business like ours and I believe in any other sector we simply cannot be successful unless people are truly committed and happy in their work It is our commitment to create an environment where the unique contributions of our people are valued I believe the fact that Marriott is consistently considered an employer of choice is the result of these efforts Promoting a people first culture starts with leadership Leaders must model the way They must act interact and engage with the people they lead in a way that makes people feel seen heard and valued In The Mind of the Leader Rasmus Hougaard and Jacqueline Carter provide a clear path to creating people first organizations It requires leaders to be human first to be mindful selfless and compassionate and in doing so develop the qualities that enable engagement fulfillment and meaning which leads to greater business success If we as leaders are attentive we will know better what really matters to our people We are more present attentive and curious It s not always easy but I know the difference between being present with my people and when I m not I only have an impact when I am If we as leaders are selfless taking into account the bigger picture rather than our own selfish needs we will model cultures of growth and learning Bill Marriott our executive chairman even now in his eighties always has his ear open He is always seeking the perspective of others rather than blindly following his own beliefs and ideas If we as leaders are compassionate our people will know we are protected As this book clearly describes compassion is not soft and sentimental It is concrete and practical It s about doing the right thing like putting a doctor on staff during the Depression Again if we truly care about our employees they will truly care for our customers and the business will truly care for itself In many ways the principles in this book run counter to the number of businesses run It inspires me and provides insights to further evolve our culture and put people first And I believe that all leaders and other organizations will benefit greatly from its messages

Moral Dilemmas J. Philip Wogaman, 2009-03-02 How can we make decisions that are consistent with our basic values We must first J Philip Wogaman says identify basic moral presumptions that can guide our thought as we face moral dilemmas These basic moral presumptions include equality grace the value of human life the unity of humankind preferential claims for the poor and marginalized and the goodness of creation The burden of proof he argues must be borne by decisions that are contrary to such presumptions He pulls into the conversation difficult ethical issues such as divorce sexuality abortion political choices economic justice affirmative action homosexuality nuclear disarmament economic globalization global warming international security environmental policies and military power In the process he provides a smart and helpful guide to Christian ethical behavior
