Michael Burgan

Breakout The Chosin Reservoir Campaign Korea 1950:

Breakout Martin Russ,1999 In 1950 sixty thousand North Koreans battled to wipe out 12 000 U S Marines under the command of General Douglas MacArthur This is their story of human courage in the face of death East of Chosin Roy Edgar Appleman,1987 Well written and meticulously researched East of Chosin is military history at its best Harry G Summers Jr Washington Post Book World The Marines' Fight for Survival Rod Andrew Jr.,2025-10-20 Only five years after Marines raised the American flag on Iwo Jima the United States Marine Corps was close to becoming a hollow force A parsimonious Truman administration and a hostile defense secretary Louis Johnson had reduced the Corps to a handful of understrength infantry battalions assorted supporting artillery and tank units and twelve aircraft squadrons Its future hung in the balance In The Marines Fight for Survival historian and retired Marine Corps Colonel Rod Andrew Jr guides readers through the dramatic twists and turns of the campaign waged by a handful of senior Marines citizens legislators and journalists to defend the Corps and prevent its elimination or forced irrelevance Through politicking intrigue deception and extreme moral courage the Corps defenders waged a bitter battle of policy and publicity in the halls of power and the national media But while this campaign of persuasion moved the needle in some important ways the final victory for the Marines future was ultimately won on the battlefields of Korea Andrew argues that it was the gritty performance of the frontline Marines and their supporting airmen in Korea that ultimately saved the Corps The elite reputation that they created for themselves and the affection they had garnered from the public throughout the twentieth century would not have been possible without the valor and the victories of frontline Marines The Corps place in the national defense structure was sealed with the Douglas Mansfield Act of 1952 in which Congress granted a legal voice to the USMC Commandant on the Joint Chiefs of Staff and made the Corps the only service branch to have a permanent minimal strength protected by law The Korean War Keith D. McFarland,2009-12-04 The Korean War is the most comprehensive and detailed bibliography compiled to date on the American involvement in The Forgotten War In this revised and expanded second edition Keith D McFarland s clearly written annotations provide concise descriptions of more than 2 600 of the most important books articles and documents written in English on the conflict in Korea Key topics include origins of the war the political and military roles of North and South Korea the United States the Soviet Union China Great Britain Canada Australia South Africa Turkey and other United Nations members campaigns and battles weapons and uniforms and the military and diplomatic aspects of the war Specific subjects are easy to find using the index organized by topic and author making The Korean War a necessity for every academic or research library A Continent Erupts Ronald H. Spector,2022-08-23 A Foreign Affairs Best Book of 2022 Marvelous Spector s gripping book helps us to understand why the legacy of these conflicts is still with us today Sheila Miyoshi Jager New York Times Book Review The end of World War II led to the United States emergence as a global superpower For war ravaged Western Europe it marked the beginning of decades of unprecedented cooperation and prosperity that one historian has labeled the long peace Yet half a world away in China Indonesia Vietnam Korea and Malaya the fighting never really stopped as these regions sought to completely sever the yoke of imperialism and colonialism with all too violent consequences East and Southeast Asia quickly became the most turbulent regions of the globe Within weeks of the famous surrender ceremony aboard the U S S Missouri civil war communal clashes and insurgency engulfed the continent from Southeast Asia to the Soviet border By early 1947 full scale wars were raging in China Indonesia and Vietnam with growing guerrilla conflicts in Korea and Malaya Within a decade after the Japanese surrender almost all of the countries of South East and Southeast Asia that had formerly been conquests of the Japanese or colonies of the European powers experienced wars and upheavals that resulted in the deaths of at least 25 million combatants and millions of civilians With A Continent Erupts acclaimed military historian Ronald H Spector draws on letters diaries and international archives to provide for the first time a comprehensive military history and analysis of these little known but decisive events Far from being simply offshoots of the Cold War as they have often been portrayed these shockingly violent conflicts forever changed the shape of Asia and the world as we know it today

Fallen Comrade Walter Howell, 2024-06-10 Fallen Comrade A Story of the Korean War presents an account of three young men from Clinton Mississippi who served in the US Marine Corps during the Korean War Waller King Joe Albritton and Homer Ainsworth were childhood friends who grew up in the same neighborhood went to the same schools attended the same church and eventually joined the same Marine Corps reserve unit in Jackson Through extensive interviews with people who knew them as well as excerpts from their letters and journals this volume traces the life experiences of King Albritton and Ainsworth through their adolescence and into the war Despite their shared origins the three young men met different fates Ainsworth was in Korea just two months before he was killed Albritton and King returned home after the war but Albritton died tragically in an automobile accident mere weeks later King went on to college and experienced success in business the joys of a family and the rewards of community service all of which were denied his childhood friends by their early deaths Part biography and part military history Fallen Comrade examines what happened to three young men from Clinton their childhood in small town Mississippi their service as Marines in Korea and their legacy to their hometown
